Shareholder Cities Sai Balakrishnan, 2019-11-01 Economic corridors ambitious infrastructural development projects that newly liberalizing countries in Asia and Africa are undertaking are dramatically redefining the shape of urbanization Spanning multiple cities and croplands these corridors connect metropolises via high speed superhighways in an effort to make certain strategic regions attractive destinations for private investment As policy makers search for decentralized and market oriented means for the transfer of land from agrarian constituencies to infrastructural promoters and urban developers the reallocation of property control is erupting into volatile land based social conflicts In Shareholder Cities Sai Balakrishnan argues that some of India's most decisive conflicts over its urban future will unfold in the regions along the new economic corridors where electorally strong agrarian propertied classes directly encounter financially powerful incoming urban firms Balakrishnan focuses on the first economic corridor the Mumbai Pune Expressway and the construction of three new cities along it The book derives its title from a current mode of resolving agrarian urban conflicts in which agrarian landowners are being transformed into shareholders in the corridor cities and the distributional implications of these new land transformations Shifting the focus of the study of India's contemporary urbanization away from megacities to these in between corridor regions Balakrishnan explores the production of uneven urban development that unsettles older histories of agrarian capitalism and the emergence of agrarian propertied classes as protagonists in the making of urban real estate markets Shareholder Cities highlights the possibilities for a democratic politics of inclusion in which agrarian urban encounters can create opportunities for previously excluded groups to stake new claims for themselves in the corridor regions

Worlding Cities Ananya Roy, Aihwa Ong, 2011-08-15

Worlding Cities is the first serious examination of Asian urbanism to highlight the connections between different Asian models and practices of urbanization It includes important contributions from a respected group of scholars across a range of generations disciplines and sites of study Describes the new theoretical framework of worlding Substantially expands and updates the themes of capital and culture Includes a unique collection of authors across generations disciplines and sites of study Demonstrates how references to Asian power success and hegemony make possible urban development and limit urban politics

Informal Market Worlds Peter Mörténböck, Helge Mooshammer, Teddy Cruz, 2015

The essays in the reader debate the scope of informality for generating economic social and political change From discussing the conceptual challenges behind the development of a new political economy based on the philosophical legal and social architecture of other markets to exploring how changing global relations are already initiating new forms of urban practice these analyses provide a thorough understanding of what is at stake in the new geography of Informal Market Worlds With contributions by Teddy Cruz Keith Hart Jiang Jun Lawrence Liang MAP Office Vyjayanthi Rao Ananya Roy Saskia Sassen Abdou Maliq Simone Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Ignacio Valero Matias Viegner and others The accompanying atlas brings together more than 80 case studies on the spatial and visual culture of informal markets from around the world

New Geographies Daniel Daou, Pablo Pérez-Ramos, 2016 As a metaphor the island has been a fecund source of inspiration across many domains Yet the concept seems to contradict trends toward interconnectedness in the geographic and design fields An atlas of islands New Geographies 8 explores the new limits of islandness and gathers examples to reassert its relevance for design disciplines

Asian Cities: Colonial to Global Gregory Bracken, 2025-10-01

When people look at success stories among postcolonial nations the focus almost always turns to Asia where many cities in former colonies have become key locations of international commerce and culture This book brings together a stellar group of scholars from a number of disciplines to explore the rise of Asian cities including Singapore Macau Hong Kong and more Dealing with history geography culture architecture urbanism and other topics the book attempts to formulate a new understanding of what makes Asian cities such global leaders

Making Cultural Cities in Asia June Wang, Tim Oakes, Yang Yang, 2015-12-22

This book examines the vast and largely uncharted world of cultural creative city making in Asia It explores the establishment of policy models and practices against the backdrop of a globalizing world and considers the dynamic relationship between powerful actors and resources that impact Asian cities Making Cultural Cities in Asia approaches this dynamic process through the lens of assemblage how the policy models of cultural creative cities have been extracted from the flow of ideas and how re invented versions have been assembled territorialized and exported This approach reveals a spectrum between globally circulating ideals on the one hand and the place based contexts and contingencies on the other At one end of the spectrum this book features chapters on policy mobility in particular the political construction of the web of communication and the restructuring or rescaling of the state At the other end chapters examine the increasingly fragmented social forces their changing roles in the process and their negotiations alignments and resistances This book will be of interest to researchers and policy makers concerned with cultural and urban studies creative industries and Asian studies
