Saine,1997 In The Problem of Being Modern Thomas P Saine provides a lucid introduction to German thought in the eighteenth century and the struggle of Enlightenment philosophers and writers to come to grips with the profound philosophical and theological implications of new scientific developments since the seventeenth century He concentrates on those points at which the essential modernity and the secular viewpoint of the Enlightenment conflicted with traditional thought structures rooted in the religious world view that governed attitudes and behavior far into the eighteenth century The Experiential Turn in Eighteenth-Century German Philosophy Karin de Boer,Tinca Prunea-Bretonnet,2021-05-17 This collection of essays challenges the prevailing assumption that eighteenth century German philosophy prior to Kant was largely defined by post Leibnizian rationalism and accordingly a low esteem of the cognitive function of the senses It does so by highlighting the various ways in which eighteenth century German philosophers reconceived the notion and role of experience in their efforts to identify defend and contest the contribution of sensibility to disciplines such as metaphysics theology the natural sciences psychology and aesthetics Engaging in depth with Tschirnhaus Wolff the Wolffians eclecticism Popularphilosophie the Berlin Academy Tetens and Kant its thirteen chapters present a more nuanced understanding of the German reception of British and French ideas and dismiss the prevailing view that German philosophy was largely isolated from European debates Moreover the book introduces a number of relatively unknown but highly relevant philosophers and developments to non specialized scholars and contributes to a better understanding of the richness and complexity of the German Enlightenment Friedrich Ueberwegs Grundriss Der Geschichte Der Philosophie... Friedrich Ueberweg,1915 Aufhebung der Philosophie - Marx und die Folgen Eberhard Braun,2017-01-09 Revelation, Reason and Reality Joris Geldhof,2007 This study provides an in depth analysis of the relationship between modernity and Christianity The author argues that the notion of revelation is eminently reasonable and indissolubly connected with being and reality He takes Jaspers philosophy of religion as representative of the classical modern critique and gives it its due He then takes a step backward so to speak and by means of a consideration of the history of ideas seeks to rehabilitate the Christian understanding of revelation To do this he draws upon Schelling s remarkable philosophy of revelation and Baader s much less familiar speculative dogmatics However this study is much more than a profound philosophical and theological account of the thought of Jaspers Schelling and Baader It is above all an eloquent defence of the plausibility and intelligibility of what Christians have always believed In fact the author makes a compelling case for the claim that revelation is that without which Christianity cannot be thought
