Where Is Goerge Mokhari:

Beyond Memory Max Mojapelo, 2008 South Africa possesses one of the richest popular music traditions in the world from marabi to mbaqanga from boeremusiek to bubblegum from kwela to kwaito Yet the risk that future generations of South Africans will not know their musical roots is very real Of all the recordings made here since the 1930s thousands have been lost for ever for the powers that be never deemed them worthy of preservation And if one peruses the books that exist on South African popular music one still finds that their authors have on occasion jumped to conclusions that were not as foregone as they had assumed Yet the fault lies not with them rather in the fact that there has been precious little documentation in South Africa of who played what or who recorded what with whom and when This is true of all music making in this country though it is most striking in the musics of the black communities Beyond Memory Recording the History Moments and Memories of South African Music is an invaluable publication because it offers a first hand account of the South African music scene of the past decades from the pen of a man Max Thamagana Mojapelo who was situated in the very thick of things thanks to his job as a deejay at the South African Broadcasting Corporation This book astonishing for the breadth of its coverage is based on his diaries on interviews he conducted and on numerous other sources and we find in it not only the well known names of recent South African music but a countless host of others whose contribution must be recorded if we and future generations are to gain an accurate picture of South African music history of the late 20th and early 21st centuries

A Gift of Life Susan Sibiya, 2017-12-29 A Gift of Life is a true life story book by Suzan Sibiya on her journey with her daughter Refilwe Sibiya The book outlines some of the challenges she faced concerning her daughters heart operation When Refilwe was born she was different from other children her breathing and her cries were different After going through a first successful heart operation done by Dr Kinsley she was obligated to partake in the second operation The book shares some of the moments of Refilwe s health problems When family did not have R170 000 00 Refilwe fund was established and people started donating through the fund to help Refilwe to overcome the odds against her The late Nelson Tata Mandela assisted the Sibiya family by assigning the funds through Sisulu Fund to help with the operation costs for Refilwe The book was written to tell a story of hope and a story of life but most importantly it was written to share A Gift of Life

Medical Geology of Africa Theophilus Clavell Davies, 2024-06-14 Medical Geology of Africa explores the connection between geological materials processes and the health of humans and animals The book fosters an improved understanding of the ways in which the geological environment impacts the geographical distribution of health problems and how they contribute to better diagnoses and therapy Africa s unique geoenvironmental condition gives added relevance to such studies underlining the need for geoscience and public health students and practitioners to understand new principles and applications Chapters in the book provide extended enquiry based investigations and examples that employ real geochemical datasets epidemiological records public health statistics and visualizations Provides a summary of current research on

Dictionary of Southern African Place Names Peter E Raper, Lucie A Moller, Theodorus L du Plessis, 2014-12-08 The Dictionary of Southern African Place Names now in its 4th edition helps you sort your Komkhulu from your Kommetjie with the most comprehensive glossary of Southern African towns villages railway stations mountains rivers and beaches The 9 000 short entries incorporate data from sources dating as far back as 1486 encapsulating the linguistic and cultural heritage of all the peoples of the subcontinent past and present In this highly readable book the expert authors take you on a fascinating journey of the highways and byways of Southern Africa Whether you are a motorist an adventurer or merely an armchair traveller this book has a multitude of facts and details that will fascinate you This is much more than a reference book it gives an insight into what shapes a place and its people through our heroes events beliefs values fears and aspirations

Incomplete Without My Brother, Adonis Kaizer Mabhilidi Nyatumba, 2014-07-22 We walked on a patch of grass that seemed to have been burnt a few hours earlier with soot covering our feet There in front of us lay my beloved brother Adonis lifeless his body facing up There were numerous stab wounds on his body including his face and his lumber jacket was half burnt Thus begins Kaizer Nyatumba's tragic story of his twin brother's horrible murder It is also an intriguing look into aspects of South African life hitherto unknown to many They were twins of a special kind the closest of friends and each other's confidantes Their mothers were sisters they were inseparable when they grew up they were the first graduates in the extended family and were the ones the family depended on for leadership When Adonis was brutally murdered in the Pretoria area in June 2009 Kaizer was shattered and his life irrevocably changed A part of him died with Adonis and he has yet to come fully to terms with the loss A very private man the author bares his soul in this book

Decoloniality and Epistemic Justice in Contemporary Community Psychology Garth Stevens, Christopher C. Sonn, 2021-09-20 This book examines the ways in which decolonial theory has gained traction and influenced knowledge production praxis and epistemic justice in various contemporary iterations of community psychology across the globe With a notable Southern focus although not exclusively so the volume critically interrogates the biases in Western modernist thought in relation to community psychology and to illuminate and consolidate current epistemic alternatives that contribute to the possibilities of emancipatory futures within community psychology To this end the volume includes contributions from community psychology theory and praxis across the globe that speak to standpoint approaches e.g. critical race studies queer theory indigenous epistemologies in which the experiences of the majority of the global population are more accurately reflected address key social issues such as the ongoing racialization of the globe gender class poverty xenophobia sexuality violence diasporas migrancy environmental degradation and transnationalism globalisation and embrace forms of knowledge production that involve the co construction of new knowledges across the traditional binary of knowledge producers and consumers This book is an engaging resource
