Karyn Cooper, Sardar M. Anwaruddin, 2016-02-10 Student Voice A Companion to Democracy and Its Discontents serves two primary purposes First as the title of the volume suggests it serves as a companion text to Democracy and Its Discontents Critical Literacy across Global Contexts Sense Publishers 2015 Second the volume features critical dialogues between emerging and established scholars in the field of critical literacy education broadly defined It brings together a collection of essays that speak to the possibilities of taking a critical approach to language and literacy education The contributing authors draw on their life stories and professional experiences to make a strong case for taking a critical approach to education They demonstrate that the act of teaching always involves a grappling with the entanglement of social cultural and political forces In this sense education is always a normative and ethical enterprise The authors featured in this book will encourage readers to re imagine critical education and its emancipatory potential in an age of neo conservative and corporate assaults on education This volume written in a lucid and accessible manner will appeal to a broad readership interested in education It will be an informative and engaging text in graduate and undergraduate courses on language and literacy education teacher education education policy studies and curriculum studies In service teachers teacher educators and school administrators will also find it to be a valuable resource Karyn Cooper is an Associate Professor and Sardar M Anwaruddin is a PhD candidate in the Department of Curriculum Teaching and Learning at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education OISE of the University of Toronto

Doing History Linda S. Levstik, Keith C. Barton, 2022-09-06 Now in its sixth edition Doing History offers a unique perspective on teaching and learning history in the elementary and middle grades Through case studies of teachers and students in diverse classrooms and from diverse backgrounds it shows children engaging in authentic historical investigations often in the context of an integrated social studies curriculum The book is grounded in the view that children can engage in valid forms of historical inquiry asking questions collecting and analyzing evidence examining the varied perspectives and experiences of people in the past and creating evidence based historical accounts and interpretations Grounded in contemporary sociocultural theory and research the text features vignettes in each chapter showing communities of teachers and students doing history in environments rich in literature art writing and discussion The authors explain how these classrooms reflect contemporary principles of teaching and learning and thus the descriptions not only provide specific examples of successful activities but also place them in a context that allows teachers to adapt and apply them in a wide range of settings Doing History emphasizes diversity in two ways Readers encounter students from a variety of backgrounds and see how their diverse experiences can form the foundation for learning and they also see examples of how teachers can engage students with diverse experiences and perspectives in the past including those that led to conflict and oppression The book also discusses principles for working with English learners and newcomers and it provides guidance in using multiple forms of assessment to evaluate the specifically historical aspects of children s learning Updates to this edition include updated historical and instructional examples to ensure currency new suggestions for children s literature to support good teaching expanded attention to teaching about oppressed groups in history and greater attention to when historical perspective taking is and is not appropriate

World History for Children and Young Adults Vandelia VanMeter,1992 This index identifies and describes hundreds of books on world events both fiction and nonfiction appropriate for students in both elementary and secondary grades The arrangement is by time period subdivided by subject and indexed by grade level It can be used for resource sharing and collection development
