Used Book Store Near Me:

Thoughts From Yesterday Glen Thomas Hierlmeier, 2013-01-24 My life has been so rich owing to the people who I have been blessed to know who have provided the substance to write about and I have been in so many wonderful places Once I capture a theme I mull it over for days or weeks and months sometimes years I may write several drafts in my mind before I write a single word Sometimes the first writing of a story will come out in more or less final draft form I tend to be very serious in my writing I choose serious subjects then I try to honor my commitment that a good story should make you laugh and cry and relate to the people places and things in the story Unfortunately there is often much more crying than laughing I ll keep working on that You should know that I have cried first As I write I relive my stories there are some I have read many times and I have cried over them every time as much the last as the first As my subtitle relates this is an unfinished work There are many more stories and essays letters poems and such that I still have in mind to write I hope to get to many more of them so we can share the special people places and things of our lives I have been encouraged to go ahead with what I have knowing that I will keep writing and keep crying and laughing some too The Red Chestnut Bookstore Don Light, 2011-02 The book is a novel about the consequences of a large increase in fees imposed on students by the administration of the University of California as a result of severe cuts in funding by the State Legislature Thousands of students demonstrate against the fee hike Also other forms of protest take place such as students blocking the entrances to the administration building The main emphasis is on the role of a few students in leading the protests and a telling of their love affairs

Hill Women Cassie Chambers, 2021-01-12 After rising from poverty to earn two Ivy League degrees an Appalachian lawyer pays tribute to the strong hill women who raised and inspired her and whose values have the potential to rejuvenate a struggling region Destined to be compared to Hillbilly Elegy and Educated BookPage starred review A gritty warm love letter to Appalachian communities and the resourceful women who lead them Slate Nestled in the Appalachian mountains Owsley County Kentucky is one of the poorest places in the country Buildings are crumbling as tobacco farming and coal mining decline But strong women find creative ways to subsist in the hills Through the women who raised her Cassie Chambers traces her path out of and back into the Kentucky mountains Chambers s Granny was a child bride who rose before dawn every morning to raise seven children Granny s daughter Ruth the hardest working tobacco farmer in the county stayed on the family farm while Wilma the sixth child became the first in the family to graduate from high school Married at nineteen and pregnant with Cassie a few months later Wilma beat the odds to finish college She raised her daughter to think she could move mountains like the ones that kept her safe but also isolated from the larger world Cassie would spend much of her childhood with Granny and Ruth in the hills of Owsley County With her hill women values guiding her she went on to graduate from Harvard Law But while the Ivy League gave her opportunities its privileged world felt far from her reality and she moved home to help rural Kentucky women by providing free legal services Appalachian women face issues from domestic violence to the opioid crisis but they are also keeping their towns together in the face of a system that continually fails them With nuance and heart Chambers breaks down the myth of the hillbilly and illuminates a region whose poor communities especially women can lead it into the future Witchcraft on a Shoestring Deborah Blake,2010 Witchcraft

The Little Bookstore of Big Stone Gap Wendy Welch,2025-10-16 An inspiring true story about losing your place finding your purpose and building a community one book at a time Wendy Welch and her husband had always dreamed of owning a bookstore so when they left their high octane jobs for a simpler life in an Appalachian coal town they seized an unexpected opportunity to pursue thier dream The only problems A declining U S economy a small town with no industry and the advent of the e book They also had no idea how to run a bookstore Against all odds but with optimism the help of their Virginian mountain community and an abiding love for books they succeeded in establishing more than a thriving business they built a community The Little Bookstore of Big Stone Gap is the little bookstore that could how two people two cats two dogs and thirty eight thousand books helped a small town find its heart It is a story about people and books and how together they create community The Art of the Bookstore Gibbs M. Smith,2020-11-11 The unique lives of bookstores across America are captured in words and original oil paintings in this loving tribute to booksellers and bibliophiles For decades publisher Gibbs M Smith visited bookstores across the United States Inspired by the unique personality and ambiance of these community cultural hubs he made oil paintings of these bookstores to feature on the covers of his publishing company s catalogue each season The Art of the Bookstore collects sixty eight of these paintings pairing them with quotes essays and remembrances about bookselling a pursuit that is often more art than science from Smith as well as other industry veterans This volume captures the unique atmosphere of iconic bookshops including New York City s Strand Bookstore Washington D C s Politics Prose and L A s Book Soup Extraordinary Miracles in the Lives of Ordinary People Therese

Marszalek,2007 Miracles still happen today and can happen to you just as they have for over 70 individuals in the pages of this amazing book God is actively involved and sending His angels to help people everywhere The Boy Who Killed

Demons Dave Zeltserman,2014-10-15 A barbarian turned Roman warrior leads an army against Persian invaders in this bestselling epic historical adventure series opener A D 255 The Roman Imperium is stretched to the breaking point its authority and might challenged throughout the territories and along every border One man is sent to marshal the defenses of a lonely city and to shore up the crumbling walls of a once indomitable symbol of Roman power a man whose very name means war a man called Ballista So unfolds an epic drama a story of empire heroes treachery courage and most of all of brutal bloody warfare Praise for Fire in the East In this blood and guts tale of ancient warfare Oxford lecturer Sidebottom introduces readers to Marcus Clodius Bastilla a third century warrior who has risen through the ranks of the Roman army to achieve citizenship and the honorific of Dux Ripea How the brave and resourceful former barbarian defends himself from forces both within and without the city walls forms the spine of this action packed and detail rich narrative This novel of sharp swords and blunt wit should find an appreciative audience among bloodthirsty battle boys of all ages Publishers Weekly DadQuest Tom Sadira, 2024-11-28 Seth Madrigal humble househusband and homeschooling father didn't burn down the house Let's just all keep that in mind All he'd intended to do was rekindle his kids love for learning by wrapping their day in a fantasy live action roleplay system he created Dadquest It involved adventure intrigue loot with a little homework thrown in to keep things educational Sure he may have unknowingly brought home a cursed book that summoned evil minions to kill his family There's no point denying that part If it weren't for the shattered toilet in the upstairs bathroom or the scorch marks on the backyard lawn remember the house did not burn down Seth might have been able to chalk the whole thing up to a caffeine fueled hallucination Or perhaps a nervous breakdown Maybe a mid life crisis Goddess knows he was ripe for all three Look of course it sounds impossible and ridiculous But every word of it is true And if his beloved wife accepted his five thousand apologies including his explanation about how his mother in law's lipstick got all over his face then you should too Let's focus on the fact that the house is officially not burned down Seth kept his word To his wife He deserves a raise but will also accept a chest of legendary loot as compensation Huzzah This fantasy fueled fiasco was written by Tom Sadira for his upcoming short story anthology A Few Before We're Through which is available now for pre order

Reflective Reading and the Power of Narrative Karyn Sproles, 2018-07-11 Reflective Reading and the Power of Narrative Producing the Reader is an interdisciplinary exploration into the profound power of narratives to create and recreate how we imagine ourselves It posits that the process of producing a text also produces the reader Written from the perspective of a psychoanalytic feminist Sproles considers a wide array of examples from literature popular culture and her own experiences to illustrate what she calls reflective reading a metacognitive reading practice that recognizes the workings of the unconscious to push the reader toward a potentially transformational engagement with narrative This may manifest as epiphany recovery from loss or resolution of repressed trauma Each chapter draws on examples of characters and authors who model a reflective reading process from Jane Austen and Virginia Woolf to Johnny Cash and Alison Bechdel By reclaiming the role of the unconscious Karyn Sproles reinvigorates the theoretical work begun by reader response criticism and develops a deep understanding of identification and transference as an integral part of the reading process For students and researchers of cultural studies psychoanalysis gender studies and feminist literature and theory Reflective Reading and the Power of Narrative offers innovative and accessible ideas on the relationship between reader and text The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
