studies on cities This will be essential reading for all tourism students State of the World's Cities 2010/2011 ,2010
One billion people worldwide live in slums and that figure is predicted to reach 2 billion by 2030 This new volume from UN HABITAT unpacks the complex social and economic issues using the novel conceptual framework of the urban divide

Introduction Belinda Yuen,Giok Ling Ooi,2010 How does a city make sound policy decisions on sustainability and governance while simultaneously promoting economic growth and development excellence This book focuses on the major challenges that world cities are facing in such key areas as governance social inclusiveness infrastructural development financial solvency as well as environmental and ecological sustainability Based on case studies from cities in North America Europe and the Asia Pacific this collection of essays brings together some of the top academics professionals and policymakers from the world over and presents their views on how to best strike the balance between growth and sustainability The range of perspectives ideas and depth of information makes this an invaluable resource for researchers city planning professionals and policymakers in environment urban development and urban economic planning Tenth Malaysia Plan 2011-2015 Malaysia. Unit Perancang Ekonomi,2010 Cities People Planet Herbert Girardet,2008-05-27
Herbert Girardet looks at how ecologically sound architecture and urban design can favourably impact the life of the planet With leading edge ideas and examples of architectural and urban design from around the world the book details how cities of today are tackling regeneration and sustainability development Ranking the Liveability of the World's Major Cities Khee Giap Tan,2012 This unique volume aims to provide a first comprehensive assessment on attributes conditions and characters which constitute a liveable city The book posits that the degree of liveability depends on five themes satisfaction with the freedom from want satisfaction with the state of the natural environment and its management satisfaction with freedom from fear satisfaction with the socio cultural conditions and satisfaction with public governance The authors attempt to be more constructive through performing policy simulations by first identifying relative weaknesses and strengths of 64 global cities across major continents including European Asian Middle Eastern North and South American cities The book also ranks and simulates 36 Asian cities separately of which many are emerging third world cities that are in need of policy guidance

Planning ,2001 Biology Digest ,1987 Cities in Transformation Gretchen Liu,2012 The Lee Kuan Yew World City Prize is a biennial international award that honours outstanding contributions to the creation of vibrant liveable and sustainable urban communities around the world Awarded jointly by the Urban Redevelopment Authority URA and the Centre for Liveable Cities both in Singapore the 2012 prize went to the City of New York for its remarkable transformation in the decade since the 2001 World Trade Center attack Cities in Transformation presents the award winners and special mentions for the 2010 and 2012 editions of the award and honours their efforts to create dynamic and sustainable urban communities The cities featured are New York 2012 laureate and Bilbao 2010 laureate as well as special mentions Ahmedabad Brisbane Copenhagen Malm Vancouver Melbourne Curitiba awarded to Jamie Lerner Delhi awarded to Sheila

Dikshit and Khayelitsha in Cape Town awarded to AHT Group AG SUN Development Cities in Transformation includes a foreword by Lee Kuan Yew the venerable Singapore statesman from whom the Prize is named and insightful and fascinating chapters on each city that feature stunning photography that will give readers unique insights into the cities that are leading the way in inspired urban planning Building Vibrant and Liveable Cities Dahlia Rosly,2010 Vibrant Cities Somik V. Lall,Jon Kher Kaw,Forhad J. Shilpi,Sally Beth Murray,2023-10-02 Livable Cities? Peter B. Evans,2002-02 The cities of the developing world are hubs of economic growth but they are increasingly ecologically unsustainable and unliveable This book explores the issues of livelihood and ecological sustainability in cities of the developing world Liveable Cities Chris Gossop,Shi Nan,2011 This book is about the unprecedented challenges facing the world s cities as they expand and develop in response to demographic change human aspirations and the forces of globalization Most of that growth is taking place in the developing countries and it is here that the megacities places with over ten million people seem destined to emerge during the next few decades While there are considerable variations in the rates of city expansion between and within the different world regions much of that growth has taken place as formless urban sprawl as well as the slums and squatter settlements to be found in many of the world s cities These urbanizing areas face acute economic social and environmental problems They stem from amongst other things fundamental changes in the nature of work the economic crisis that began in 2008 the continuing and often growing inequalities within the urban population and from the severe pollution and hazardous living conditions that afflict many urban communities Without suitable action to address them those problems are likely to worsen as the effects of human induced climate change become ever more apparent So how can our cities become truly liveable places Published in tandem with ISOCARP s 47th World Congress held in Wuhan China the many case studies in this publication describe new planning and other approaches that seek to create more sustainable more liveable cities

Livable Cities from a Global Perspective Roger Caves,Fritz Wagner,2018-05-11 Livable Cities from a Global Perspective offers case studies from around the world on how cities approach livability They address the fundamental question what is considered livable The journey each city has taken or is currently taking is unique and context specific There is no such thing as a one size fits all approach to livability Some cities have had a long history of developing livability policies and programs that focus on equity economic and environmental concerns while other cities are relatively new to the game In some areas government has taken the lead while in other areas grassroots activism has been the impetus for livability policies and programs The challenge facing our cities is not simply developing a livability program We must continually monitor and readjust policies and programs to meet the livability needs of all people The case studies investigate livability issues in such cities as Austin Texas Helsinki Finland London United Kingdom Warsaw Poland Tehran Iran Salt Lake City United States Rio de Janeiro Brazil Sydney Australia and Cape Town South Africa The chapters are organized into such themes as livability in capital city regions livability and growth and development livability and equity concerns livability and metrics and creating livability Each chapter provides unique insights into how a specific area has responded to calls for livable cities In doing so the book adds to the existing literature in the field of livable cities and provides policy makers and other organizations with information and alternative strategies that have been developed and implemented in an effort to become a livable city Cities People Planet Herbert Girardet,2004-12-15 Publisher description Developing Living Cities Kallidaikurichi Seetharam,Belinda K. P. Yuen,2010 This is an important and timely book With half of humanity living in cities our future will depend on how well we manage our cities This book poses six inter generational challenges to cities If a city deals successfully with them it will become a living thriving prosperous and delightful place to live work and visit Prof Tommy Koh Chairman Governing Council Asia Pacific Water Forum Making Cities Liveable ,2018
