Vulnerabilities Impacts And Responses To Hiv aids In Sub Saharan Africa:

Vulnerabilities, Impacts, and Responses to HIV/AIDS in Sub-Saharan Africa Getnet Tadele, Helmut Kloos, 2013-05-07 This book examines HIV AIDS vulnerabilities impacts and responses in the socioeconomic and cultural context of Sub Saharan Africa With contributions from social scientists and public health experts the volume identifies gender inequality and poverty as the main causes of the HIV epidemic in sub Saharan Africa

HIV/AIDS and Agriculture in sub-Saharan Africa Tanja R. Müller, 2023-08-28 This publication is the first in a series on HIV AIDS and agriculture in sub Saharan Africa with the overall objective of providing a resource base on issues of rural development in a broad sense in the times of HIV AIDS This first book discusses the impact of the epidemic as it has emerged over the last decades at different levels of the agricultural sector namely the farming system level the livelihood level and the household level In a further step impact on the agricultural estate sector as well as pastoralism is discussed One overarching issue that emerges is the importance of gender attributes to adequately understand and address HIV AIDS impact the topic at the centre of the second part of the series The text ends with a discussion of HIV AIDS in relation to other shocks that befall rural livelihoods It is followed by an annotated bibliography

African Youth and the Persistence of Marginalization Danielle Resnick, James Thurlow, 2015-04-10 The much heralded growth and transformation of many economies in sub Saharan Africa over the last decade continues to receive prominent attention in academic scholarship and among policy practitioners An apparent feature about this transformation however is that Africa s youth appear to have been left out This book critically examines the extent and consequences of the marginalization of African youth It questions conventional wisdoms about data trends aspirational goals and common policy interventions surrounding Africa s youth that have been variously propagated in both the development studies literature and in mainstream donor policy reports The book explores macro trends from both a temporal and cross regional perspective in order to highlight what is distinct about contemporary African youth and whether their prospects and behaviours do actually vary from their counterparts in other regions of the world or from previous generations of African youth Such studies include cross country analyses of youth employment patterns and modes of political participation in depth examination of the behaviours and aspirations of the urban youth and critical reflections on the impact of rural employment initiatives vocational education and learnership programmes The incorporation of multiple methods and disciplines as well as its attention to policy issues ensures that the book will be of great interest to graduate students researchers and professional researchers whose work lies at the intersection of African area studies and development studies as well as those focused on development economics political science and public policy and administration

Sizongoba! Outliving AIDS in Southern Africa Ngcaweni, Busani, 2017-04-11 The aim of this book is to better understand the phenomenon of HIV in a country that has faced the fullest might of the disease and yet after first faltering has made more progress than any other country in the world in its response to HIV It aims to reflect the complexity of this narrative and the range of widely differing insights by featuring what is likely the largest number of contributors in a single publication on the subject in South Africa as well as a full spectrum of specialised areas ranging from high end science to personal reflections

Accelerating the Education Sector Response to HIV Donald Bundy,Anthi Patrikios,Changu Mannathoko,Andy Tembon,Stella Manda,Bachir Sarr,Lesley Drake,2010-02-02 The education sector plays a key external role in preventing and reducing the stigma surrounding HIV AIDS It also plays an important internal role in providing access to care treatment and support for teachers and education staff a group that in many countries represents more than 60 percent of the public sector workforce The education sector can also have a critically important positive effect on the future Even in the worst affected countries most schoolchildren are not infected For these children there is a chance to live lives free from AIDS if they can be educated on the knowledge and values that can protect them as they grow up The authors of Accelerating the Education Sector Response to HIV explore the experiences of education sectors across Sub Saharan Africa as they scale up their responses to HIV AIDS within the Accelerate Initiative Working Group established in 2002 by the Joint United Nations Programme on HIV AIDS UNAIDS Inter Agency Task Team on Education This book demonstrates that leadership by the ministries of education and commitment from key development partners are crucial for mobilizing activities and that full participation of all stakeholders is required for effective implementation This book summarizes the experiences of technical Focal Points from the 37 ministries of education in Sub Saharan Africa which are represented on the sub regional networks for HIV and Education These experiences prove that the education sector response can play a crucially important role in the multisectoral national responses to this epidemic

Inside Xinjiang Anna Hayes,Michael Clarke,2015-12-14 The Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region is China s largest province shares borders with Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan Afghanistan Pakistan Russia and Mongolia and possesses a variety of natural resources including oil The tensions between ethnic Muslim Uyghurs and the growing number of Han Chinese in Xinjiang have recently increased occasionally breaking out into violence At the same time as being a potential trouble spot for China the province is of increasing strategic significance as China s gateway to Central Asia whose natural resources are of increasing importance to China This book focuses in particular on what life is like in Xinjiang for the diverse population that lives there It offers important insights into the social economic and political terrains of Xinjiang concentrating especially on how current trends in Xinjiang are likely to develop in the future In doing so it provides a broader understanding of the region and its peoples

AIDS and Rural Livelihoods Anke Niehof,Gabriel Rugalema,2019-01-15 AIDS epidemics continue to threaten the livelihoods of millions of people in sub Saharan Africa Three decades after the disease was first recognized the annual death toll from AIDS exceeds that from wars famine and floods combined Yet despite millions of dollars of aid and research there has previously been little detailed on the ground analysis of the multifaceted impacts on rural people Filling that gap this book brings together recent evidence of AIDS impacts on rural households livelihoods and agricultural practice in sub Saharan Africa There is particular emphasis on the role of women in affected households and on the situation of children The book is unique in presenting micro level information collected by original empirical research in a range of African countries and showing how well grounded conclusions on trends impacts and local responses can be applied to the design of HIV responsive policies and programmes AIDS impacts are more diverse than we previously thought and local responses more varied sometimes innovative sometimes desperate The book represents a major contribution to our understanding of the impacts of AIDS in the epidemic s heartland and how these can be managed at different levels

The Elusive African Renaissance George Klay Kieh, Jr.,2018-08-28 Africa faces several major development challenges that have adversely affected the political and material well being of the majority of the people living there This collection of new essays rigorously analyzes those frontier development issues including democracy leadership the economy poverty alleviation through microfinance schemes food security education health and political instability and offers prescriptions that differ from the dominant neoliberal solutions

Ex-post impact assessment review of the Regional Network on AIDS, Livelihoods, and Food Security (RENEWAL) Frankenberger, Tim,Nelson, Suzanne,2012-02-16 The Regional Network on AIDS Livelihoods and Food Security RENEWAL was officially launched in 2001 as a joint project of the International Food Policy Research Institute IFPRI and the International Service for National Agricultural Research ISNAR and was operational in Malawi Uganda Kenya Zambia and South Africa through most of 2011 RENEWAL is a network of networks comprised of national networks of food and nutrition relevant organizations along with partners in AIDS and public health practitioners Its overarching goal is to provide evidence based research on the linkages between HIV food security and nutrition in Sub Saharan Africa that would inform responses to prevent or mitigate the impact and consequences of AIDS RENEWAL s three main objectives are 1 to reduce critical gaps in understanding how livelihoods particularly those deriving from agriculture both contribute to the spread of HIV and are affected by HIV and AIDS 2 to generate new policy relevant knowledge on how households and communities may strengthen both their resistance to HIV transmission and their resilience to the impacts of AIDS and 3 to enable relevant institutions particularly governments to generate and act upon realistic priorities for responding to the interaction of the AIDS epidemic with food and nutrition insecurity RENEWAL s strategic approach to achieving these goals involved the three core pillars of capacity strengthening policy communications and action research and the synergies resulting from their interactions This report assesses the impact of RENEWAL activities from 2000 to 2010 and is based on a review of products resulting from RENEWAL activities such as books policy briefs workshop summaries reports and discussion papers stakeholder perceptions of RENEWAL products and activities and national policy or programming changes resulting from RENEWAL supported action research capacity strengthening efforts and policy communications
