Popkewitz,David F. Labaree,2011-05-09 This book is a comparative history that explores the social cultural and political formation of the modern nation through the construction of public schooling It asks how modern school systems arose in a variety of different republics and non republics across four continents during the period from the late eighteenth century to the early twentieth century The authors begin with the republican preoccupation with civic virtue the need to overcome self interest in order to take up the common interest which requires a form of education that can produce individuals who are capable of self guided rational action for the public good They then ask how these educational preoccupations led to the emergence of modern school systems in a disparate array of national contexts even those that were not republican By examining historical changes in republicanism across time and space the authors explore central epistemologies that connect the modern individual to community and citizenship through the medium of schooling Ideas of the individual were reformulated in the nineteenth century in reaction to new ideas about justice social order and progress and the organization and pedagogy of the school turned these changes into a way to transform the self into the citizen Brinkman's catalogus van boeken en tijdschriften ,1882 With 1901 1910 1956 1960 Repertorium is bound Brinkman s Titel catalogus van de gedurende 1901 1910 1956 1960 Title varies slightly De Katholiek ,1912 Oude kinderboeken Elize Knuttel-Fabius,1906 Boekenschouw voor godsdienst, wetenschap en kunst ,1907 Lettering Young Readers in the Dutch Enlightenment Feike Dietz,2021-05-22 This book presents a rigorous hugely informative analysis of the early history of Dutch children s literature pedagogical developments and emerging family formations Thoroughly researched Dietz s study will be essential for historians of eighteenth century childhood education and children s books both in the Dutch context and more widely Matthew Grenby Newcastle University UK A rich informative well documented and effectively illustrated discussion of the ways Dutch eighteenth century educators tried to transform youth into responsible readers It does so in a wide international context and masterfully connects this process to the radical politicization and de politicization of Dutch society in the revolutionary period Wijnand W Mijnhardt formerly of Utrecht University the Netherlands and the University of California at Los Angeles USA This book explores how children s literature and literacy could at once regulate and empower young people in the eighteenth century Dutch Republic Rather than presenting the history of childhood as a linear story of increasing agency it suggests that we view it as a continuous struggle with the impossibility of full agency for young people This volume demonstrates how this struggle informed the production of books in a historical context in which the development of independent youths was high on the political agenda In close interaction with international children s literature markets Dutch authors developed new strategies to make the members of young generations into capable readers and writers equipped to organize their own minds and bodies properly and to support a supposedly declining fatherland Lijst van nieuw verschenen boeken ,1867 De jonge vaandrig George Alfred Henty,1892 Child of the Enlightenment Arianne Baggerman,Rudolf Michel Dekker,2009-01-01 A diary kept by a boy in the 1790s sheds new light on the rise of autobiographical writing in the 19th century and sketches a panoramic view of Europe in the Age of Enlightenment The French Revolution and the Batavian Revolution in the Netherlands provide the backdrop to this study which ranges from changing perceptions of time space and nature to the thought of Jean Jacques Rousseau and its influence on such far flung fields as education landscape gardening and politics The book describes the high expectations people had of science and medicine and their disappointment at the failure of these new branches of learning to cure the world of its ills Catalogus der bibliotheken nagelaten door Mr. A.F.C. van Trojen ..., Mr. F.L.
