Later Byzantine Painting Robert S. Nelson, 2024-10-28 Written over nearly three decades the fifteen essays involve the three aspects of the title art agency and appreciation The first refers to the general subject matter of the book Byzantine art chiefly painting of the twelfth through the fourteenth centuries the second to its often human like agency and the last to its historical reception Responding to different issues and perspectives that have animated art history and Byzantine studies in recent decades the essays have wide theoretical range from art historical formalism iconography archaeology and its manuscript equivalent codicology to statistics patronage narratology and the histories of science and collecting The series begins with art works themselves and with the imagery and iconography of church decoration and manuscript illumination shifts to the ways that objects act in the world and affect their beholders and concludes with more general appreciations of Byzantine art in case studies from the thirteenth century to the present

Approaches to Byzantine Architecture and its Decoration Mark J. Johnson, Amy Papalexandrou, 2016-12-05 The fourteen essays in this collection demonstrate a wide variety of approaches to the study of Byzantine architecture and its decoration a reflection of both newer trends and traditional scholarship in the field The variety is also a reflection of Professor Curcic's wide interests which he shares with his students These include the analysis of recent archaeological discoveries recovery of lost monuments through archival research and onsite examination of material remains reconsidering traditional typological approaches often ignored in current scholarship fresh interpretations of architectural features and designs contextualization of monuments within the landscape tracing historiographic trends and mining neglected written sources for motives of patronage The papers also range broadly in terms of chronology and geography from the Early Christian through the post Byzantine period and from Italy to Armenia Three papers examine Early Christian monuments and of these two expand the inquiry into their architectural afterlives Others discuss later monuments in Byzantine territory and monuments in territories related to Byzantium such as Serbia Armenia and Norman Italy No Orthodox church being complete without interior decoration two papers discuss issues connected to frescoes in late medieval Balkan churches Finally one study investigates the continued influence of Byzantine palace architecture long after the fall of Constantinople

Relations between Byzantium and its neighbours are the focus of this volume. Pottery, Pavements, and Paradise Annewies van den Hoek, John Joseph Herrmann, 2013-09-26. These essays on late antiquity traverse a territory in which Christian and pagan imagery and practices compete, coexist and intermingle. The iconography of the most significant late antique ceramic, African Red Slip Ware, is an important and relatively unexploited vehicle for documenting the diversity and interpenetration of late antique cultures. Literary texts and art in other media, particularly mosaics, provide imagery that complement and enhance the messages of the ceramics. Popular entertainments, pagan cults, mythic heroes, beasts, monsters and biblical visions are themes dealt with on the patrician and popular levels. With interpretive supplements from these diverse realms, it is possible to achieve greater insight into the life attitudes and thought of Late Antiquity.

Visualizing Christ's Miracles in Late Byzantium Maria Alessia Rossi, 2024-06-27. Investigates the political and spiritual agenda behind monumental paintings of Christ's miracles in late Byzantine churches.

Art and Identity in Thirteenth-Century Byzantium Antony Eastmond, 2017-03-02. The church of Hagia Sophia in Trebizond, built by the emperor Manuel I Komnenos in 1238-63 in the aftermath of the fall of Constantinople to the Fourth Crusade, is the finest surviving Byzantine imperial monument of its period. Art and Identity in Thirteenth-Century Byzantium is the first investigation of the church in more than thirty years and is extensively illustrated in colour and black and white with many images that have never previously been published. Antony Eastmond examines the architectural, sculptural and painted decorations of the church, placing them in the context of contemporary developments elsewhere in the Byzantine world, in Seljuq Anatolia and among the Caucasian neighbours of Trebizond. Knowledge of this area has been transformed in the last twenty years following the collapse of the Soviet Union. The new evidence that has emerged enables a radically different interpretation of the church to be reached and raises questions of cultural interchange on the borders of the Christian and Muslim worlds of eastern Anatolia, the Caucasus and Persia. This study uses the church and its decoration to examine questions of Byzantine identity and imperial ideology in the thirteenth century. This is central to any understanding of the period as the fall of Constantinople in 1204 divided the Byzantine empire and forced the successor states in Nicaea, Epiros and Trebizond to redefine their concepts of empire in exile. Art is here exploited as significant historical evidence for the nature of imperial power in a contested empire. It is suggested that imperial identity was determined as much by craftsmen and expectations of imperial power as by the emperor's decree and that this was a credible alternative Byzantine identity to that developed in the empire of Nicaea.

The Eloquence of Art Andrea Olsen Lam, Rossitza Schroeder, 2020-04-14. For those within the fields of art history and Byzantine studies, Professor Henry Maguire needs no introduction. His publications transformed the way art historians approach medieval art through his insightful integration of rhetoric, poetry and non canonical objects into the study of Byzantine art His ground breaking studies of Byzantine art that consider the natural world magic and imperial imagery among other themes have redefined the ways medieval art is interpreted From notable monuments to small scale and privately used objects Maguire s work has guided a generation of scholars to new conclusions about the place of art and its function in Byzantium In this volume 23 of Henry Maguire s colleagues and friends have contributed papers in his honour resulting in studies that reflect the broad range of his scholarly interests A Companion to Ancient Macedonia Joseph Roisman,Ian Worthington,2011-07-07 The most comprehensive and up to date work available on ancient Macedonian history and material culture A Companion to Ancient Macedonia is an invaluable reference for students and scholars alike Features new specially commissioned essays by leading and up and coming scholars in the field Examines the political military social economic and cultural history of ancient Macedonia from the Archaic period to the end of Roman period and beyond Discusses the importance of art archaeology and architecture All ancient sources are translated in English Each chapter includes bibliographical essays for further reading Beauty and the Male Body in Byzantium M. Hatzaki,2009-10-29 A neglected aspect of Byzantium physical beauty appears as a quality with an unmistakable dark side relating ambiguously to notions of power goodness evil masculinity effeminacy life and death Examined as an attribute of the human and in particular of the male body this study of beauty refines our understanding of the Byzantine world The Later Middle Ages Isabella Lazzarini,2021-04-29 Of all the sub periods in which European medieval history has been divided over time the later middle ages is possibly the one on which the burden of past and current grand narratives weighs the most Its chronological and geopolitical boundaries are shaped by a heavy narrative of decline or transition and consequently this period is often interpreted through the lenses of previous or following developments becoming in turn the tail end of the feudal communal imperial versus papal era or the announcement of modernity The Later Middle Ages addresses the urgent need to revise and rewrite the story of this period forging new critical and technical vocabularies not derived from the study of other periods By adopting a conscious approach towards temporal and spatial variety and by breaking the traditional and unitary narrative of decline and transition into one of many changes and continuities it charts the principal developments of late medieval Europe while opening up to different political cultures and societies throwing new light on older concepts and revealing analogies and differences with other geopolitical contexts Including maps illustrations a detailed chronology and a rich range of reading suggestions The Later Middle Ages aims at providing a first introduction to a very complex dynamic and fascinating period for Europe and beyond Contested Antiquity Esther Solomon,2021-02-02 While the archaeological legacies of Greece and Cyprus are often considered to represent some of the highest values of Western civilization democracy progress aesthetic harmony and rationalism this much adored and heavily touristed heritage can quickly become the stage for clashes over identity and memory In Contested Antiquity Esther Solomon curates explorations of how those who safeguard cultural heritage are confronted with the best ways to represent this heritage responsibly How should visitors be introduced to an ancient Byzantine fortification that still holds the grim reminders of the cruel prison it was used as until the 1980s How can foreign archaeological institutes engage with another nation s heritage in a meaningful way What role do locals have in determining what is sacred and can this sense of the sacred extend beyond buildings to the surrounding land Together the essays featured in Contested Antiquity offer fresh insights into the ways ancient heritage is negotiated for modern times

Architecture of the Sacred Bonna D. Wescoat, Robert G. Ousterhout, 2012-02-27 This book investigates the role of architecture in the construction of sacred experience in ancient Greek Roman Jewish Christian and Byzantine cultures

Urban and Religious Spaces in Late Antiquity and Early Byzantium Jean-Michel Spieser, 2024-12-11 Professor Spieser deals here with a number of the transformations that took place in the world of Late Antiquity and early Christianity focusing upon notions of space The first set of articles opening with a newly written introductory essay addresses the development of urban landscapes from the Roman period up to the iconoclast era in Byzantium In particular he looks at the consequences of christianisation and argues that the changing fortunes of the town cannot be attributed to a few causes such as war or natural disaster but resulted from a complex interplay between the economy and ideology religion and politics A second group concerned with the relationship of late antique man with his surroundings and therefore his perception of space sets out to explain how the decoration of churches on apses for example or on doors reflects new senses of how religious spaces should be organised Six of these studies have been translated into English for this volume and it ends with an important section of additional notes and comment

Miracles Revisited Stefan Alkier, Annette Weissenrieder, 2013-08-29 Since David Hume the interpretation of miracle stories has been dominated in the West by the binary distinction of fact vs fiction The form critical method added another restriction to the interpretation of miracles by neglecting the context of its macrotexts Last but not least the hermeneutics of demythologizing was interested in the self understanding of individuals and not in political perspectives The book revisits miracle stories with regard to these dimensions 1 It demands to connect the interpretation of Miracle Stories to concepts of reality 2 It criticizes the restrictions of the form critical method 3 It emphasizes the political implications of Miracle Stories and their interpretations Even the latest research accepts this modern opposition of fact and fiction as self evident This book will examine critically these concepts of reality with interpretations of miracles The book will address how concepts of reality always complex came to expression in stories of miraculous healings and their reception in medicine art literature theology and philosophy from classic antiquity to the Middle Ages Only through such bygone concepts contemporary interpretations of ancient healings can gain plausibility

Early Christianity in Macedonia Julien M. Ogereau, 2023-10-09 In this volume Julien M Ogereau investigates the origins and development of Christianity in the Roman province of Macedonia in the first six centuries CE Drawing from the oldest literary sources Ogereau reconstructs the earliest history of the first Christian communities in the region and explores the legacy of the apostle Paul in the cities of Philippi Thessalonica and Beroea

Turning to the epigraphic and archaeological evidence Ogereau then examines Christianity's dissemination throughout the province and its impact on Macedonian society in late antiquity especially on its epigraphic habits and material culture
