When Kids Say They're Trans Sasha Ayad, Lisa Marchiano, Stella O'Malley, 2023-09-07 Being the parent of a gender questioning child is confusing You want to do what's best for your child but doctors and therapists might make recommendations that conflict with your instincts as a parent the person who best knows your child's unique history challenges and struggles Do you immediately affirm a newly professed gender identity watch and wait or pursue some other path While many books have been written for parents who choose to facilitate their child's gender transition there are almost no books for parents who do not think that social or medical transition is the best option for their child Written by Sasha Ayad Lisa Marchiano and Stella O'Malley three mental health professionals who collectively have decades of experience working with trans identified adolescents and their families When Kids Say They're Trans is a resource designed explicitly for those parents who do not think that hasty affirmation or medicalization is the best way to ensure the long term health and well being of their child It is also for those who simply aren't so sure about the best course of action and want to learn the facts before committing to a particular approach At a time when schools institutions and governments increasingly promote ideas about gender that confuse children and even encourage kids to keep secrets from their parents the authors celebrate parental love and engagement as the bedrock that children need to move out into the world As the authors make clear parents who have successfully helped their children navigate gender distress without resorting to surgery and hormones have done so by actively taking the reins not by reflexively outsourcing this responsibility or waiting until they found the ideal therapist or doctor When Kids Say They're Trans tells you all you need to know as a parent to help your child struggling with gender issues and will give you the confidence to trust your own instincts as you guide and support your child on the path toward growth acceptance and maturity

The Parent Survival Guide Theresa Kellam, 2011-02-14 When parents turn to the parenting self help section of their local bookstore they are looking for both practical guidance and a childrearing philosophy that resonates with them an approach they can relate to and be comfortable implementing in their own household In The Parent Survival Guide From Chaos to Harmony in Ten Weeks or Less Theresa Kellam presents a way to strengthen the relationship with the child that simultaneously promotes the parent's own emotional healing and wellness Grounded in a research supported therapeutic technique that uses structured play time as the catalyst for interpersonal connection and growth Kellam's model is subtle in its simplicity Through a series of guided exercises Kellam gives parents the skills they need to begin to set aside special playtimes with their children during which the most important part of the process is simply being there in a way that promotes healing growth and communication The beauty of this approach is that in only 30 minutes once a week the results can be seen in only a few weeks Features of the book include Parent Survival Tip at the start of each chapter Original cartoon illustrations bring text to life Short but insightful workset questions bring focus to the program The Parent Survival Guide is structured over a series of 10 chapters which can be read in conjunction with the 10 sessions of the CPRT workshops for those parents enrolled in a formal filial training program But the material in the book is designed to be read and implemented by anyone The author is not only a licensed psychologist and filial therapist but she has also gone through the program with her own son and continues to rely on its principles within her family

Our Schools and Education: the War Zone in America James R. Lake, 2009-08-27 In the ongoing saga of bureaucratic control misuse of money and personnel lies and failures not of the children but of the leaders educators and businesses that control education author James Lake firmly presents the truth versus the ideology in this comprehensive book Throughout Our Schools and Education The War Zone in America he includes the problems bureaucrats create and what we can do to reclaim our schools He shows workable and realistic solutions to help answer the pressing problems facing our children He invites everyone teachers parents and the young and old to be part of the positive effort instead of adding to the existing dilemma by doing nothing allowing the bureaucrats to continue to control massive amounts of money meant to help our youth This book is an eye opener and should be read by every American that believes in the educational traditions that have made our nation great With the help of teachers parents and communities we can set aside the educational socialism forced upon us by Washington D C and reverse our present direction returning education to our communities We must maintain the America that our parents knew and created and not succumb to being a one world government We will teach our youth to love America and to cherish our history and what America has stood for The key to this is our support for what is right for our children and our nation Our schools must teach the three Rs but also history science the arts technology vocational classes and give our youth a very broad and realistic education We must not teach to a test nor national standards This book exposes the problems and gives answers to the needed solutions that every parent and teacher should be aware and active in their implementation Our Schools and Education The War Zone in America identifies the problems and presents the solutions to these issues so that educational socialism will be done away with and our communities will once again control and direct our schools reestablishing and maintaining the greatness that has been our nations May God bless America

The Butcher, the Embezzler, and the Fall Guy Gretchen Cherington, 2025-07-30 Three powerful men converge on the banks of the Red Cedar River in the early 1900s in southern Minnesota George Albert Hormel founder of what will become the 10 billion food conglomerate Hormel Foods Alpha LaRue Eberhart the author's paternal grandfather and Hormel's Executive Vice President and Corporate Secretary and Ransome Josiah Thomson Hormel's comptroller Over ten years Thomson will embezzle 1.2 million from the company's coffers nearly bringing the company to its knees The Butcher The Embezzler and The Fall Guy opens in 1922 as George Hormel calls Eberhart into his office and demands his resignation Hailed as the true leader of the company he d helped Hormel build is Eberhart complicit in the embezzlement Far worse than losing his job and the great wealth he d rightfully accumulated is that his beloved young wife Lena is dying while their three children grieve alongside Of course his story doesn t end there In scale both intimate and grand Cherington deftly weaves the histories of Hormel Eberhart and Thomson within the sweeping landscape of our country s early industries along with keen observations about business leaders gleaned from her thirty five year career advising top company executives The Butcher The Embezzler and The Fall Guy equally chronicles Cherington s journey from blind faith in family lore to a nuanced consideration of the three men s great strengths and flaws and a multilayered thoughtful exploration of the ways we all must contend with the mythology of powerful men our reverence for heroes and the legacy of a complicated past

Working from the Margins Virginia Schein,2018-08-06 Virginia E Schein shatters the stereotype of mothers on welfare The women she interviewed in cities towns and rural areas talked to her about their deep committment to the children they are raising in poverty about the abuse they have endured about their eagerness for meaningful work and about their inventiveness in stretching scarce dollars In a policy debate increasingly dominated by shrill punitive voices Schein argues that the experiences and collective wisdom of these women cannot be ignored

Early Childhood Literacy Teachers in High Poverty Schools Melissa Landa,2017-11-01 Much has been written about the failure of White American public school teachers to effectively teach low income children of color to read and write Scholars have offered numerous explanations for this failure including the reluctance of teacher preparation programs to address cultural competence and the lack of cultural diversity among teacher educators In response to reported failures such as high attrition rates of novice teachers and low test scores American public schools are being subjected to increased standardization of the curriculum and high stakes testing This book provides rich illustrations of White early literacy teachers who choose to remain in low income school communities where they effectively and passionately embrace their students families and communities Blending the teachers successful practices shown in in depth interviews excavating their identities and life experiences with theoretical frameworks about teaching and learning Early Childhood Literacy Teachers in High Poverty Schools A Study of Boundary Crossing discusses the responsibility of public educators to cross geographical economic and political divisions on behalf of their students and offers strategies for teacher educators to equip future teachers for these tasks

Modern Parents, Vintage Values, Revised and Updated Sissy Goff,Melissa Trevathan,2020-06-09 Why is anxiety so rampant among kids today What s the magic age for giving my child his first cell phone Her first social media account How do I teach my teenager things like gratitude and respect in such an entitled and disrespectful world Melissa Trevathan and Sissy Goff hear these types of questions on a daily basis in their counseling offices and at parenting events across the country Today more than ever before we live in a culture that is at war against our parenting And today more than ever before we're meeting parents who feel lost as to how to help. This book does just that. It addresses the issues we hear parents struggling with the most when it comes to raising their children: technology, disrespect, entitlement, substance abuse, anxiety, depression, etc. but it doesn't stop there. Melissa and Sissy move through those modern-day troubles to get back to the vintage values we all deeply value in the lives of kids. They help you discover whether your child is a toddler or a teenager, what it looks like to cultivate kindness, gratitude, integrity, responsibility, and more in the lives of the kids you love. Modern Parents Vintage Values offers you a roadmap, a way through the hurdles you are facing today in your parenting, helping you discover more of how to instill those true foundational vintage values that will make a lasting difference in the lives of your kids, values that are built upon an unshakeable foundation of faith and hope. And that's ultimately where this map will lead: to Christ and to what it looks like for both you and your kids to have hope in Him in these changing times.

Funding Youth Violence Programs United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Youth Violence, 1997. This hearing discussed proposed legislation authorizing funds for programs of the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act. Opening statements by senators Fred Thompson, Joseph R. Biden, Herbert Kohl, Orrin G. Hatch, Charles E. Grassley, and Alan K. Simpson introduced the issue. Presentations involved two panels. The first consisted of Steve A. Carson, Chief of Police, LaFollette, TN; Byron Oedekoven, Sheriff, Campbell County, WY; Ray Luick, Administrative Officer, Wisconsin Office of Justice Assistance, Madison, WI; and William R. Woodward, Director, Colorado Division of Criminal Justice, Colorado Department of Public Safety, Denver, CO. The second included S. Camille Anthony, Executive Director, Utah Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice, Salt Lake City, UT; Jerry Regier, Director, Oklahoma Department of Juvenile Justice, Oklahoma City, OK; Patricia West, Director, Virginia Department of Youth and Family Services, Richmond, VA; Marion Kelly, Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services; and Robert G. Schwartz, Chairman, Juvenile Justice Committee, American Bar Association, Philadelphia, PA. An appendix presents questions to witnesses on both panels from the Committee on the Judiciary and responses from the panelists. Additional submissions include letters to Senator Thompson from the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Department of Justice, and from the Division of Criminal Justice, Colorado Department of Public Safety; a biography of Jerry Paul Regier; and prepared statements from Gary B. Melton for the American Psychological Association, Lavonda Taylor for the Coalition for Juvenile Justice, and Barry Krisbert, President, National Council on Crime and Delinquency, SM. Food and Nutrition, 1988. California. Court of Appeal (2nd Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., Number of Exhibits 15. Received document entitled EXHIBITS IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR WRIT. Where Have All the Flowers Gone? Alice Gerard, 2010-10-08. This book tells the stories of five private schools begun in the Northeastern US during the 1960s by idealistic believers in educational freedom. Two of the schools have closed; the other three are still open and flourishing. Although the schools are different, they share a belief in the individuality of each child and his/her unlimited potential. Their stories are still relevant today. Working Mother, 1995-02.

The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives DARE to Say No Max Felker-Kantor, 2024-02-14 With its signature DARE to keep kids off drugs slogan and iconic t shirts DARE Drug Abuse Resistance Education was the most popular drug education program of the 1980s and 1990s But behind the cultural phenomenon is the story of how DARE and other antidrug education programs brought the War on Drugs into schools and ensured that the velvet glove of antidrug education would be backed by the iron fist of rigorous policing and harsh sentencing Max Felker Kantor has assembled the first history of DARE which began in Los Angeles in 1983 as a joint venture between the police department and the unified school district By the mid 90s it was taught in 75 percent of school districts across the United States DARE received near universal praise from parents educators police officers and politicians and left an indelible stamp on many millennial memories But the program had more nefarious ends and Felker Kantor complicates simplistic narratives of the War on Drugs He shows how policing entered US schools and framed drug use as the result of personal responsibility moral failure and poor behavior deserving of punishment rather than something deeply rooted in state retrenchment the abandonment of social service provisions and structures of social and economic inequality
