Metacognition, Worldviews and Religious Education Shirley Larkin, Rob Freathy, Jonathan Doney, Giles Freathy, 2019-07-03 Religious Education RE holds a unique place within the state education system Yet the teaching of RE has often been criticised for its tendency to present simplified and stereotypical representations of religions Bringing together the theory of metacognition with RE curriculum content this book offers a coherent and theoretically supported approach to RE and beyond that is applicable to a range of subjects and students of various age groups Metacognition Worldviews and Religious Education seeks to support teachers in creating a new and exciting classroom approach With a focus on putting children and teachers worldviews back on the RE agenda and developing awareness of these through metacognitive processes it includes Tables frameworks and checklists to make it easy for teachers to adapt the approach to their own context Concrete examples of how the approach can work in the classroom including case studies from teachers Call out boxes for teachers and others to reflect on their own practice and to consider their own beliefs and values in relation to teaching and learning Co authored by three researchers from Exeter University and one experienced advanced skills RE primary school teacher this book explains in a jargon free way the theories of metacognition and worldviews which underpin the creation of a unique learning environment making it an essential read for students experienced teachers researchers in RE and anyone interested in taking a thinking skills approach to pedagogy Resources in Education ,2001-04

Conceptualising Religion and Worldviews for the School Kevin O'Grady,2022-07-14 This timely volume addresses current debates surrounding the transition from the teaching of religious education RE to the more holistic subject of Religion and Worldviews R W in England and posits criteria for best practice among educators in varied settings and in a broader international context By examining empirical sources governmental reports and in particular the 2018 final report from the Commission on Religious Education CORE the volume suggests key principles needed to guide the transition and ensure that R W is effectively integrated into curricula pedagogy and teaching resources to meet the needs of all student groups By effectively conceptualising R W the volume gives particular attention to the intersections of the subject with democratic citizenship education intercultural competence and religious literacy This text will benefit researchers academics and educators with an interest in religious education and teacher education as well as the philosophy and sociology of education more broadly Those interested in education policy and politics as well as citizenship and schooling in the UK will also benefit from this volume Worldviews ,1998 Skills for Literary Analysis (Teacher) James P. Stobaugh,2013-08-01 The Teacher Guide for Skills for Literary Analysis Lessons in Assessing Writing Structures Christian Teachers in Public Schools Julia K. Stronks,Gloria Goris Stronks,1999-08-01 A guide for Christians teaching in public schools to 1 bring their faith to bear on their work and 2 understand the legal issues governing religion and public schools The School Leadership Survival Guide Jeffrey S. Brooks,Amanda Heffernan,2021-01-01 The School Leadership Survival Guide What to Do When Things Go Wrong How to Learn from Mistakes and Why You Should Prepare for the Worst is intended as an uncommon guide for school leaders and a resource they can turn to when confronted with issues they might not normally face in typical practice The book serves as a bridge between research and day to day school leadership and is intended to help leaders and school communities improve in areas they routinely avoid In this sense the book is meant as a go to resource for principals those who train and teach them and scholars Although authors recognize the complexity of issues raised in the book each chapter has a How to What to do or Why You Should ethos in order to give the book a unifying structure and help provide a practical translation of research and theory into practice Some of the issues addressed include How to elevate student voice How to navigate religious conflict in the school and community How to improve support for LGBTIQ students Why You Should develop a natural disaster plan How to work against racism in the school and community How to practice inclusion in the school How to make a vision and mission come to life How to manage relationships with difficult people What to do when there is racial tension in the community How to learn the history of your school and community and why that matters How to guide and support a leadership team and What to do in a school with low trust Worldviews and Christian Education W. Shipton, 2013-08-14 Christs instruction to his disciples was to witness to others about his plan of salvation This may be relatively easy when it involves our contemporaries and peers But when we are working with people from a different cultural background or belief system it can be difficult or seemingly impossible In Worldviews and Christian Education editors W A Shipton E Coetzee and R Takeuchi have brought together works by experts in cross cultural religious education The authors and editors have a wealth of personal experience in presenting the gospel to individuals with various worldviews that differ greatly from those held by Christians who take the Bible as authoritative They focus on the beliefs and issues associated with witnessing to seekers for truth coming from backgrounds as diverse as animism Buddhism Confucianism Hinduism Islam Marxism Taoism and postmodernism The emphasis is on educational settings but the sensitivities highlighted and lessons learned are applicable to situations outside this area Leaders pastors teachers and laypersons will find valuable conceptual models practical ideas and bibliographic references presented here Worldviews and Christian Education challenges all readers to be faithful to the biblical worldview and to approach everyone with sensitivity so that like the apostle Paul they may reach some Librarians and Educators Collaborating for Success Marcia A. Mardis, 2016-12-05 The first in the IASL Libraries Unlimited partnership series this book features contributions written by authors from around the world about their effective collaboration experiences Collaboration between teachers and school librarians is a topic that is often discussed in the quest for educational excellence but the international perspective is something that is rarely explored This text documents the collaboration endeavors in international school libraries and drawing upon research and direct experience demonstrates effective collaboration experiences in a range of countries It also features selected brief case studies as well as several original essays on the topic of collaboration between teachers and teacher librarians in curriculum planning The result of a joint effort between Libraries Unlimited and the International Association of School Librarianship IASL this book shows how collaboration with teachers looks in the international arena It addresses topics such as collaborating for success with student searching the roles of librarians and teachers in the research process principal involvement information literacy inquiry based learning use of digital resources models of collaboration for diversity and evaluation of collaboration Additionally the current research findings presented will offer readers new insights into their profession Contemporary Approaches To Research On Learning Environments: Worldviews Darrell Fisher, Myint Swe Khine, 2006-05-25 Learning environment research has undergone considerable growth in the past thirty years and has now reached a stage of notable diversity and internationalization Earlier studies often used questionnaires to assess learning environments but today both qualitative and quantitative approaches are used Many contemporary studies are a productive combination of these two approaches This volume brings together prominent educators and researchers from around the world to share their contemporary research on educational learning environments The chapters provide information on recent trends and developments and effective applications of different methods to improve teaching and learning The book will be a critical and specialized source that describes recent advances in learning environment studies across all continents The contributors come from Australia Belgium Cyprus Finland India Indonesia Israel Japan The Netherlands New Zealand Singapore Turkey Taiwan Thailand and the USA

The Routledge International Handbook of the Place of Religion in Early Childhood Education and Care Arniika Kuusisto,2022-05-29 Understanding the place of religion in Early Childhood Education and Care is of critical importance for the development of cultural literacy and plays a key role in societal coherence and inclusion. This international handbook provides a comprehensive overview of the place of religion in the societal educational arenas of the very youngest children across the globe. Drawing together contributions from leading international experts across disciplinary backgrounds, it offers a critical view of how to approach the complexities around the place of religion in Early Childhood Education and Care. Through its four parts, the book examines the theoretical, methodological, policy and practice perspectives and explores the complex intersections of transmission of cultural heritage and national values with the diverse changing societal contexts. Each chapter contributes to an increased understanding of how the place of religion in Early Childhood Education and Care can be understood across continents, countries and educational systems. The Routledge International Handbook of the Place of Religion in Early Childhood Education and Care is an essential resource for academics, researchers, students and practitioners working in Early Childhood Education, Sociology of Childhood, Religious Education and other related fields.
