Walls Built On Sand Migration Exclusion And Society In Kuwait:

Walls Built On Sand Anh Nga Longva, 2019-05-20 When Iraq invaded Kuwait in 1990 the sight of tens of thousands of non Kuwaiti Arabs Indians East Asians and Westerners fleeing or trapped under occupation made the outside world suddenly aware of a singular fact of Kuwaiti society that Kuwaitis are an absolute minority in their own country Basing her analysis on extensive fieldwork and archiv Arab Migrant Communities in the GCC Zahra Babar, 2017 This volume provides a series of empirically dense analyses of the historical and contemporary dynamics of Arab intra regional migration to the monarchies of the Persian Gulf and unravels the ways in which particular social and cultural practices of Arab migrants interact with the host states Among other things specific contributions allow us to consider the socioeconomic and political factors that have historically shaped the character of the Arab migratory experience the sorts of work opportunities that Arab migrants have sought in the region what their work conditions and lived experiences have been and whether we are able to discern any patterns of sociocultural integration for Arab non nationals Asianization of Migrant Workers in the Gulf Countries

S. Irudaya Rajan, Ginu Zacharia Oommen, 2019-11-27 This edited volume contains sixteen chapters by eminent scholars on one of the largest migration corridors in the world i e between South and South East Asia and the Gulf region Asia s trade and cultural contact with the Gulf date back to ancient historical times Since the 1970s the economic rise of the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC countries owing to the discovery of oil has inspired a huge influx of migrant workers from Asia At present out of roughly 15 million expatriates in the Gulf region Asians constitute around 12 million 80 percent The chapters in this book look at migration from countries like India Sri Lanka Bangladesh Pakistan Indonesia and Philippines to the different GCC countries A few chapters also focus on migration from the India state of Kerala a state where migration to the Gulf is prominent and where remittances make up over 36 percent of the state GDP Furthermore the issues covered range from labour practices and policies citizenship and state protection human rights gender and caste as well as diaspora This book explores the multifaceted nuances of the Asia Gulf migratory corridor and unearths future prospects and strategic implications The book examines remittance behaviour changing gender roles of immigrants social spatial mobility migrant policies human rights sense of belonging and identity and perception and the interaction between nationals and non nationals The book will be of interest to researchers in the areas of demography migration and gender studies as well as social science researchers policy makers human rights lawyers civil society institutions working on migration Gulf studies programmes and centres on South Asian and Middle Eastern studies Diversity of Law in the United Arab Emirates

Kristin Kamøy, 2020-12-16 This book examines the law and its practice in the United Arab Emirates UAE The objective is to understand the logic of the legal system in the UAE through a rounded analysis of its laws in context It thus presents an understanding of the system on its own terms beyond the accepted Western model The book shows how the Emirati law differs from the conventional rule of law The first section of the book deals with the imperial international and cultural background of the Emirati legal system and its influences on some of the elements of the legal system today It maps the state's international legal obligations according to core human rights treaties showing how universal interpretations of rights may differ from Emirati interpretations of rights This logic is further illustrated through an overview of the legal system in federal local and free zones and how the UAE's diversity of legal sources from Islamic and colonial law provides legal adaptability The second section of the book deals mainly with the contemporary system of the rule of law in the UAE but at times makes a detour to the British administration to show how imperial execution of power during the British administration created forerunners visible today Finally the debut of the UAE on the international scene contributed to an interest in human rights investigations having manifestations in UAE law The work will be a valuable resource for researchers and academics working in the areas of Comparative Constitutional Law Legal Anthropology Legal Pluralism and Middle Eastern Studies Migrant Encounters Sara L. Friedman, Pardis Mahdavi, 2015-12 Migrant Encounters examines what happens when migrants across Asia encounter the restrictions and opportunities presented by state actors and policies Contributions draw on original ethnographic work foregrounding migrants' intimate lives to argue that such encounters unpredictably transform migrants and the states between which they move Asia Inside Out Eric Tagliacozzo, Helen F. Siu, Peter C. Perdue, 2015-06-08 Asia Inside Out reveals the dynamic forces that have linked regions of the world's largest continent Connected Places the second of three volumes highlights the flows of goods ideas and people across natural and political boundaries and illustrates the confluence of factors in the historical construction of place and space Diasporic Journeys, Ritual, and Normativity among Asian Migrant Women Pnina Werbner, Mark Johnson, 2019-07-09 The power of embodied ritual performance to constitute agency and transform subjectivity are increasingly the focus of major debates in the anthropology of Christianity and Islam They are particularly relevant to understanding the way transnational women migrants from South and South East Asia Christians Muslims and Buddhists who migrate to Asia Europe and the Middle East to work as carers and maids re-imagine and recreate themselves in moral and ethical terms in the diaspora This timely collection shows how women international migrants stereotypically represented as a nation of servants reclaim sacralised spaces of sociality in their migration destinations and actively transform themselves from mere workers into pilgrims and tourists on cosmopolitan journeys Such women struggle for dignity and respect by re-defining themselves in terms of an ethics of care and sacrifice As co-worshippers they recreate community through fiestas feasts protests and shared conviviality while subverting established normativities of gender marriage and conjugality they renegotiate their moral selfhood through religious conversion and activism For migrants the place of the church or mosque becomes a gateway to new intellectual and experiential horizons as well as a locus for religious worship and a haven of humanitarian assistance in a strange land This book was published as a special issue of the Asia Pacific Journal of Anthropology The Deportation Regime Nicholas De Genova, Nathalie Peutz, 2010-04-15 This important collection examines deportation as an increasingly global mechanism of state control

Anthropologists historians legal scholars and sociologists consider not only the physical expulsion of noncitizens but also the social discipline and labor subordination resulting from deportability the threat of forced removal They explore practices and experiences of deportation in regional and national settings from the U S Mexico border to Israel and from Somalia to Switzerland They also address broader questions including the ontological significance of freedom of movement the historical antecedents of deportation such as banishment and exile and the development entrenchment and consequences of organizing sovereign power and framing individual rights by territory Whether investigating the power that individual and corporate sponsors have over the fate of foreign laborers in Bahrain the implications of Germany s temporary suspension of deportation orders for pregnant and ill migrants or the significance of the detention camp the contributors reveal how deportation reflects and reproduces notions about public health racial purity and class privilege They also provide insight into how deportation and deportability are experienced by individuals including Arabs South Asians and Muslims in the United States One contributor looks at asylum claims in light of an unusual anti deportation campaign mounted by Algerian refugees in Montreal others analyze the European Union as an entity specifically dedicated to governing mobility inside and across its official borders The Deportation Regime addresses urgent issues related to human rights international migration and the extensive security measures implemented by nation states since September 11 2001 Contributors Rutvica Andrijasevic Aashti Bhartia Heide Casta eda Galina Cornelisse Susan Bibler Coutin Nicholas De Genova Andrew M Gardner Josiah Heyman Serhat Karakayali Sunaina Marr Maira Guillermina Gina Nu ez Peter Nyers Nathalie Peutz Enrica Rigo Victor Talavera William Walters Hans Rudolf Wicker Sarah S Willen Stories of Democracy Mary Ann Tétreault, 2000 A sophisticated investigation of the shifting tides of democratic governance in modern Kuwait from 1921 to the present based on interviews both with political activists and members of the political elite Stories of Democracy sheds light on a wide array of issues concerning Middle Eastern politics and democratic institutions in general Mary Ann T tetreault explores how various political factions have sought to advance their own notions of Kuwaiti history and politics through distinctive popular appeals 1 pro democracy forces focusing on Kuwait s relationship to the universal values of the democratic world around them and 2 anti democrats proffering Arab and Muslim religious and cultural traditions She explores how such dramatic events as the suspension of the Kuwaiti constitution in 1986 and the invasion by Iraq in 1990 occasioned major shifts in the course of the democracy movement The current running through virtually all of the nation s political drama is the monolithic Kuwait Petroleum Corporation KPC used by the government as an instrument of economic strength to safeguard sovereignty in the absence of military might Football in the Middle East Abdullah Al-Arian, 2022-09-01 Far and away the most popular sport in the world football has a special place in Middle Eastern societies and for Middle Eastern states With Qatar hosting the 2022 FIFA World Cup this region has been cast into the global footballing spotlight raising issues of geopolitical competition consumer culture and social justice Taking an interdisciplinary approach this book examines the complex questions raised by the phenomenon of football as a significant cultural force in the Middle East as well as its linkages to broader political and socioeconomic processes The establishment of football as a national sport offers significant insight into the region's historical experiences with colonialism and struggles for independence as well as the sport's vital role in local and regional politics today whether at the forefront of popular mobilizations or as an instrument of authoritarian control Football has also served as an arena of contestation in the formation of national identity the struggle for gender equality and the development of the media landscape The twelve contributions to this volume draw on extensive engagement with the existing body of literature and introduce original research questions that promise to open new directions for the study of football in the Middle East

Narratives of Dislocation in the Arab World Nadeen Dakkak, 2023-03-08 This monograph explores and investigates narratives of physical psychological and emotional dislocation that take place within the Arab world approaching them as manifestations of the Arabic word ghurba or estrangement as a feeling and state of being Distancing itself from the centrality of the West in postcolonial and Arabic literary studies the book explores experiences of migration displacement and cosmopolitanism that do not directly ensue from the encounter with Europe or the European other Covering texts from the Levant Egypt the Arabian Peninsula and beyond from the 19th 20th and 21st centuries the book grounds narratives of dislocation in the political social and cultural structures that affect the everyday lived experiences of individuals and communities An analysis of Arabic Turkish and English texts encompassing fiction memoirs and translations highlights less visible narratives of ghurba specifically amongst ethnic minorities and religious communities Ultimately the chapters contribute to a picture of the Arab world as a place of ghurba where mobile and immobile subjects foreigners and local inhabitants alike encounter alienation Bringing together a diverse range of academic perspectives the book will be of interest to students and scholars in postcolonial and comparative literary studies history and Arabic and Middle East studies

Everyday Life in the Spectacular City

Rana AlMutawa,2024-01-09 Everyday Life in the Spectacular City is a groundbreaking urban ethnography that reveals how middle class citizens and longtime residents of Dubai interact with the city s so called superficial spaces to create meaningful social lives Rana AlMutawa shows that inhabitants adapt themselves to top down development projects from big malls to megaprojects These structures serve residents evolving social needs transforming Dubai s spectacular spaces into personally important cultural sites These practices are significant because they expand our understanding of agency as not only subversive but also adaptive Through extensive fieldwork AlMutawa herself an Emirati native to Dubai finds a more nuanced story of belonging This story does not seek to uncover the real city that lies beneath the veneer of the spectacle but rather to demonstrate that social meanings and forms of belonging take place within the spectacle itself By offering an alternative to the discourse of authenticity and elucidating the dynamics of ambivalent belonging AlMutawa belies stereotypes that portray Dubai s developments as alienating and inherently disempowering Everyday Life in the Spectacular City speaks beyond the Middle East to a globalized phenomenon for Dubai s spectacles are unexceptional in today s changing world

Making Space for the Gulf Arang Keshavarzian,2024-04-16 The Persian Gulf has long been a contested space an object of imperial ambitions national antagonisms and migratory dreams The roots of these contestations lie in the different ways the Gulf has been defined as a region both by those who live there and those beyond its shore Making Space for the Gulf reveals how capitalism empire building geopolitics and urbanism have each shaped understandings of the region over the last two centuries Here the Gulf comes into view as a created space encompassing dynamic social relations and competing interests Arang Keshavarzian writes a new history of the region that places Iran Iraq and the Arabian Peninsula together within global processes He connects moments more often treated as ruptures the discovery of oil the Iranian Revolution the rise and decline of British empire the emergence of American power and crafts a narrative populated by a diverse range of people migrants and ruling families pearl divers and star architects striking taxi drivers and dethroned rulers protectors of British India and stewards of globalized American universities Tacking across geographic scales Keshavarzian reveals how the Gulf has been globalized through transnational relations regionalized as a geopolitical category and cleaved along national divisions and social inequalities When understood as a process not an object the Persian Gulf reveals much about how regions and the world have been made in modern times Making Space for the Gulf offers a fresh understanding of this globally consequential place

Marx in the Field Alessandra Mezzadri, 2021-02-15 Marx in the Field is a unique edited collection illustrating the relevance of the Marxian method to study contemporary capitalism and the global development process Essays in the collection bring Marx to the field in three ways They illustrate how Marxian categories can be concretely deployed for field research in the global economy they analyse how these categories may be adapted during fieldwork and they discuss data collection methods supporting Marxian analysis Crucially many of the contributions expand the scope of Marxian analysis by combining its insights with those of other intellectual traditions including radical feminisms critical realism and postcolonial studies The book defines the possibilities and challenges of fieldwork guided by Marxian analysis including those emerging from the COVID 19 pandemic The collection takes a global approach to the study of development and of contemporary capitalism While some essays focus on themes and geographical areas of long term concern for international development like informal or rural poverty and work across South Asia Southern and West Africa or South America others focus instead on actors benefitting from the development process like regional exporters larger farmers and traders or on unequal socio economic outcomes across richer and emerging economies and regions including Gulf countries North America Southern Europe or Post Soviet Central and Eastern Europe Some essays explore global processes cutting across the world economy connecting multiple regions actors and inequalities While some of the contributions focus on classic Marxian tropes in the study of contemporary capitalism like class labour and working conditions agrarian change or global commodity chains and prices others aim at demonstrating the relevance of the Marxian method beyond its traditional boundaries for instance for exploring the interplays between food nutrition and poverty the links between social reproduction gender and homework the features of migration and refugees regimes tribal chieftaincy structures or prison labour or the dynamics structuring global surrogacy Overall through the analysis of an extremely varied set of concrete settings and cases this book illustrates the extraordinary insights we can gain by bringing Marx in the field

Life on the Outside Oivind Fuglerud, 1999-02-20 This study of the Tamil diaspora is one of the first full ethnographic studies of a postcolonial migrant community and a major contribution to the study of migration globalisation identity politics and long distance nationalism from an anthropological perspective Fuglerud s study traces the history of Tamil migration from the arrival of the economic migrants of the 1960s to the asylum seekers of the mid 1980s onwards He draws unnerving parallels between the status of the Tamil community in Sri Lanka as a beleaguered and persecuted minority waging a war of liberation and as a displaced marginalised and excluded refugee community Fuglerud argues that in the process of displacement particular aspects of Tamil culture marriage dowry chastity and ritual acquire a heightened significance He examines the contradictions and inconsistencies which characterise the Tamil refugee communities and the success of revolutionary Tamil nationalism in exile highlighting the transnational nature of identity politics Beyond Exception Ahmed Kanna, Amélie Le Renard, Neha Vora, 2020-08-15 Over the nearly two decades that they have each been conducting fieldwork in the Arabian Peninsula Ahmed Kanna Amélie Le Renard and Neha Vora have regularly encountered exoticizing and exceptionalist discourses about the region and its people political systems and prevalent cultural practices These persistent encounters became the springboard for this book a reflection on conducting fieldwork within a field that is marked by such representations The three focus on deconstructing the exceptionalist representations that circulate about the Arabian Peninsula They analyze what exceptionalism does how it is used by various people and how it helps shape power relations in the societies they study They propose ways that this analysis of exceptionalism provides tools for rethinking the concepts that have become commonplace structuring narratives and analytical frameworks within fieldwork in and on the Arabian Peninsula They ask What would not only Middle East studies but studies of postcolonial societies and global capitalism in other parts of the world look like if the Arabian Peninsula was central rather than peripheral or exceptional to ongoing sociohistorical processes and representational practices The authors explore how the exceptionalizing discourses that permeate Arabian Peninsula studies spring from colonialist discourses still operative in anthropology and sociology more generally and suggest that de exceptionalizing the region within their disciplines can offer opportunities for decolonized knowledge production The Immigrant Other Rich Furman, Greg Lamphear, Douglas Epps, 2016-03-01 The immigrants profiled in The Immigrant Other shed light on a system designed to dehumanize and disenfranchise them and they describe the difficulty of finding shelter in an increasingly globalized and unsympathetic world They include Muslims facing discrimination from both the War on Terror and the War on Immigration Latino day laborers Filipino immigrants supporting themselves and their families back home and Brazilian parents terrified of being separated from their naturalized children Immigrants living in Spain Australia Greece and Qatar are also represented showcasing the similarities and differences in the treatment of immigrants worldwide Each chapter in this anthology pairs a description of specific state national and transnational immigration laws and regulations with the testimony of individuals struggling to find legitimacy and sanctuary among them
