Yokohama Gaijin Memoir Of A Foreigner Born In Japan:

Yokohama Gaijin George Lavrov, 2012-01-18 George Lavrov George Lavrov was born and raised in Yokohama Japan where he attended St Joseph grade and high school He is a graduate of San Francisco State University with a major in international trade management with area specialization in Japan and the Pacific Rim He is the author of The Pacific Rim Threat or Promise as well as various other articles dealing with Asian and international business Being trilingual he speaks English Russian and Japanese During 1975 to 1986 Lavrov was based in Tokyo where he represented American insurance interests Since returning to the U S he has continued to work in the international arena especially related to Asia and the Pacific Rim Yokohama Gaijin is George Lavrov s personal story told from his own eyewitness account It recounts the horror of WWII carpet bombings of Japanese cities including the tragic loss of his elder brother Konstantin who was killed instantly when a bomb from an American B 29 bomber made a direct hit on the Lavrov residence in Yokohama Japan on May 29th 1945 the harsh wartime treatment of gaijin foreign residents of Japan and much more It is the true story of a stateless White Russian and his family as they coped through some of the most difficult times of the 20th century the WWII period in Japan and the postwar years that followed But it s also a story of faith and hope in the future a future that spelled A M E R I C A and a successful career in the international business world Honored and Dishonored Guests Puck W. Brecher, 2020-05-11 The brutality and racial hatred exhibited by Japan s military during the Pacific War piqued outrage in the West and fanned resentments throughout Asia Public understanding of Japan s wartime atrocities however often fails to differentiate the racial agendas of its military and government elites from the racial values held by the Japanese people While not denying brutalities committed by the Japanese military Honored and Dishonored Guests overturns these standard narratives and demonstrates rather that Japan s racial attitudes during wartime are more accurately discerned in the treatment of Western civilians living in Japan than the experiences of enemy POWs The book chronicles Western communities in wartime Japan using this body of experiences to reconsider allegations of Japanese racism and racial hatred Its bold thesis is borne out by a broad mosaic of stories from dozens of foreign families and individuals who variously endured police harassment suspicion relocation starvation denaturalization internment and torture as well as extraordinary acts of charity The book s account of stranded Westerners from Tokyo Yokohama and Kobe to the mountain resorts of Karuizawa and Hakone yields a unique interpretation of race relations and wartime life in Japan Professional Journal of the United States Army, 2011-07 Combined Arms Center (CAC) Research and Publication Index, 2011 Index to selected publications of the Combined Arms Center Military Review, 2011-07 Look Japan, 1991 Asiaweek, 1987 Yokohama Yankee Leslie Helm, 2013-03-01 Leslie D Helm s decision to adopt Japanese children launches him on a personal journey through his family s 140 years in Japan beginning with his great grandfather who worked as a military advisor in 1870 and defied custom to marry his Japanese mistress The family s poignant experiences of love and war help Helm overcome his cynicism and embrace his

Japanese and American heritage This is the first book to look at Japan across five generations with perspective that is both from the inside and through foreign eyes Helm draws on his great grandfather s unpublished memoir and a wealth of primary source material to bring his family history to life Leslie D Helm is a veteran foreign correspondent having served eight years in Tokyo for Business Week and the Los Angeles Times Currently he is editor of Seattle Business a monthly magazine that has won multiple first place excellence in journalism awards in the Pacific Northwest Helm earned a master s degree in journalism from the Columbia University School of Journalism and in Asian studies from the University of California Berkeley He was born and raised in Yokohama Japan where his family has lived since 1868 Edokko Isaac Shapiro, 2017-10-24 In 1926 professional musicians Constantine Shapiro born in Moscow 1896 and Lydia Chernetsky Odessa 1905 met and married in Berlin Germany after their respective families had suffered continuous persecution in war torn Russia or the Soviet Union as it was known after 1922 With Hitler s national socialism on the rise remaining in Berlin was for the newly weds out of the question and they decided to continue their odyssey first to Palestine then China to ultimately spend the World War II years in the relative safety of Japan In 1931 they found themselves in Japan where Isaac son number four and author of this memoir was born With World War II imminently looming and the subsequent bombing of Pearl Harbor their lives were disrupted once again In 1944 the Yokohama shore was banned for foreigners and the Shapiro family including their five children were forced to move to Tokyo where they survived endless hardships among others the intensified strategic United States bombing campaigns on Tokyo Operation Meetinghouse started March 9 1945 and is regarded as the single most destructive bombing raid in human history The Japanese later called the operation the Night of the Black Snow During the subsequent American occupation of Japan 14 year old Isaac being multi lingual was hired as an interpreter by John Calvin Toby Munn a United States Marine colonel later promoted to Lt Gen who when the war was over paved the way for Isaac or Ike as he soon became known to immigrate to the United States In the summer of 1946 Isaac landed in Hawaii at the time a United States territory altering the course of his life forever
