Meechan,2022-07-28 Walter is a rat of the Norway Clan with an ancient lineage going back millions of years and across continents When his clan settled in Halifax Nova Scotia hundreds of years ago they quickly made it their home with their burrows and lifestyle changing evolving right along with the city itself With his own family of ten pups and his mate Poppy Walter lives beneath the historic Old Town Clock and ventures out each night to provide them with whatever food he can scrounge up in the areas around the Harbourfront and the Public Gardens Providing for his family is his number one priority which means taking care of his own safety as well as theirs After all if something were to happen to him who would take care of his pups and his mate Perhaps that s why he s let himself get so comfortable in the familiar area surrounding the Old Town Clock playing it safe rather than venturing any further looking for adventure or greener pastures But when his cousin Ralph shows up boasting of an endless bounty of food and opportunity to be found a little further afield for those brave enough to go and get it Walter starts to question his choices and what is truly best for his family In spite of the inherent dangers including the rumoured re emergence of the Eurasian Clan a long time violent nemesis of the Norway Clan Walter gives in to the urge to explore with his cousin seeking adventure and new possibilities for himself and his family But when his mate wants to get in on the fun the danger starts to feel very real indeed A highly entertaining adventurous story about inclusion
