The Future of Men Jack Myers, 2016-03-01 Once again Jack Myers has his fingers on the pulse of the very latest Myers has clearly done his homework and the result is this superb book Ken Burns documentary filmmaker of The Roosevelts and The Civil War After being told all their lives to be a man and man up men are now rejecting the macho stereotype and instead developing empathy getting in touch with their emotions and becoming more sensitive in their relationships Women are gaining ground in business culture education relationships and politics as traditional male and female roles disappear The Future of Men Masculinity in the Twenty First Century prepares men and women for this shift in gender norms As the definition of a real man evolves understanding the future of men in business politics sports education relationships and parenting will be essential for men to maintain psychological well being strengthen their self esteem and sexual self confidence and rewire their emotional lives The Future of Men provides tools to help men and especially younger men recognize and embrace new behaviors that are required for health and happiness at work at home and in their relationships

Retrotopia Zygmunt Bauman, 2017-03-06 We have long since lost our faith in the idea that human beings could achieve human happiness in some future ideal state a state that Thomas More writing five centuries ago tied to a topos a fixed place a land an island a sovereign state under a wise and benevolent ruler But while we have lost our faith in utopias of all hues the human aspiration that made this vision so compelling has not died Instead it is re emerging today as a vision focused not on the future but on the past not on a future to be created but on an abandoned and undead past that we could call retrotopia The emergence of retrotopia is interwoven with the deepening gulf between power and politics that is a defining feature of our contemporary liquid modern world the gulf between the ability to get things done and the capability of deciding what things need to be done a capability once vested with the territorially sovereign state This deepening gulf has rendered nation states unable to deliver on their promises giving rise to a widespread disenchantment with the idea that the future will improve the human condition and a mistrust in the ability of nation states to make this happen True to the utopian spirit retrotopia derives its stimulus from the urge to rectify the failings of the present human condition though now by resurrecting the failed and forgotten potentials of the past Imagined aspects of the past genuine or putative serve as the main landmarks today in drawing the road map to a better world Having lost all faith in the idea of building an alternative society of the future many turn instead to the grand ideas of the past buried but not yet dead Such is retrotopia the contours of which are examined by Zygmunt Bauman in this sharp dissection of our contemporary romance with the past
