WRITING WITHIN
CRIMINAL JUSTICE
STUDENT
WORKBOOK
SECOND EDITION

CAROLINE W. FERREE AND HEATHER L. PFEIFER

Written reports and other types of writings by criminal justice professionals can greatly affect people's lives. Thus, it is crucial for the writer to effectively convey his or her message. Write & Wrong: Writing Within Criminal Justice, Student Workbook is a comprehensive guide that includes everything a student needs to know to write an academic-style paper, by teaching them how to choose a topic, how to research, how to cite in proper APA style, and how to complete a final draft of a paper. The Student Workbook exercises and reference guides to further help improve the students' writing skills. The book is also an essential resource for entering the job market, by discussing how to write a professional resume and cover letter, how to write presentations, and how to write a variety of professional reports.

NEW AND KEY FEATURES

- NEW chapter, *Preparing Professional Reports and Presentations, offers students valuable insight and information on how to write professional reports and prepare PowerPoint presentations.
- NEW material is included to help students prepare for the job market, including how to write a cover letter, how to write a professional email, and how to create a professional social media profile.
- NEW – Guidance is offered to help the reader navigate through various updates made to criminal justice research databases implemented since the first edition.
- NEW – Includes access to the editable eBook version. Students can write in their responses to the assignments in the forms provided and print or email their work directly to the instructor.

- Teaches students how to navigate discipline-specific databases to find academic sources, and how to determine whether sources are academic and in-print.
- Teaches students how to avoid committing plagiarism. Includes in-class exercises designed to help students recognize plagiarism and correctly paraphrase information and statistics.
- Covers the fundamental elements of APA citing style and demonstrates how to correctly create a reference list and properly include citations in the text.
- Includes in-class exercises designed to allow students to recognize and correct in-text APA errors and APA reference list errors.

An Instructor's Manual (978-1-284-12627-9, available only as a PDF) is available for adopting institutions and contains lectures corresponding to the chapters of the Student Workbook. Every lecture includes detailed lesson plans, Notes to the Instructor, PowerPoint presentations, in-class exercises with answers, and reference guides. Also contained in this in-depth teaching tool are a sample syllabus, grading rubrics, homework assignments with answers, and a mid-term exam with answers.
