Alone Compostela (Tesseract Twenty) Spider Robinson, James Alan Gardner, 2017 Compostela Tesseract Twenty is an anthology of hard and soft science fiction stories that best represent a futuristic view of the sciences and how humanity might be affected for better or worse by a reliance in all things technological. The stories contained within the pages of Compostela are a reflection of the world we live in today where science produces both wonders and horrors and will leave us with a future that undoubtedly will contain both. Journeys to the stars may be exhilarating and mind expanding but they can also be dangerous or even tragic. SF has always reflected that wide range of possibilities. Compostela Tesseract Twenty features works by Canadian visionaries Alan Bao, John Bell, Chantal Boudreau, Leslie Brown, Tanya Bryan, J. R. Campbell, Eric Choi, David Clink, Paulo da Costa, Miki Dare, Robert Dawson, Linda DeMeulemeester, Steve Fahnstalk, Jacob Fletcher, Catherine Girczyc, R. Gregory, Mary Jean Harris, Geoffrey Hart, Michaela Hiebert, Matthew Hughes, Guy Immega, Garnet Johnson, Koehn, Michael Johnstone, Cate McBride, Lisa Ann McLean, Rati Mehrotra, Derryl Murphy, Brent Nichols, Susan Pieters, Alexandra Renwick, Rhea Rose, Robert J. Sawyer, Thea van Diepen, Nancy S. M. Waldman. About the title of this anthology: For more than 1,000 years, Santiago de Compostela. Compostela means field of stars. It has attracted pilgrims to walk to the cathedral that holds St. James the apostle's relics. The stories in this anthology in their own way tell the tale of futuristic travelers who journey into the dark outer or inner reaches of space searching for their own connections to the past, present and future relics of their time.

The Tiki Room Cathy Nolan Vincevic, 2008-10 The Tiki Room plunges the reader into a vision both elegiac and horrifying, chronicling the struggles of my family. The landscapes are stoic small town New Hampshire during the 1950s where I lived with my beloved grandparents, contrasted against the cruelty of life with my mother in Phoenix, Arizona during the 1960s and my husband's story in Bosnia and in the diaspora. The coalescence of these environments and some of the tragic consequences have been passages filled with destruction, loss and renewal. I have often found myself listening to people tell their stories. People who had never talked about their past would suddenly stop what they were doing and tell me extraordinary things, painful things that brought soundlessness to my mind. Hearing these narratives, I felt a voice inside of me that wanted to respond with my own story. I never allowed myself until now because it felt selfish to mention that I had suffered too. The silence created barriers of anger and sadness within me that were hard to breach. That I broke through that barricade by writing has been one of the great surprises of my life. I started out as a visual artist; the painting on the cover is my work and in other media such as fireworks and performance art. My work has been seen throughout New England and internationally through artist exchanges in Macedonia and Croatia. Currently, I am the Director of the Allenstown Public Library in Allenstown, New Hampshire. This book began during my undergraduate work at Vermont College and finished during my graduate studies at Goddard College. The award-winning poet/writer Nehassaiu DeGannes wrote this about my work: Your memoir is achingly beautiful, exquisitely written and handled with such deftness and depth it most certainly demonstrates patient self-reflection, mastery of craft and form as well as a literary tenderness. At times the level of remembered detail the sensory the natural world and your ability to find a language capable of containing your internal landscape in sentences which flow as naturally as breath is quite stunning I am in admiration of your work I am in admiration of your life Thank you my brothers and sisters for being there Dreams of Fiery Stars Catherine Rainwater,2010-08-03 Selected by Choice magazine as an Outstanding Academic Book for 1999 Since the 1968 publication of N Scott Momaday s House Made of Dawn a new generation of Native American storytellers has chosen writing over oral traditions While their works have found an audience by observing many of the conventions of the mainstream novel Native American written narrative has emerged as something distinct from the postmodern novel with which it is often compared In Dreams of Fiery Stars Catherine Rainwater examines the novels of writers such as Momaday Linda Hogan Leslie Marmon Silko Gerald Vizenor and Louise Erdrich and contends that the very act of writing narrative imposes constraints upon these authors that are foreign to Native American tradition Their works amount to a break with and a transformation of American Indian storytelling The book focuses on the agenda of social and cultural regeneration encoded in contemporary Native American narrative and addresses key questions about how these works achieve their overtly stated political and revisionary aims Rainwater explores the ways in which the writers create readers who understand the connection between storytelling and personal and social transformation considers how contemporary Native American narrative rewrites Western notions of space and time examines the existence of intertextual connections between Native American works and looks at the vital role of Native American literature in mainstream society today The Fall of Cthulhu Horrified Press,2015-03-19 They say that when the stars are right he will return and usher in a new age and the Elder Gods will reign once again H P L drops a few hints that Cthulhu might not be returning during mankind s time on Earth What could possibly stop him from awakening from his aeons old sleep Or thwart his plans From Howe Street to Accra Frank James IV,2020-04-14 From Howe Street to Accra is a fun fast paced story of the behind the scenes making of the film Coming to Africa The book details how an inexperienced journalist wound up being an assistant director on a motion picture The book also talks about the obstacles that the US based crew had to overcome working in a foreign country The book also depicts the mental trials a born loner has to overcome to reinvent himself and break out of the prison of his own mind A Crown of Silver Stars Douglas Milewski,2020-09-05 Targa thought herself forever blessed with exile but when her sainted mother summons her back she dares not disobey Saint Dominia has ambitions of rule Astrea itself if not through cunning through threats and violence This has been the work of her entire lifetime All Targa needs to do is marry the First Minister Mother has a well negotiated marriage ready to be signed and it s a very good contract Her other job will be killing whoever Mother orders because Targa s sword is The Wind Before the Storm a blade even capable of killing the deathless saints It is her arm that will give her Mother s threats credibility In her former life this task would have been easy but Targa has reformed choosing the path of the hero so backing a bloody dictator is not compatible with her morals Her two sworn and unbreakable duties lie in
