Long Journey Back to Eden Sally Dickerson,2021-11-19 Sally Dickerson grew up in a loving nurturing family who enjoyed the prosperity of 1950s She was provided everything she needed to become a successful adult yet she suffered silently believing she was ugly unlovable and worthless She remembered learning the songs of Jesus s unconditional love but believed that love was a gift given to everyone else because she didn t deserve it Her self loathing and lack of self esteem were compounded throughout her youth as she tried to cope by compulsively overeating abusing alcohol and engaging in a long series of emotionally abusive relationships with men In Long Journey Back to Eden she shares her story about how God reached out to her in the depths of depression began to heal her and led her from a place of constant fear and anxiety to a place of contentment and acceptance of herself as someone who can freely and joyfully claim I am loved by God credit photo cover photo by Ann Cashner dovesnestphotos icloud com

Walking with God Charlie Yang,2022-10-27 The desert like an uninvited guest often arrives without notice It visits us apropos of nothing It comes in all shapes and sizes and shakes our souls to the deep In the desert we fear panic cry grumble and groan In the desert we quest and quest ponder and pray We become thinkers wrestling with God s silence and inaction A new orientation a new direction for life begins with the right questions It is triggered by questioning who we are what we are called for different forms of the question Where are you now In the journey after Mount Horeb we are changed walking with a new heart and a new vision like Jacob He was crippled but blessed through his wrestle with God in the Jabbok River When Elijah left Mount Horeb for the place of life where he had been walking nothing surrounding him had changed but everything was changed because the call was renewed and he himself was changed He with a new orientation of life started walking on the same old road From the book Walking with God
