World Film Locations: Marseilles Marcelline Block, 2013-01-01

As France's oldest city Marseilles has a significant cinematic culture dating back to the 1890s when the Lumi re brothers shot many films there Due to its prolific film industry in the 1920s Marseilles was referred to as the French Los Angeles

World Film Locations Marseilles examines the representations of this port city in cinema through essays and film scene reviews devoted to an exploration of its topography as depicted by Jean Epstein Jean Luc Godard Jean Pierre Melville Jean Renoir Jean Jacques Beineix and many others This volume showcases Marseilles's diversity as articulated onscreen from the winding streets of the Panier to the Old Port's noisy markets from the bustling Canebi re to the dockyards of the Grand Port Maritime from the cliffs of Proven al encircling the city to sun drenched calanques leading to the dazzling cerulean sea

World Film Locations Marseilles features maps of film scenes high quality screengrabs and images of movie locations as they appear today accompanied by original texts penned by leading international film scholars and critics and an interview with Marseillais director Robert Gu diguian

Marseilles has been named a 2013-14 European Capital of Culture and this book is a fitting and timely tribute

Screening Vienna: The City of Dreams in English-Language Cinema and Television

Timothy K. Conley, 2016-01-04

Vienna has been the locale for nearly one hundred and fifty films and television productions in English from 1920s through the first years of this century with imaginative representations of Freud Strauss Franz Josef Mozart Beethoven and Klimt mad scientists assassins spies refugees romantics and American professors historical dramas cartoons documentaries and Hitchcock's only musical comedy

The City of Dreams has appeared as an imperial court a center of scientific and medical research a Jewish and Catholic homeland a locus of international espionage and domestic crime the destination for innocents abroad the birthplace of the waltz a stage for performances and performers and the site for romantic rendezvous

For many in English language audiences such productions have constituted the most significant representations of Vienna a city that historically has been the capital of one of Europe's largest empires one of the most important centers for classical music and opera both a victim and an accomplice of Nazi Germany and the home of international diplomacy

Cultural historians and Austrian writers have provided significant commentary on the city but their influence has seldom reached such an extensive audience as the films and television productions

Screening Vienna for English language audiences

Screening Vienna thus analyzes the representation of Vienna and the Viennese in English language film and television reviews the critical reception of these productions and measures the representations against the cultural and historical contexts and the writings of contemporary Austrian writers

The book is unique in its scope over one hundred and fifty productions from the 1920s to 2013 and in its inclusion of leading reviews of many films references to cultural and historical studies of Vienna and references to modern and contemporary Austrian fiction Thus the analysis is more extensive in its coverage and more intensive in its analysis of each film than any previous study with a focus on scene language plot characterization and the reception of these films Scholars and students in American cultural studies film studies Austrian and Viennese history and popular culture will find the book informative and essential for studies of Vienna in the American and British imagination Given the extensive coverage and filmography many libraries should also view the book as a reference work in addition to its status in cultural and film studies The book will also be useful for film studies and American popular culture studies courses at advanced or graduate level

What You See Is What You Hear Dario Martinelli, 2020-01-01 What You See Is What You Hear develops a unique model of analysis that helps students and advanced scholars alike to look at audiovisual texts from a fresh perspective Adopting an engaging writing style the author draws an accessible picture of the field offering several analytical tools historical background and numerous case studies Divided into five main sections the monograph covers problems of definitions history and most of all analysis The first part raises the main problems related to audiovisuality including taxonomical and historical questions The second part provides the bases for the understanding of audiovisual creative communication as a whole introducing a novel theoretical model for its analysis The next three part focus elaborate on the model in all its constituents and with plenty of case studies taken from the field of cinema TV music videos advertising and other forms of audiovisuality Methodologically the book is informed by different paradigms of film and media studies multimodality studies structuralism narratology auteur theory in the broad sense communication studies semiotics and the so called Humanities What You See Is What You Hear enables readers to better understand how to analyze the structure and content of diverse audiovisual texts to discuss their different idioms and to approach them with curiosity and critical spirit

The Routledge Companion to Asian Cinemas Zhen Zhang, Sangjoon Lee, Debashree Mukherjee, Intan Paramaditha, 2024-07-04 Balancing leading scholars with emerging trendsetters this Companion offers fresh perspectives on Asian cinemas and charts new constellations in the field with significance far beyond Asian cinema studies Asian cinema studies at the intersection of film media studies and area studies has rapidly transformed under the impact of globalization compounded by the resurgence of a variety of nationalist discourses as well as counter discourses new socio political movements and the possibilities afforded by digital media Differentiated experiences of climate change and the COVID 19 pandemic have further heightened interest in the digital everyday and the renewed geopolitical divide between East and West and between North and South Thematized into six sections the 46 chapters in this anthology address established paradigms of scholarship and viewership in Asian cinemas like extreme genres cinephilia festivals and national cinema while also highlighting political and archival concerns that firmly situate Asian cinemas within local and translocal milieus Underrepresented cinemas of North Korea Bangladesh Laos Indonesia Malaysia Taiwan Thailand and
