What Makes an Elite Pitcher? Warren N. Wilbert, 2010-07-27 Elite baseball pitchers are elite for a reason They seem to have it all a variety of pitches that no one can lay a bat to cool heads and confidence in their stuff when they get in a jam and the kind of dexterity that makes difficult plays seem easy Is elite status revealed through statistics Though the author of this book considers statistics of both the traditional and sabermetric sort he argues that the greats are proved not by broad statistical comparison with all other pitchers but by their record against one another In a thoughtful discussion of the evidence of head to head matchups he finds the nine pitchers who make up the true elite Cy Young Christy Mathewson Walter Johnson Grover Alexander Lefty Grove Warren Spahn Tom Seaver Roger Clemens and Greg Maddux For each pitcher the book provides biographical information career highlights and a list of the feats that put him in the record books

Michael Phelps Billie Jean King to Tony Hawk American athletes have been a source of pride and accomplishment throughout the nation s history While there have been plenty of athlete biographies sports profiles and behind the scenes looks at various professional sports no book has attempted to rank the greatest American athletes of all time Until now In The100 Greatest American Athletes Martin Gitlin ranks the best of the best using a point system to assess each individual s achievements versatility and athleticism as well as the physical requirements of the sport or sports in which they participated The final tally of these points provides the ranking for each athlete in the book which is sure to spark lively conversation. Some of the most iconic names in sports history can be found here including Muhammad Ali, Jim Brown, Larry Byrd, LeBron James, Mickey Mantle, Joe Montana, Jesse Owens, Mark Spitz, Tiger Woods, and Babe Didrikson Zaharias. Sports fans will undoubtedly enjoy debating the ranking of these remarkable individuals, making The 100 Greatest American Athletes a must read.

High Heat by Lmft Dolan-Del Vecchio, 2010-10. What is it about a quality fastball that brings us to the edge of our seats? How is it humanly possible to throw more than 100 mph? And the big question: Who is the fastest pitcher ever? Drawing on interviews with current and former players, managers, scouts, experts, and historians, Tim Wendel delivers the answers to some of the most intriguing questions about the fastball, providing insight into one of baseball's most exhilarating yet mystifying draws. In High Heat, he takes us on a quest to separate verifiable fact from baseball lore, traveling from ballparks across the country to the Baseball Hall of Fame, piecing together the fascinating history of the fastball from its early development to the present form while exploring its remarkable impact on the game and the pitchers who have been blessed or cursed with its gift. From legends such as Nolan Ryan, Walter Johnson, Steve Dalkowski, and Satchel Paige to present-day standard bearers like Tim Lincecum, Billy Wagner, and Randy Johnson, Wendel examines the factors that make throwing heat an elusive ability that few have and even fewer can harness. Along the way, he investigates the effectiveness of early speed testing techniques, including Bob Feller's infamous motorcycle test, explains why today's radar gun readings still leave plenty of room for debate, and even visits an aerodynamic testing lab outside of Birmingham, Alabama, in order to understand the mechanics that make throwing heat possible in the first place. At its heart, High Heat is a reflection on our infatuation with the fastball, the expectation it carries, the raw ability it puts on display, and most of all, the feats and trials of those who have attempted to master it. As Wendel puts it, "The tale of high heat can lead in several different directions at once, and the real story has more to do with triumph and tragedy than with the simple act of throwing a baseball."
