Wounded Healer Frontiers In Psychotherapy:

Celebrating the Wounded Healer Psychotherapist Sharon Klayman Farber, 2016-10-04 Why would someone decide to become a psychotherapist? It is well known within the field that psychoanalysts and psychotherapists are often drawn to their future professions as a result of early traumatic experiences and being helped by their own psychoanalytic treatment. While dedicating their lives to relieving emotional suffering without being judgmental, they fear compromising their reputations if they publicly acknowledge such suffering in themselves. This phenomenon is nearly universal among those in the helping professions, yet there are few books dedicated to the issue. In this innovative book, Farber and a distinguished range of contributors examine how the role of the wounded healer was instrumental in the formulation of psychoanalysis and how using their own woundedness can help clinicians work more effectively with their patients and advance theory in a more informed manner. Celebrating the Wounded Healer Psychotherapist will be of interest to psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists, graduate students in clinical disciplines including psychology, social work, ministry, chaplaincy, and nursing, as well as the general public.

Wounded Healer John Gagnon, 1994 This autobiographical account focuses on a ten-year span of the author's life during which he experienced a painful series of traumatic events. Gagnon, a psychotherapist, suffered numerous tragedies including loss of a limb, cancer, death of a loved one, and various other ailments. Throughout all of these physical and emotional losses and trials, the author served others as a psychotherapist. Throughout these difficult experiences, the author learned invaluable lessons from suffering and brought them into the consultation room along with his professional training.

Tales of a Wounded Healer Mariah Fenton Gladis, 2008-02 Tales of a Wounded Healer begins by revealing the 27-year odyssey of renowned psychotherapist Mariah Fenton Gladis through her diagnosis and subsequent life with Lou Gehrig's Disease and how that diagnosis catapulted her to envision and develop a new method of psychotherapy that dramatically facilitates healing and change. Mariah turns her former approach inside out by moving from encouraging people to cope with their lot in life to empowering them to understand and provide for the compelling force and potential of their own personal needs. The book shows that when met with respect, love, and compassion, human needs can arm people with the capacity to transform their lives and contribute to the healing of others. In this book, Mariah Fenton Gladis presents strong practical and theoretical instruction for the concept of creating exact moments of healing moments grounded in awareness that precisely respond to and provide for the emergent need of an individual, family, or community. These are the moments that produce substantial shifts in a person's worldview, character, and capacity to create meaningful contact with themselves, others, and their environment. Tales of a Wounded Healer presents true stories of people who have changed their lives through this profound work and describes the seminal moments that shaped their transformation. These stories focus on specific moments of healing in detail and illustrate such themes as the importance of receptivity in healthy human functioning, recovery from post-traumatic stress syndrome, the need for supportive community, mending fractured families, creating self esteem and empowerment development of a compassionate relationship with self and others and recovery from sexual abuse and trauma Throughout the book the Mariah Fenton Gladis addresses the reader in an attempt to inspire and educate and make the chapters applicable to the readers lives About the Author Mariah Fenton Gladis MSS QCSW is the Founder and Clinical Director of the Pennsylvania Gestalt Center for Psychotherapy and Training in Malvern Pennsylvania An internationally renowned workshop leader and trainer Mariah conducts weekend and weeklong workshops locally at her Center and at Esalen Institute in California She also conducts seminars in New Jersey Maine Arizona Hawaii Germany Ireland and the U S Virgin Islands Recently Mariah was named Social Worker Of The Year in Pennsylvania and conducted a workshop on the power of dreams in Machu Picchu Peru where 30 people from the United States attended In 2005 she was given the Hope and Courage award from the ALS Association and in 2006 received a Stevie lifetime achievement award for women in business As a 27 year survivor of Lou Gehrig s Disease Mariah is also an inspirational speaker sharing her personal approach to healing and living with a life threatening illness Testimonials Mariah Fenton Gladis has translated her own personal and professional history into a highly accessible manual for healing and change Paula S Rosen MSS Ph D Counseling and Psychological Services Swarthmore College Every page of this book testifies to a compassion that is sharp because the author s mental vigor is keen penetrating and discerning But beyond that the reader will feel embraced by the only healing force there is Love Brother David Steindl Rast author of Gratefulness the Heart of Prayer This book is a extraordinary window into a singularly remarkable therapist Ken Duckworth MD Medical Director National Alliance on Mental Illness NAMI To the fortunate reader this book is an inspiring deconstruction of some of your own ideas and a personal treat Enjoy Gordon Wheeler PhD President Esalen Institute
