Dismissing Jesus Douglas M. Jones, 2013-05-07 What is the way of the cross Why does it create resistance How do we answer objections to it The revival of interest in Christ's kingdom and radical discipleship has produced a wave of discussions but sometimes those discussions are scattered This book aims to pull together in one place the core claims of the way of the cross It aims to examine the deeply cherished assumptions that hinder us from hearing Jesus's call When we do that we'll see that the gospel of Christ is not primarily about getting into heaven or about living a comfortable individually pious middle class life It is about being free from the ancient pervasive and delightful oppression of Mammon in order to create a very different community the church an alternative city kingdom here and now on earth by means of living and celebrating the way of the cross the reign of joyful weakness renunciation self-denial sharing foolishness community and love overcoming evil promptings of the Holy Spirit From the Old Testament prophets to modern day believers noted author and speaker Priscilla to beware of counterfeit voices how in each encounter God's voice may differ but the nature of it does not Singing into Splintered Spaces E. Janet Warren,2022-12-07 Contemporary society can be described as splintered busy and noisy but also empty and in need of healing Christians are called to sing the Lord's song anew to the world but are sometimes confused about whether to prioritize loving God or loving our neighbor This collection of essays shows that both are needed mission and spiritual disciplines are actually intertwined and reciprocal Some contributors to this volume take a theoretical perspective others write from their experience in ministry Disciplines discussed include classic ones like prayer and study as well as novel ones like cruciformity mindfulness and neighborhood engagement Written in accessible language with multiple anecdotes this book aims to inspire both the practice of spiritual disciplines and the practice of mission Join us as we journey from the Philippines to American nationalism to a prayer truck in inner city Hamilton as we engage in quiet contemplation as well as compassionate action Guided by the Holy Spirit we dance rhythms of resting and responding listening and leading praying and proclaiming Whether through solitude discipleship groups inviting strangers to dinner speaking out against idolatry and injustice or simply being present we join Jesus as he repairs the splintered spaces of our lives All the Noise is in the Shallow End of the Pool Mark Victor Warner,2024-12-16 All the Noise is in the Shallow End of the Pool is about you and Jesus It's about following His lead responding to His invitations attending to His presence and letting Him love you It is about moving from familiarity to intimacy about living out of your true identity and learning to live freely and lightly as Jesus said you could If that appeals to you if you feel even the smallest spark of interest or desire rising within you if you long for more then this book is for you It's a testimony to the absolutely unconditional unlimited and unimaginably extravagant love of God written to tease you forward out of the shallows of a largely autonomous life into a deeper life lived in growing dependence upon God If you've decided to respond to Jesus to the longing He's put inside you to His invitation to move from knowing to loving so much more awaits you Will you take the next step Will you venture out beyond the buoys Will you join Him in the deep end of the pool Participation and Covenant Dick Moes,2024-03-13 In Participation and Covenant Contours of a Theodramatic Theology Moes develops a theological framework that has participation in the life of God in Christ through the Spirit as its integrative center In doing so he enters into conversation with covenant or federal theology particularly as it has been presented by Michael Horton in which the integrative center is the concept of the covenant He argues that God's fundamental relationship with humanity does not entail a covenant ontology a fundamentally legal and ethical relationship to God as we find in Horton's presentation but rather an ontology of participating in God's loving presence in Christ through the Holy Spirit For this relationship we were created and this participation is therefore natural to us Accordingly a theodramatic framework that incorporates a reframed understanding of divine human covenants and that has participation in the life of God in Christ by the Spirit as its integrative center is better able to give direction for clearly communicating the gospel in our secular culture and for properly shaping our Christian identity and practice in the face of the secularism that affects the church too than Horton's framework of covenant theology

American Book Publishing Record, 1999 A Mother's Heart Jean Fleming, 1996 A mother of three Jean Fleming reveals what it means to be a godly mother and offers encouragement to mothers of all ages and backgrounds She helps mothers distinguish their role and God's role in raising children shows how to take a spiritual inventory of a child's life and pray for that child and teaches how to be thankful for a child's strengths and weaknesses
