Wanderlust A Love Affair With Five Continents:

Wanderlust Elisabeth Eaves, 2011-05-24 Spanning 15 years of travel beginning when she is a sophomore in college Wanderlust documents Elisabeth Eaves's insatiable hunger for the rush of the unfamiliar and the experience of encountering new people and cultures Young and independent she crisscrosses five continents and chases the exotic both in culture and in romance In the jungles of Papua New Guinea she loses herself literally to an Australian tour guide in Cairo she reconnects with her high school sweetheart only to discover the beginning of a pattern that will characterize her life over the long term while long distance relationships work well for her traditional relationships do not Wanderlust however is more than a chronological conquest of men and countries at its core it's a journey of self discovery In the course of her travels Eaves finds herself and the sense of home she's been lacking since childhood and she sheds light on a growing culture of young women who have the freedom and inclination to define their own increasingly global lifestyles unfettered by traditional roles and conventions of past generations of women

Wanderlust Elisabeth Eaves, 2011 This book documents the impulses that drive Elisabeth Eaves insatiable hunger for the rush of the unfamiliar She is both restless vagabond and astute observer as she crisscrosses five continents chasing the exotic in both culture and romance She loses herself in the jungles of Papua New Guinea rekindles old love and new passion in Cairo and finds an itinerant brotherhood of raucous men in the land Down Under Like the random possessions she leaves in her wake from Australia to Yemen she also leaves behind a string of lovers But this is about more than just sensual conquest it is also a journey of self discovery in which her pursuit ultimately guides her home back cover

Fast Times in Palestine Pamela Olson, 2013-03-12 For much of her life like many Westerners most of what Pamela Olson knew of the Middle East was informed by headlines and stereotypes But when she traveled to Palestine in 2003 she found herself thrown with dizzying speed into the realities of Palestinian life Fast Times in Palestine is Olson's powerful deeply moving account of life in Palestine both the daily events that are universal to us all house parties concerts barbecues and weddings as well as the violence trauma and political tensions that are particular to the country From idyllic olive groves to Palestinian beer gardens from Passover in Tel Aviv to Ramadan in a Hamas village readers will find Olson s narrative both suspenseful and discerning Her irresistible story offers a multi faceted understanding of the Palestinian perspective on the Israel Palestine conflict filling a gap in the West s understanding of the difficult relationship between the two nations At turns funny shocking and galvanizing Fast Times in Palestine is a gripping narrative that challenges our ways of thinking not only about the Middle East but about human nature cultural identity and our place in the world

Breathless Nancy Miller,2013-11-05 In the early 1960s most middle class American women in their twenties had their lives laid out for them marriage children and life in the suburbs Most but not all Breathless is the story of a girl who represents those who rebelled against conventional expectations Paris was a magnet for those eager to resist domesticity and like many young women of the decade Nancy K Miller was enamored of everything French from perfume and Herm s scarves to the writing of Simone de Beauvoir and the New Wave films of Jeanne Moreau After graduating from Barnard College in 1961 Miller set out for a year in Paris with a plan to take classes at the Sorbonne and live out a great romantic life inspired by the movies After a string of sexual misadventures she gave up her short lived freedom and married an American expatriate who promised her a lifetime of three star meals and five star hotels But her husband wasn t who he said he was and she eventually had to leave Paris and her dreams behind This stunning memoir chronicles a young woman s coming of age tale and offers a glimpse into the intimate lives of girls before feminism

Goodbye to All That (Revised Edition) Sari Botton,2021-04-06 From Roxane Gay to Leslie Jamison thirty brilliant writers share their timeless stories about the everlasting magic and occasional misery of living in the Big Apple in a new edition of the classic anthology In the revised edition of this classic collection thirty writers share their own stories of loving and leaving New York capturing the mesmerizing allure the city has always had for writers poets and wandering spirits Their essays often begin as love stories do with the passion of something newly discovered the crush of subway crowds the streets filled with manic energy and the sudden unblinking certainty that this is the only place on Earth where one can become exactly who she is meant to be They also share the grief that comes like a gut punch when the grand metropolis loses its magic and the pressures of New York's frenetic life wear thin for even the most dedicated dwellers As friends move away rents soar and love still remains just out of reach each writer's goodbye is singular and universal just like New York itself The Other Side of Paradise Julia Cooke, 2014-04-01 Change looms in Havana Cuba's capital a city electric with uncertainty yet cloaked in cliché 90 miles from U.S. shores and off limits to most Americans Journalist Julia Cooke who lived there at intervals over a period of five years discovered a dynamic scene baby-faced anarchists with Mohawks gelled with laundry soap whiskey drinking children of the elite Santer trainees pregnant prostitutes university graduates planning to leave for the first country that will give them a visa This last generation of Cubans raised under Fidel Castro animate life in a waning era of political stagnation as the rest of the world beckons waiting out storms at rummy hurricane parties and attending raucous drag cabarets planning ascendant music careers and black market business ventures trying to reconcile the undefined future with the urgent today Eye opening and politically prescient The Other Side of Paradise offers a deep new understanding of a place that has so confounded and intrigued us A Year Straight Elena Azzoni, 2011-10-25 After having spent nearly her entire adult life dating women and liking it Elena Azzoni felt pretty secure in her sexual orientation she'd even just been crowned Miss Lez 2007 Then one day in yoga class a male teacher moved in close to adjust her pose and she suddenly found herself intensely bafflingly attracted to him Eventually she initiated a flirtation with him after that there was no going back A Year Straight is a chronicle of the hilariously disastrous year following Azzoni's abrupt dive into the world of dating men old enough to drink and keep her own hours but as clueless as an adolescent when it comes to deciphering men's words and actions Azzoni is uniquely positioned to find herself in some ridiculously absurd scenarios Often cringe worthy and occasionally unbelievable A Year Straight is a wildly entertaining look at one woman's experiences dating a new sex the opposite sex Beyond Good Intentions Tori Hogan, 2012-09-25 Young and idealistic Tori Hogan travels to Kenya as an intern for Save the Children intent upon doing her part to improve the lives of refugees But the cynicism of a young African boy changes Tori's life and sets her on a course to reconsider everything she thought she knew about helping those in need Years later Tori returns to Africa and embarks on a journey through Kenya Uganda and Rwanda searching for the truth about what does and does not work in international aid While there are glimmers of hope along the way she discovers an aid industry mired in waste ineffective solutions imposed by well intentioned outsiders and humanitarian efforts that do more harm than good Beyond Good Intentions is both a moving story of one woman's personal journey and an urgent call to arms to change the way we offer aid overseas Tori's candid reflections on international aid shine a light on our ability to improve the lives of others often in ways we would never expect Kissing Outside the Lines Diane Farr, 2011-05-17 Diane Farr Numb3rs star Loveline veteran and FunnyorDie.com contributor always took for granted that she could love anybody she chose But when she a white woman fell in love with a Korean American man she quickly learned a tough lesson When it comes to navigating the landscape of interracial love in America today you're going to step on some landmines. At turns introspective and outrageous, Kissing Outside the Lines is Farr's unapologetic, often hilarious look at the complexities of interracial, ethnic, religious, what have you, love told through the lens of her own experience of dating, marrying, and creating a family with someone from a race and culture different from her own. Along the way, she exposes the many ways in which prejudice rears its ugly head, whether subtly or overtly, when you dare to love outside the lines, and she shares the stories of other multiracial couples from different corners of the U.S. who have made a similar leap. Kissing Outside the Lines tackles love, family, and prejudice head-on. With sharp wit and deft humor, Farr confronts the fears and reservations that come with loving outside of one's race, and she emerges with a powerful message: Love is love, and family is family, no matter what it looks like from the outside. Kissing Outside the Lines also includes an 8-page black and white photo signature. We Hope You Like This Song Bree Housley, 2012-10-30 From fourth grade onward, shy, nervous Bree Housley and fearless, outgoing Shelly were an inseparable, albeit unlikely, pair. Their friendship survived everything from the awkward years of junior high to the transformative upheavals of early adulthood until, at the young age of 25, Shelly lost her life to complications caused by preeclampsia. We Hope You Like This Song is a tribute to the ineffable, incomparable bond that we call friendship and a celebration of living life to the fullest. Housley recounts how she and her sister found a way to keep Shelly's memory alive by spending a year doing crazy things that Shelly would have done, like giving Valentines to strangers, singing at a karaoke bar, and letting her boyfriend pick out her outfits for a week. In the process, she paints a vivid, often hilarious portrait of her fun-loving, social butterfly best friend and the many adventures they had growing up together in 80s and 90s small-town America. Sweet, poignant, and yet somehow laugh-out-loud funny, We Hope You Like This Song is a touching story of love, loss, and the honoring of a friendship after it's gone. This Is the Place Margot Kahn, 2017-11-14 A thought-provoking collection of personal essays about home. What makes a home? What do equality, safety, and politics have to do with it? And why is it so important to us to feel like we belong? In this collection, 30 women writers explore the theme in personal essays about neighbors, marriage, kids, sentimental objects, homelessness, domestic violence, solitude, immigration, gentrification, geography, and more. Contributors including Amanda Petrusich, Naomi Jackson, Jane Wong, and Jennifer Finney Boylan lend a diverse range of voices to this subject that remains at the core of our national conversations. Engaging, insightful, and full of hope, This Is the Place will make you laugh, cry, and think hard about home wherever you may find it. This collection, encompassing a spectrum of races, ethnicities, religions, sexualities, political beliefs, and classes, could not be timelier. Open this book, hear its chorus of voices, and remember that we are a nation of individuals bound to each other by our humanity. The New York Times Book Review an honest portrait of the U.S. pieced together like an imperfect American quilt. We need more books like this. BUST Undecided Barbara Bailey Kelley, Barbara Kelley, Shannon Kelley, 2011 Large Print Lessons from the Monk I Married Katherine Jenkins, 2012-04-03 Lessons from the Monk I Married offers up ten of the most powerful lessons about life love and spirituality that Katherine Jenkins has gathered during her marriage to former Buddhist monk Seong Yoon Lee A seeker in the truest sense of the word Jenkins went to Korea on a whim hoping to find the answers to her deepest most pressing questions about how to find peace and her purpose in life During her first months there she sought out a remote temple where she unknowingly crossed paths with an unassuming Buddhist monk Months later they met again by chance and fell in love Though their courtship was long mostly secretive and fraught with logistical and spiritual considerations Jenkins and Lee were ultimately married in Korea in 2003 Through their relationship Jenkins discovered the most important lesson of all No one holds the keys to peace and happiness you have walk your own path and find your own wisdom through your own experiences More than the improbable story of a girl from Seattle who found peace of mind and love with a Buddhist monk Lessons from the Monk I Married is an approachable guide to the most elemental spiritual questions of our day The Magazine: The Complete Archives Glenn Fleishman,2015-08-12 This ebook collects the nearly 300 stories that first appeared in The Magazine an independent biweekly periodical for narrative non fiction It covers researchers crying wolf learning to emulate animal sounds DIY medical gear making prosthetics and other tools available more cheaply and to the developing world a fever in Japan that leads to a new friendship saving seeds to save the past the plan to build a giant Lava Lamp in eastern Oregon Portland s unicycle riding Darth Vader mask wearing flaming bagpipe player a hidden library at MIT that contains one of the most extensive troves of science fiction and fantasy novels and magazines in the world and far far more The Outlier Elisabeth Eaves,2024-08-06 An audaciously twisty psychological thriller in which finding the killer is only one of two mysteries its anti heroine Cate Winter tries to unravel The other when pushed to extremes what is she herself capable of Cate Winter at 34 is a wildly successful neuroscientist and entrepreneur who has invented a cure for Alzheimer s that will improve the lives of millions On the verge of selling her biotech company for an obscene sum she is also about to become very rich But Cate has a secret that keeps her deeply uneasy about everything she is and does she grew up at the Cleckley Institute a treatment facility for the rehabilitation of psychopathic children And as far as she knows she is the institute s only success all of her peers have become thwarted maladjusted or even criminal adults Then Cate discovers the existence of another ex patient and outlier who might prove that her success isn t a fluke He has not only stayed out of jail but he s made a mark in business and science Though his identity is confidential she breaks the rules and drops everything to track him down And when she finds him living under an assumed name in Baja California she is immediately obsessed Like her he is driven and brilliant an innovator willing to do what it takes to perfect a new energy technology that will stop global warming Here at last is her mirror her ultimate collaborator the possible answer to the enigma of her nature But in the wake of a mysterious death Cate can t avoid suspecting him If he is involved do his ends justify his means Ruthless herself she s about to find out whether there are any moral lines she won t cross Found Jennifer Lauck,2011-04 Found is Jennifer Lauck s sequel to her New York Times bestseller Blackbird A Childhood Lost and Found More than one woman s search for her biological parents Found is a story of loss adjustment and survival Lauck s investigation into her ow Where I belong is who I am. The Search for Identity in Elisabeth Eaves' "Wanderlust: A Love Affair with Five Continents" Marie-Kristin Hofmann,2017-08-22 Seminar paper from the year 2014 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 0 University of Mannheim Lehrstuhl f r Anglistische Literatur und Kulturwissenschaft language English abstract Travel writing helps travel writers to redefine their identity and to revise their concept of home as well as to determine its relative position in the world when using it as a frame of reference In Wanderlust A Love Affaire with Five Continents Elisabeth Eaves both author and protagonist renegotiates these two concepts home and identity in her inner journey of self exploration Making use of a qualitative and explorative approach this paper investigates the question of how the search for identity and belonging is fashioned in the book First the theoretical part of the paper relates the concepts of home and identity to infer how home can function as a source of identity These theoretical frameworks are then applied in the subsequent section to assess the manner and success of Elisabeth s strategies of identity construction providing an answer to the question whether her mobile lifestyle as a modern nomad leads to homelessness and lack of identity Finally the analysis section breaks down the narrative techniques Elisabeth uses to secure her public identity as travel writer and relates them to the construction of her personal identity
