Very Private And Public Relations:

A Very Private Public Citizen Nancy Peterson Hill, 2014-11-18 Grenville Clark was born to wealth and privilege in Manhattan where his maternal grandfather LeGrand Bouton Cannon was an industry titan retired Civil War colonel and personal friend of Abraham Lincoln Clark grew up on a first name basis with both Presidents Roosevelt and his close friends included Supreme Court justices He was well known and respected in the inner circles of business government and education In A Very Private Public Citizen The Life of Grenville Clark Nancy Peterson Hill gives life to the unsung account of this great and largely anonymous American hero and reveals how the scope of Clark's life and career reflected his selfless passion for progress equality and peace As a member of the Corporation Harvard's elite governing board Clark wrote a still relevant treatise on academic freedom He fought a successful public battle with his good friend President Franklin Roosevelt over FDR's attempt to pack the Supreme Court in 1937 He refused pay while serving as a private advisor for the Secretary of War of the United States during the Second World War and he worked closely with the NAACP to uphold civil rights for African Americans during the tumultuous 1950s and 60s Clark devoted his last decades to a quest for world peace through limited but enforceable world law rewriting the charter of the United Nations and traveling the globe to lobby the world's leaders An enthusiastic husband father and friend Clark was a lawyer civil rights activist traveler advisor and world citizen at large Memories from Clark's family and friends weave through the book as do Clark's own inimitable observations on his life and the world in which he lived A Very Private Public Citizen brings Clark out of the shadows offering readers an inspiring example of a true patriot and humanitarian more concerned with the well being of his country and his fellow man than with his own fame
