When The Powers Fall Reconciliation In The Healing Of Nations

Ray C. Gingerich, Ted Grimsrud

When The Powers Fall Reconciliation In The Healing Of Nations:

When the Powers Fall Walter Wink, 1996-12-01 Repressive authoritarian regimes are falling and fragile new democracies emerging around the globe How are longstanding conflicts and deep divisions to be healed and enemies reconciled without breeding further injustices To answer this question Walter Wink here applies his compelling analysis of the Powers as they appear in the New Testament to the global scene Surveying the wrenching religious and ethical dilemmas involved in transitions from despotism to democracy Wink neatly summarizes key concepts from his Fortress Press trilogy on the Powers including sections on Jesus against Domination and Nonviolence He then shows how central concepts in the teaching of Jesus can clarify true and false ideas of forgiveness and reconciliation and apology without sacrificing justice The personal political and geopolitical pertinence of Wink's ideas shines in his discussion of specific situations in Africa and Latin America

Unmasking the Powers Walter Wink, 1993-03-01 Angels Spirits principalities powers gods Satan these along with all other spiritual realities are the unmentionables of our culture The dominant materialistic worldview has absolutely no place for them But materialism itself is terminally ill and let us hope in process of replacement by a worldview capable of honoring the lasting values of modern science without succumbing to reductionism Therefore we find ourselves returning to the ancient traditions searching for wisdom wherever it may be found We do not capitulate to the past and its superstitions but bring all the gifts our race has acquired along the way as aids in recovering the lost language of our souls In Naming the Powers I developed the thesis that the New Testament's principalities and powers is a generic category referring to the determining forces of physical psychic and social existence In the present volume we will be focusing on just seven of the Powers mentioned in Scripture Their selection out of all the others dealt with in Naming the Powers is partly arbitrary they happen to be ones about which I felt I had something to say But they are also representative and open the way to comprehending the rest They are Satan demons angels of churches angels of nations gods elements and angels of nature

Culture of Peace Alan Kreider, 2005-11-01 Why is peace such a divisive issue even among Christians Why is it so hard to practice right here right now Why is peace often considered an extra rather than an essential to faithful Christian living The three authors decided to write this book when the Indonesian member of the team remarked to the other two If the Christian church is to make any impact on Indonesia it must address itself to the biggest peace issue reconciliation with Muslims But before the writers could honestly consider that explosive possibility they first had to ask why Christians find it so difficult to live peaceably with other Christians They've discovered that conflict is often a prerequisite of peace They grant that peace is a continuum easier to live in some areas of life than in others They've learned that peace has two parents hard work and grace Living in peace is muscular activity The authors suggest how to develop peacemaking reflexes how churches can learn to handle conflict well and how to cultivate vulnerability and humility two essential attitudes of peacemakers True stories from communities around the world support this hopeful but strenuous call to faithful living The Struggles After the

Struggle David Kaulemu,2008 Meeting the Enemy Kevin James O'Brien,2025 The catastrophic effects of climate change are overwhelming What can we do Who is responsible In the tradition of Walter Wink O'Brien reminds us that Christians have the power to name and oppose the enemies of God's creation The fossil fuel industry is our enemy We can confront this evil power and build a more faithful future Unmasking the Angel Stephen Langford,2025-05-01 This book explores the concept of an angel of the church It begins with the question that so intrigued Walter Wink Why would Jesus ask John to write to an angel in Revelation 2:3 This work develops critiques and expands Wink's answer It does so by taking the historical records of three churches in England's West Country and bringing them into conversation with Wink's understanding of the angel of the church It then goes further by introducing Wink's work to specialists in fields that include architecture demographics and church polity This scholarly conversation creates a matrix within which ministers with pastoral charge might be equipped to explore the spiritual identity or angel of their own congregations What Did Jesus Do? F. Scott Spencer,2003-08-01 What Would Jesus Do is a popular phrase in Christian circles but answers to that question might be more on target if we spent more time exploring as Scott Spencer has What Did Jesus Do Spencer examines both the Synoptics and the Gospel of John as he tries to catch a wide angled vision of Jesus behavior in the gospels Rather than focus on sayings or pronouncements as an authoritative code of conduct he studies Jesus deeds or actions as keys to his identity and vocation While not ignoring Jesus teaching this study is more interested in discovering how Jesus personally lived up to his own moral instruction his personal conduct Chapters are devoted to Jesus actions with respect to his family his friends his body his possessions his work his reputation and the environment Spencer suggests paths and pitfalls for relating Jesus personal conduct to individual behavior how we might move from what Jesus did in the New Testament to what we should do today F. Scott Spencer is Professor of New Testament at Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond Virginia and is the author of The Portrait of Philip in Acts A Study of Roles and Relations and Acts He is the Chair of the New Testament section for the Southeastern Commission for the Study of Religion Transforming the Powers Ray C. Gingerich,Ted Grimsrud, Walter Wink's widely acclaimed trilogy from Fortress Press Naming the Powers 0 8006 1786 X 1984 Unmasking the Powers 0 8006 1902 1 1993 and Engaging the Powers 0 8006 2646 X 1992 has sold over 80 000 copies The Powers are good the Powers are fallen the Powers must be redeemed says Wink and the illustrious theologians and ethicists in this volume apply this suggestive analysis to economics politics and government war and peace personal ethics and ecological and social justice Contributors include Ray Gingerich Eastern Mennonite University Ted Grimsrud Eastern Mennonite University Nancey Murphy Fuller Theological Seminary Daniel Liechty Illinois State University Walter Wink Auburn Theological Seminary Willard M Swartley Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminary Glen Stassen Fuller Theological Seminary Jesus, Deliver Us Willard M. Swartley,2019-06-04 Deliver us from the evil one is the heart's cry from the Lord's Prayer Evil wears many faces in our modern world This book connects the Lord's Prayer to troubles of our times be it attacks from Satan the wars around the world the scourge of racism or the mass shootings of our time The subtitle of the book identifies the scope This book blends both deliverance from demonic bondage and witness to the powers in relation to political policies and government While the book aims to be a biblical theology on these topics it seeks also to address the praxis how these evils are confronted through healing deliverance ministries and what people of God say and do in witness to the powers The two streams of response to evil are really one as a faithful response to the saving work of the Lord God Almighty through Jesus Christ s victory over Satan sin evil and death Love your enemy confronts evil with power to transform

A Political Theory of Identity in European Integration Catherine Guisan, 2013-03-01 This book provides a theoretical and historical examination of the speech and deeds of European founders Using a fresh and innovative approach this monograph connects political theory with concrete political practices based on empirical evidence and theorizes the internal process of European reconciliations as it has been experienced by those involved The book draws upon over 100 interviews memoirs autobiographies and essays of elite and grassroot actors across the history of the European Union from the founding of the European Coal and Steel Community in 1950 to the 2010 financial crisis It introduces the reader to major contemporary Western political thinkers Hannah Arendt Jürgen Habermas Charles Taylor and Paul Ricoeur and examines how their theories develop the interpretation of political phenomena such as European integration As one of the first studies of EU memories this approach opens a unique window of analysis to view the development of the European community and makes a fascinating contribution to our understanding of the political tradition born of 60 years of European integration A Political Theory of Identity in European Integration Memory and Policies will be of strong interest to students and scholars of European politics contemporary democratic theory and EU studies

Making Peace with Faith Michelle Garred, Mohammed Abu-Nimer, 2018-01-15 Although religion is almost never a root cause it often gets pulled into conflict as a powerful element especially where conflicting parties have different religious identities Every faith tradition offers resources for peace and secular policy makers are more and more acknowledging the influence of faith based actors even though there remains a tendency to associate religion more with conflict than peace In this text practitioners from different faiths relate and explore the many challenges they face in their peacebuilding work which their secular partners may be unaware of The contributors are all practitioners whose faith or religious experience motivates their work for peace and justice in such a way that it influences their actions Their roles are diverse as some work for faith based institutions while others engage in secular contexts The multiple perspectives featured represent multiple faiths Muslim Christian Hindu Buddhist Jewish diverse scopes of practice different geographic regions Each chapter follows a similar template to address specific challenges such as dealing with extremist views addressing negative stereotypes about one s faith endorsing violence developing relations with other faith based or secular groups confronting gender based violence and working with people who hold different beliefs In this text practitioners from different faiths relate and explore the many challenges they face in their peacebuilding work which their secular partners may be unaware of They provide a comprehensive view of the practice of peacebuilding in its many challenging aspects for both professionals and those studying religion and peacebuilding alike

The Younger Evangelicals Robert E. Webber, 2002-10-01 Robert E Webber has led worship workshops in every major city in the United States and Canada Through his conversations and contacts with a network of emerging church leaders he calls the younger evangelicals Webber sees how this new generation and their style of leadership is bringing change and renewal to the evangelical church These leaders who include those young in spirit as well as young in age have important insights to offer all generations faced with doing church in a rapidly changing postmodern culture The Younger Evangelicals explores the characteristics of these emerging leaders and provides an outlet for their stories Beginning with a brief overview of twentieth century evangelicalism Webber examines what is different about the twenty first century younger evangelicals way of thinking about faith and practicing church He allows them Ph D s and laypeople to speak in their own words on issues such as communication theology apologetics pastoral leadership evangelism worship and spiritual formation Thought provoking energizing and timely The Younger Evangelicals is a landmark book for pastors and church leaders culture watchers ministry students and worship leaders who want to prepare for and respond to the new evangelical awakening brought on by our changing cultural context

The Church As the Family of God Lievin Engbanda Lingonge, 2004-11 This book is intended to be a contribution to the Congolese churchs response to the reconciliation and peacemaking process The authors assumption is that when the local church in the Congo becomes a church family it will be able to integrate the reconciliation strategies emerging from the culture of the people into the theological reflection and pastoral praxis for peacemaking and reconciliation Concretely the Congolese church which is committed to reconciliation and peacemaking has to become like an extended family a lineage a clan or a tribe Through cultural and Christian rituals the church must bring together a people divided by conflicts and violence

Sharing Peace Gerald Schlabach, Margaret R. Pfeil, 2013 Sharing Peace brings together leading Mennonite and Catholic theologians and ecclesial leaders to reflect on the recent first ever international dialogue between the Mennonite World Conference and the Vatican The search for a shared reading of history theology of the church and its sacraments or ordinances and understandings of Christ s call to be peacemakers are its most prominent themes Contributors include Scott Appleby Kroc Institute Notre Dame Alan Kreider Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminary Helmut Harder Mennonite co chair of the international dialogue Drew Christiansen SJ Georgetown University Catholic delegate to the international dialogue John Roth Goshen College John Cavadini University of Notre Dame C Arnold Snyder University of Waterloo Mary Doak University of San Diego Elizabeth Groppe Xavier University Thomas Finger author of A Contemporary Anabaptist Theology Bishop Gabino Zavala past president of Pax Christi USA Duane Friesen Bethel College Kansas Gerald Schlabach University of St Thomas Mary Schertz Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminary Abbot John Klassen OSB Saint John s Abbey Collegeville Minnesota co chair of Bridgefolk Margaret R Pfeil is assistant professor of moral theology at the Principalities and Powers Jamie Pitts, 2014-08-28 Principalities and Powers is an ambitious analysis of John Howard Yoder's complex sociological theory Jamie Pitts' work transcends ideological boundaries which have perplexed the many writers who have approached the legacy of John Howard Yoder after his death in 1997 Although there is much disagreement a broad consensus is forming that his theology was on the one hand focused on the social and political meaning of the New Testament accounts of Jesus Christ and on the other hand sociologically reductive hermeneutically tendentious and ecclesiologically ambiguous Principalities and Powers proposes a revision of Yoder's theology that maintains its broadly sociological emphasis but corrects for its apparent methodological political and metaphysical problems Specifically adjustments are made to his social theory to open it to spiritual reality to hone its analytical approach and to clarify its political import To do so his preferred framework for social criticism the theology of the principalities and powers is examined in the context of his wider work and its critics and then synthesized with concepts from Pierre Bourdieu's influential reflexive sociology

A Nonviolent Theology of Love Sharon L. Baker Putt, 2021-02-02 The impetus behind the ease with which the church has periodically justified violent behavior lies in its conceptual image of God as a violent deity This book emerges out of a passion to think differently albeit biblically about the character of God and articulates a theological construction of a nonviolent God an alternative to any image of God that seems to condone human violence It calls the church to rethink theology as something other than what might be termed redemptive violence and encourages Christians to reinterpret Scripture and traditional theological beliefs in ways that are more faithful to the God disclosed in Jesus of Nazareth Students of theology need a fresh glimpse of the love mercy and redemptive power of God through Jesus As it follows the structure of the Apostles Creed through the various theological topics this book reminds Christians to share in God's desires for peace and love and to recommit themselves to the call of God to be ministers of reconciliation and lovers of both neighbors and enemies even while at times responding to violence with nonviolent resistance

"Good News" After Auschwitz? Carol Rittner, John K. Roth, 2001 Many argue that Christians must address their own culpability in the destruction of Europe's Jewry If post Holocaust Christians only lament Christianity's sin the tradition will be ultimately left with little to say and no credibility Post Holocaust Christians must emphasize positive differences that Christianity can make including Repentant honesty about Christianity's anti Jewish history New appreciation for the Jewish origins of Christianity the Jewish identity of Jesus and the continuing vitality of the Jewish people and their traditions Welcome liberation from liturgies and biblical interpretations that promote harmful Christian exclusivism African Public Theology Sunday Bobai Agang, Dion A. Forster, H. Jurgens Hendriks, 2020-04-30 Africa needs leaders and Christians from every walk of life to rediscover their identity and purpose in all spheres of society African Public Theology sounds a clarion call to accomplish this vital task God created all humans equally intending for us to live in community and take responsibility for the world around us a mandate we need to act on Through faithful application of Scripture to contexts common in the continent today contributors from across Africa join as one to present a vision for the Africa that God intended No simplistic solutions are offered instead African Public Theology challenges every reader to think through the application of biblical principles in their own community place of work and sphere of influence If we heed the principles and lessons that God's word has for society culture and public life then countries across Africa can have hope of a future that is free from corruption and self promotion and is instead characterized by collective stewardship and servant hearted leadership Kingdom Ethics, 2nd ed. David P. Gushee, Glen H. Stassen, 2016 Comprehensive update of the leading Christian ethics textbook of the 21st century Ever since its original publication in 2003 Glen Stassen and David Gushee's Kingdom Ethics has offered students pastors and other readers an outstanding framework for Christian ethical thought one that is solidly rooted in Scripture especially Jesus's teachings in the Sermon on the Mount This substantially revised edition of Kingdom Ethics features enhanced and updated treatments of all major contemporary ethical issues David Gushee's revisions include updated data and examples a more global perspective more gender inclusive language a clearer focus on methodology discussion questions added Executing God Sharon L. Baker, 2013-01-01 Why did God have to murder his only son to pay our debts What kind of vengeful violent God can only be satisfied by vicarious blood atonement In Executing God theologian Sharon Baker presents a biblically based and theologically sound critique of popular theories of the atonement Concerned about the number of acts of violence performed in the name of God Baker challenges cultural assumptions about the death of Jesus and its meaning to Christians She ultimately offers a constructive alternate view of atonement based on God's forgiveness that opens up salvation to a wider group of people
