Davis Sr., 2013-05-16 Effective leadership is required in the twenty first century churches as these churches are facing numerous issues due to ineffective leadership In order to lead churches wounds of leaders must be healed up in the Christian ministry Today the churches of America are facing leadership issues because their leaders wounds are not treated and healed up This results in critical crippling and catastrophic effect on the Christian Ministry Those life threatening wounds must be identified The healing of the wounded leader is essential to the Spirit well being of the people The purpose of the study is to investigate the wounds face by church leaders The study also investigates that how these wounds affect church leadership This study also identifies methods of healing of wounded leader and interventions used from transforming wounded leaders into an active and effective leader Many churches are facing numerous leadership issues due to leaders wounds Identification of this issue is important for the development and implementation of churches in America This study helps in investigating the wounds among leaders and their relationship with leadership ineffectiveness The study helps in identifying the meaning of wounds This study helps in studying impact of wounds on church leaders in detail This study classifies wounds as divorces childhood traumatic experiences such as rape molestation and physical abuse through domestic violence emotional abuse through verbal altercations and mental abuse from a sibling parent spouse authority figure or partner in a relationship For this study mixed method was done Survey interview questions and observational research were done According to the participants many of the transformational leadership concepts are transferrable into the church context however including idealized influence which espouses the leader as a role model with high moral standards and ethical conduct and as one who considers the needs of others before his or her own According to the participants Old Testament suggested there are numerous examples of leadership development in the Old Testament the short space available in this review will dictate a focus on one of the most obvious and well known leadership examples According to the respondents personality is becoming more and more associated with leadership style and ability This is particularly true when one is discussing the concept of transformational leadership Due to leadership issues in American churches Christian community is reluctant to visit their nearby churches regularly The results depicted that due to past wounds or inner wounds the church leaders are not able to have Holy spirits The wounds must be healed up for attaining pure Holy spirits If their wounds are properly healed up then they can more firmly believe as the apostle on the super natural healings signs and miracles The unhealed wounds of the church leaders hinders in the way of the leaders for praying for the humanity or for those who are suffering from hardships regularly The lack of pastoral visitations of the members is due to the wounded souls of the leaders For increasing the pastoral visitations of the members the church leaders wounds must be healed up by using various methods Ineffective leadership is practicing in the churches these leaders are not conducting the different counseling sessions for the Christian communities The Christian communities are not interested in visiting churches because of the ineffective leadership The ineffective leadership does not encourage Christian communities towards practicing God preaching at church The church leadership is not effective to spiritually inspire Christian communities the church leadership is not effective to initiate programs which are helpful for attracting and retaining Christian communities missionary programs are not being implemented by many American churches because of lack of effective church leadership

Hope For Healing Church Wounds Dr. Michael Gray, 2019-05-07 Statistics from George Barna Research Group reveal that twenty five to thirty million adults stay away from the Christian church because of hurtful treatment experienced at the hands of the body of Christ Having gone through several church hurts himself the author has written this book to be a practice guide on how to be restored renewed and healed from church inflicted wounds so that one's relationship to God is joyous and fruitful From his own experience and documented research through surveys to pastor's church members and non church goers the author provides a training manual that churches and church leaders can use to reach and restore church members to a healthy relationship with God and His church We all want the church to be a place where we can go to worship God with freedom and joy We all want to be encouraged to grow in our faith and walk with Christ We all want a place where we find joy in serving others a place of safety and unconditional love No one wants to be part of a church that acts like the world treating people with judgment condemnation lack of compassion and love Church wounds happen but God is a restorer of the broken hearted God is the great healer of our pain and disappointment The author believes that if one takes the steps outlined in the book there will be renewal and restoration If churches reach out to those who have been wounded in the way outlined in this book many will come back into fellowship with the Lord and His church

L. Corprew-Boyd, 2008 The body of Christ is full of people who have been wounded by Christians or the church Author Dr Angela Corprew Boyd helps the hurting recognize they are not alone and provides them with wisdom and knowledge to reach out to Christ and receive deliverance from wounds that have made them bitter resentful and less effective in ministry Church leaders and laypeople will benefit from Dr Corprew Boyd's testimony and teaching Once crippled by wounds inflicted by her pastor and trusted members of her church family the author describes how she found healing and offers words of comfort and practical advice for readers grappling with their own church hurt She emphasizes the importance of acknowledgement reaching out to God and finally forgiveness of others and oneself Her message serves as a crucial reminder that there is hope for the future in spite of what our adversaries have said and done Topics covered include the many possible sources of church hurt how to recognize when a wound is still open how woundedness can be transferred to church members and the process of healing

Church Hurts and the Healing Process Dot Kelley, 2018-11-14 People hurting people with their words and actions is a known reality in most of our Christian environments and this kind of pain can affect the lives of Christians all over the world Insults and ridicule have become commonplace in our society and in our churches and many of us have begun to speak critically of our brothers and sisters in Christ never giving a thought to the consequences or the emotional pain that it can cause Church Hurts and the Healing Process invites Christians to consider their own church hurts both the ones they've experienced and the ones they've inflicted Author Dot Kelley shares biblical advice and wisdom for treating the wounds we can experience while on our Christian walks with our fellow brothers and sisters And through the healing power of forgiveness Christians can learn how to manage their relationships and trust in God's love to make the necessary changes In the end embracing this gift from God will help us love beyond our pain You can receive healing through acts of unconditional love and forgiveness for others And Church Hurts and the Healing Process can restore your wounded heart through humility helping you to display God's kind of love and forgiveness the same kind of love that he showed when Christ shed his blood for us on the Cross at Calvary
