Water Robert P. Vande Kappelle, 2022-10-27 Everyone loves a good story one with interesting characters an intriguing plot lots of twists and turns and a surprise ending Jesus was a master storyteller teaching primarily through a technique we call parables In fact over one third of the gospel material in the New Testament is parabolic in nature Examining the parables of Jesus Living Water views parables as a wisdom genre belonging to mashal the Jewish tradition of sacred poetry stories proverbs riddles and dialogues through which wisdom is conveyed In the Hebrew Bible the Old Testament mashal is often associated with perplexing sayings for its meaning is deliberately obscured in order to force the reader or listener to deeper thought and higher consciousness While examining the parables of Jesus Living Water focuses not so much on traditional explanations and interpretations but on their paradoxical and perplexing nature In addition this book encourages us to take a parabolic approach to all Scripture viewing it as an aid to help us move from egoic existence to unitive existence This Spirit led way of living thinking and being requires a transformation from our False Self to our True Self from dualist self obsession to nondualist consciousness characterized by risk taking compassion generosity availability and joy a path charted by the parables of Jesus Benefitting from recent scholarly research Living Water is unique in content and conception and is useful for individual or group study Each chapter concludes with questions suitable for discussion or reflection The Church Year at Home Christine E. Curley, 2021-07-28 For parents in today s world it can be hard to find the time and resources to fully equip our children to be spiritually mature adults So much demands our attention and distracts us from God Curley offers a resource to help parents structure their days and weeks to glorify God and disciple children Using the church calendar as a guide she proposes simple and realistic ways as well as resources for the whole family to engage in the Scriptures and thereby push back on the unrelenting culture of today The Resurrected God John L. Drury, 2014 Revision of author s thesis Ph D Princeton Theological Seminary 2011 Zion's Herald, 1903 What's Worship Got to Do with It? Cláudio Carvalhaes, 2018-11-09 This book connects the living realms of the church the self the neighbor and the world It envisions our daily local and global life from liturgical spaces places where Christians worship God Through these relations we can connect worship with economy preaching with raising a village baptism with forms of citizenship ecology and the market Easter with immigration liturgical knees with colonization spirituality with minority voices all uttering prayers that name racism poverty and a liberation theology of glory In these pages Claudio Carvalhaes issues a call to the churches to move from captive and colonized spaces into where the Spirit lives among the poor the needy the forgotten With a variety of relations between the Christian faith and our cultural ways of living Carvalhaes offers new liturgical and theological imaginings to be engaged with the most vulnerable in our societies and the earth A creative liturgical theology of liberation that makes sense of God between the world and the table altar between the pulpit and local communities the worship space and our multiple lived experiences For liturgy is an endless song of liberation This book is a call to life

The Corinthian Correspondence Helen Doohan, 2016-08-18 The Corinthian correspondence and the community it reflects are exciting and exasperating interesting and complex The letters offer us a window of opportunity to view Paul's personal and pastoral presence in his growing relationship with this church Struggling with his own history the history of the community and the newness of the Gospel he preaches Paul identifies an approach that balances tradition and innovation theological foundations and principles of action The passion persuasion and purpose of the apostle permeate these letters and no one is unaware that the Lord Jesus is the center of his Gospel message and of his life Paul offers insight into the commitment of early apostles disciples and ministers in the Corinthian community He personally experiences the dying and rising of Christ in his work with this community giving a ring of truth to his own assessment of Christian life and ministry Only faith transforms adversity into an opportunity for growth and Paul's faith and perseverance offer hope to those of us who continue to experience the paradoxes of Christian life and ministry

Living Your Baptism In Lent Dennis Strach, 2019-12-13 During Lent the Church invites us to reflect on those times that we have turned away from God and consider how we can return to him in all we say and do Living Your Baptism in Lent Weekly Reflections for Your Journey helps readers respond to this invitation by reflecting on their relationship with God Through the grace of our Baptism we have become sons and daughters of God As such we are strengthened by the Holy Spirit to reject sin and choose instead to follow God Each week readers consider this choice as they reflect on the questions asked before Baptism These questions or baptismal promises shape our understanding of what it means to live a Christian life They call us to become witnesses of our faith to others especially to those who are preparing to be baptized at the Easter Vigil Our Lenten journey leads us to the celebration of Easter where we renew our baptismal promises and rejoice in the salvation gained for us by Christ's Resurrection. Each week's reflection ends with questions and Scripture passages to use in individual prayer. A guide for leading small groups in these reflections is also included. God the Loving Father Mary Florence Brown, 1922
