The Crisis of Connection Niobe Way, Alisha Ali, Carol Gilligan, Pedro Noguera, 2020-01-07 A collection of essays that examine the causes of and provide solutions to the widespread alienation and disconnection that beset modern society Since the beginning of the 21st century people have become increasingly disconnected from themselves each other and the world around them A crisis of connection stemming from growing alienation social isolation and fragmentation characterizes modern society The signs of this crisis of connection are everywhere from decreasing levels of empathy and trust to burgeoning cases of suicide depression and loneliness The astronomical rise in inequality around the world has contributed to the critical nature of this moment To delve into the heart of the crisis leading researchers and practitioners draw from the science of human connection to tell a five part story about its roots consequences and solutions In doing so they reveal how we in modern society have been captive to a false narrative that takes individualism as a universal truth The new story now emerging from across the human sciences underscores our social and emotional capacities and needs The science also reveals the ways in which the privileging of the self over relationships and of individual success over the common good as well as the perpetuation of dehumanizing stereotypes have led to a crisis of connection that is now widespread Finally the practitioners in the volume present concrete solutions that show ways we can create a more just and humane world This profoundly important book suggests that our innate human determination to bridge differences and live in vulnerable loving relationships is the antidote to rising fear and anxiety Lyn Mikel Brown author of Powered by Girl

Saturday Review, 1875 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1875 Management from A to Z by Zweig White, 2010-09-30 An Ocean of Wonder by ku'ualoha ho'omanawanui, Joyce Pualani Warren, Cristina Bacchilega, 2024-04-30

An Ocean of Wonder The Fantastic in the Pacific brings together fifty writers and artists from across Moananui kea working in myriad genres across media ranging from oral narratives and traditional wonder tales to creative writing as well as visual artwork and scholarly essays. Collectively, this anthology features the fantastic as present-day Indigenous Pacific world building that looks to the past in creating alternative futures and in so doing reimagines relationships between peoples, environments, deities, nonhuman relatives, history, dreams, and storytelling. Wonder is activated by curiosity, humility in the face of mystery, and engagement with possibilities. We see wonder and the fantastic as general modes of expression that are not confined to realism. As such, the fantastic encompasses fantasy, science fiction, magic realism, fabulation, horror, fairy tale, utopia, dystopia, and speculative fiction. We include Black feminist and queer futurisms, Indigenous wonderworks, Hawaiian mo'olelo kamaha'o and mo'olelo iwaiwa, Somoan fagogo, and other non-mimetic genres from specific cultures because we recognize that their refusal to adopt restrictive Euro-American definitions of reality is what inspires and enables the fantastic to flourish. As artistic, intellectual, and culturally based expressions that encode and embody Indigenous knowledge, the multimodal mo'olelo in this collection upend monolithic, often exoticizing and demeaning stereotypes of the Pacific and situate themselves in conversation with critical understandings of the global fantastic, Indigenous futurities, social justice, and decolonial and activist storytelling. In this collection, Oceanic ideas and images surround and connect to Hawai'i, which is for the three coeditors a piko center at the same time navigating both juxtaposition and association. The collection seeks to articulate pilina relationships across genres, locations, time, and media and to celebrate the multiplicity and relationality of the fantastic in Oceania.
