World Film Locations Los Angeles Intellect S World Film Locations:

World Film Locations: Athens Anna Poupou, Afroditi Nikolaidou, 2014-01-01 A filmic guidebook of the Greek capital World Film Locations Athens takes readers to film locations in the central historical district with excursions to the periphery of Athens popular neighbourhoods poor suburbs and slums often represented in postwar neorealist films and then on to garden cities and upper class suburbs especially those preferred by the auteurs of the 1970s Of course no Grecian vacation would be complete without a visit to the sea and summer resorts hotels and beaches near Athens are frequent backdrops for international productions However more recent economic strife has emptied city neighbourhoods created urban violence and caused an increase in riots in the Mediterranean city and representations of this on film are juxtaposed with images of the eternal and idyllic city Featuring both Greek and foreign productions from various genres and historical periods World Film Locations Athens ultimately works to establish connections between the various aesthetics of dominant representations of Athens

Documenting Cityscapes Iván Villarrea Álvarez, 2015-05-12 While film studies has traditionally treated the presence of the city in film as an urban text operating inside of a cinematic one this approach has recently evolved into the study of cinema as a technology of place From this perspective Documenting Cityscapes explores the way the city has been depicted by nonfiction filmmakers since the late 1970s paying particular attention to three aesthetic tendencies documentary landscaping urban self portraits and metafilmic strategies Through the formal analysis of fifteen works from six different countries this volume investigates how the rise of subjectivity has helped to develop a kind of gaze that is closer to citizens than to the institutions and corporations responsible for recent major transformations Documenting Cityscapes therefore reveals the extent to which cinema has become an agent of urban change in which certain films not only challenge the most controversial policies of late capitalism but also are able to produce spatiality themselves

The Cultural Heritage of Blade Runner Nathan Abrams, Elizabeth Miller, Christopher L. Robinson, 2025-10-07 Blade Runner has left an indelible mark on popular culture Adapted from Philip K Dick's novel Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep it anticipated with remarkable prescience the world in which we have lived for the past four decades Ridley Scott's breathtaking vision of a futuristic and cosmopolitan metropolis created an aesthetic and cognitive shock that continues to resonate to this day not only in cinema but in multiple artistic and even scientific domains The film is often cited in debates related to robotics biopolitics posthumanism urban planning and critical theory Denis Villeneuve's sequel Blade Runner 2049 continues to explore these themes while introducing issues related to artificial intelligence transhumanism and climate change Blade Runner is often credited with having spawned several aesthetic trends such as retrofuturism techno noir or future noir and most significantly cyberpunk To explore the origins and legacies of this monumental work this essay collection brings together specialists from fields as diverse as film and media studies comparative literature and mythology photography architecture fashion studies psychology sociology and biopolitics

World Film Locations: Hong Kong Linda Chiu-Han Lai, Kimburley Wing-yee Choi, 2014-05-14 The rapid development of Hong Kong has occasioned the demolition of buildings and landscapes of historic significance but film acts as a repository for memories of lost places vanished vistas and material objects Location shoots in Hong Kong have preserved many disappearing landmarks of the city and the resulting films function as valuable and irreplaceable archives of the city's evolution Far more than a simple collection of movie locations this book delivers a rare glimpse into the history of film production practices in Hong Kong The locations described here are often not the most iconic rather they are the anonymous streets and back alleys used by local film studios in the 1960s and 70s They are the garden cafes with outdoor seating near the Chinese University of Hong Kong where moments of conflict in romantic comedies erupt and dissipate They are the old Kai Tak Airport which channels rage and desire and the tenement housing which splits citizens into greedy landlords and the diligent working class and embodies old day communal values Modern Hong Kong horror films draw their power from the material character of home grown convenient stores shopping arcades and lost mansions found under modern high rises As in the films of Wong Kar wai and Johnnie To readers will drift and dash through the streets of Central to the district s periphery almost recklessly automatically or for the sheer pleasure of roaming The first of its kind in English this book is more than a city guide to Hong Kong through the medium of film it is a unique exploration of relationship between location and place and genre innovations in Hong Kong cinema

Point Blank Eric G. Wilson,2023-09-07 John Boorman s Point Blank 1967 has long been recognised as one of the seminal films of the sixties with its revisionary mix of genres including neo noir New Wave and spaghetti western Its lasting influence can be traced throughout the decades in films like Mean Streets 1973 Reservoir Dogs 1992 Heat 1995 The Limey 1999 and Memento 2000 Eric Wilson s compelling study of the film examines its significance to New Hollywood cinema He argues that Boorman revises traditional Hollywood crime films by probing a second connotation of point blank On the one hand it is a neo noir that aptly depicts close range violence but it also points toward blankness a nothingness that is the consequence of corporate America unchecked where humans are reduced to commodities and stripped of agency and playfulness He goes on to reimagine the film s experimental style as a representation of and possible remedy for trauma Examining Boorman s formal innovations including his favouring of gesture over language and blurring of boundaries between dream and reality he also positions the film as a grimly comical exploration of toxic masculinity and gender fluidity Wilson s close reading of Point Blank reveals it to be a film that innovatively inflects its own generation and speaks powerfully to our own arguing that it is this amplitude which encompasses the many major films it has influenced that qualifies the film as a classic

The City on Screen: Modern Strangers of Cinematic Istanbul Sertaç Timur Demir,2024-01-02 The City on Screen Modern Strangers of Cinematic Istanbul attempts to analyze how Istanbul is captured through the projector in other words the ontological relationship between city and film and how it is elaborated within the context of Istanbul and the sense of strangerhood This book shifts the axis of Istanbul typically known as a touristic city to its underlying details through the strangers in the modern city Five different films set in this region are analyzed in the text that help to reveal and clarify the socio urban life of modern Istanbul The characters and stories in these films tell how Istanbul has socially and architecturally become a city of strangers The films analyzed include A Touch of Spice 2004 Men on the Bridge 2009 A Run for Money 1999 Distant 2002 and 10 to 11 2009 The theoretical framework of this book is based on the works of Georg Simmel Zygmunt Bauman and Richard Sennett These three thinkers have all attempted to look for answers to the sociological question of strangerhood in urban living This book accomplishes this connection by discussing the similarities and differences between each of their theories regarding the city cinema and strangerhood

Urban Noir James J. Ward,Cynthia J. Miller,2017-09-06 Film noir has always been associated with urban landscapes and no two cities have been represented more prominently in these films than New York and Los Angeles In noir and neo noir films since the 1940s both cities are ominous locales where ruthless ambition destructive impulses and dashed hopes are played out against backdrops indifferent to human dramas In Urban Noir New York and Los Angeles in Shadow and Light James J Ward and Cynthia J Miller have brought together essays by an international group of scholars that examine the dark appeal of these two cities The essays in this volume explore aspects of the noir and neo noir cityscape that have been relatively unexamined including the role of sound and movement through space the distinctive character of certain neighborhoods and locales and the importance of individual moments in time Among the films discussed in this book are classic noirs Double Indemnity 1944 He Walked by Night 1948 and Criss Cross 1949 as well as neo noirs such as Cotton Comes to Harlem 1970 Klute 1971 Taxi Driver 1976 Eyes of Laura Mars 1978 Cruising 1980 Alphabet City 1984 Devil in a Blue Dress 1995 Drive 2011 Rampart 2011 and Nightcrawler 2014 Uniting these essays is a thematic orientation toward darkness whether interpreted in atmospheric and architectural terms in social and psychological terms or in terms of disruptive change economic dislocation and real or perceived existential threats Offering multiple new perspectives on a wide range of films Urban Noir will be of interest to scholars of film media politics sociology history and popular culture

From Tinseltown to Bordertown Celestino Deleyto, 2017-04-03 Close readings that look for the real Los Angeles in a selection of contemporary movies Los Angeles is a global metropolis whose history and social narrative is linked to one of its top exports cinema L A appears on screen more than almost any city since Hollywood and is home to the American film industry Historically conversations of social and racial homogeneity have dominated the construction of Los Angeles as a cosmopolitan city with Hollywood films largely contributing to this image At the same time the city is also known for its steady immigration social inequalities and exclusionary urban practices not dissimilar to any other borderland in the world The Spanish names and sounds within the city are paradoxical in relation to the striking invisibility of its Hispanic residents at many economic social and political levels given their vast numbers Additionally the impact of the 1992 Los Angeles riots left the city raw yet brought about changing discourses and provided Hollywood with the opportunity to rebrand its hometown by projecting to the world a new image in which social uniformity is challenged by diversity It is for this reason that author Celestino Deleyto decided to take a closer look at how the quintessential cinematic city contributes to the ongoing creation of its own representation on the screen

From Tinseltown to Bordertown Los Angeles on Film starts from the theoretical premise that place matters Deleyto sees film as predominantly a spatial system and argues that the space of film and the space of reality are closely intertwined in complex ways and that we should acknowledge the potential of cinema to intervene in the historical process of the construction of urban space as well as its ability to record place The author asks to what extent this is also the city that is being constructed by contemporary movies From Tinseltown to Bordertown offers a unique combination of urban cultural and border theory as well as the author's direct observation and experience of the city's social and human geography with close readings of a selection of films such as Falling Down White Men Can't Jump and Collateral Through these textual analyses Deleyto tries to situate filmic narratives of Los Angeles within the city itself and find a sense of the real place in their fictional fabrications While in a certain sense Los Angeles movies continue to exist within the rather exclusive boundaries of Tinseltown the special borderliness of the city is becoming more and more evident in cinematic stories Deleyto s monograph is a fascinating case study on one of the United States most enigmatic cities Film scholars with an interest in history and place will appreciate this book Filming in European Cities Ipek A. Celik Rappas,2025-03-15 Filming in European Cities explores the effort behind creating screen production locations Ipek A Celik Rappas accounts the rising demand for original and affordable locations for screen projects due to the growth of streaming platforms As a result screen professionals are repeatedly tasked with chores such as transforming a former factory in Istanbul to resemble a war zone in Aleppo or finding a London street that evokes Barcelona Celik Rappas highlights the pivotal role crew members play in transforming cities and locations into functional screen settings Examining five European media capitals Athens Belfast Berlin Istanbul and Paris the book delves into the overlooked aspects of location related screen labor and its ability to generate production value Filming in European Cities demonstrates that in its perpetual quest for authentic filming locations the screen industry extracts value from cities and neighborhoods their marginalized residents and screen labor enriching itself through this triple exploitation Identity and Intercultural Exchange in Travel and Tourism Anthony David Barker,2015 This book looks at the relationship between questions of identity formation and modern practices in travelling and tourism New and creative patterns of behaviour and self realisation are now emerging due to the enormous commercial interests that lie behind the modern travel and tourism industries The volume will consider these issues and the challenges they create Analyzing Christmas in Film Lauren Rosewarne,2017-12-06 Film plays a vital role in the celebration of Christmas For decades it has taught audiences about what the celebration of the season looks like from the decorations to the costumes and to the expected snowy weather as well as mirrors our own festivities back to us Films like It s a Wonderful Life and Home Alone have come to play key roles in real life domestic celebrations watching such titles has become for many families every bit as important as tree trimming and leaving cookies out for Santa These films have exported the American take on the holiday far and wide and helped us conjure an image of the perfect holiday Rather than settling the what is a Christmas film debate indeed Die Hard and Lethal Weapon are discussed within Analyzing Christmas in Film Santa to the Supernatural focuses on the how Christmas is presented on the deluge of occasions when it appears While most Christmas films are secular religion makes many cameos appearing through Nativity references storylines involving spiritual rebirth the framing of Santa as a Christ like figure and the all importance of family be it the Holy family or just those gathered around the dining table Also explored are popular narratives involving battles with stress and melancholy single parents and Christmas martyrs visits from ghosts and angels big cities and small towns break ups and make ups and the ticking clock of mortality Nearly 1000 films are analyzed in this volume to determine what the portrayal of Christmas reveals about culture society and faith as well as sex roles consumerism aesthetics and aspiration Cinematic Urban Geographies François

Penz, Richard Koeck, 2017-07-12 This book proposes new methodological tools and approaches in order to tease out and elicit the different facets of urban fragmentation through the medium of cinema and the moving image as a contribution to our understanding of cities and their topographies In doing so it makes a significant contribution to the literature in the growing field of cartographic cinema and urban cinematics by charting the many trajectories and points of contact between film and its topographical context Under the influence of new technologies the opening and the availability of previously unexplored archives but also the contribution of new scholars with novel approaches in addition to new work by experienced academics Cinematic Urban Geographies demonstrates how we can reread the cinematic past with a view to construct the urban present and anticipate its future

Havana Street Style Conner Gorry, Gabriel Solomons, 2014-01-01 When it comes to fashion few metropolitan areas are more synonymous with style than New York London Paris and Milan But the couture capitals of tomorrow may be located in less likely locales Addressing the interplay between the development of fashion centres across the world and their relationship to consumption and street style in both local and global contexts the books in the Street Style series aim to record emerging fashion capitals and their relationship to the physical landscapes of the street By examining how particular ecologies of fashion are connected to the formation of gender class and generational identities this series establishes a new methodology for recording and understanding identity and its connection to style Havana Street Style is the first book that explores and reveals the relationship between culture city and street fashion in Cuba's capital Matching visual ethnography with critical analysis the book documents a unique street style few in the United States have yet experienced

Cultural Topographies of the New Berlin Karin Bauer, Jennifer Ruth Hosek, 2017-11-01 Since Unification and the end of the Cold War Berlin has witnessed a series of uncommonly intense social political and cultural transformations While positioning itself as a creative center populated by young and cosmopolitan global citizens the New Berlin is at the same time a rich site of historical memory defined inescapably by its past even as it articulates German and European hopes for the future Cultural Topographies of the New Berlin presents a fascinating cross section of life in Germany's largest city revealing the complex ways in which globalization ethnicity economics memory and national identity inflect how its urban spaces are inhabited and depicted
