up as an agnostic and embraced Islam at an early age after writing a book commissioned by T S Eliot on Eastern religions and their influence upon Western thinkers As a Muslim he has retained his adherence to the perennial philosophy which he maintains underlies the teachings of all the great religions The aim of this book is to explore what it means to be a Muslim a member of a community which embraces a quarter of the world s population and to describe the forces which have shaped the hearts and the minds of Islamic people After considering the historic confrontation between Islam and Christendom and analysing the difference between the three monotheistic faiths Judaism Christianity and Islam the author describes the two poles of Muslim belief in terms of Truth and Mercy the unitarian truth which is the basis of the Muslim s faith and the mercy inherent in this truth In the second part of the book he explains the significance of the Qur an and tells the dramatic story of Muhammad s life and of the early Caliphate Lastly the author considers the Muslim view of man s destiny the social structure of Islam the role of art and mysticism and the inner meaning of Islamic teaching concerning the hereafter Throughout this book the author is concerned not with the religion of Islam in isolation but with the very nature of religious faith its spiritual and intellectual foundations and the light it casts upon the mysteries and paradoxes of the human condition
