Transforming Children Into Spiritual Champions:

Transforming Children into Spiritual Champions George Barna, 2013-02-18 No one can deny our culture is opposed to Christian values and the influences bombarding our children's moral development are difficult to contend with. But few parents and church leaders realize that a child's moral development is set by the age of nine. It is therefore critical to start developing a child's biblical worldview from the very earliest years of life. The problem is complex: parents who themselves did not receive early spiritual training leave their children's training to the church. Yet the church often focuses on older children. The answer is for churches to come alongside parents to provide them biblical worldview training, parenting information, and counseling that will equip them to help their children become the spiritually mature church of tomorrow. This helpful and hopeful book unpacks just how to develop this kind of dynamic church-parent relationship and includes profiles of churches that are effectively ministering to children and winning the war for their hearts and minds. Transforming child-tested ready-to-use messages, this book provides field-tested advice on avoiding pitfalls and using new ideas for children's sermons.

Children Into Spiritual Champions Nora Osborn, Richard Osborn, 2007 Enduring Connections Janice A Haywood, 2007-06-01 Enduring Connections gives churches and ministers significant guidelines for establishing a quality childhood ministry with preschoolers and grade schoolers. Enduring Connections is especially helpful to ministers and directors of childhood ministry that are called from the laity to staff positions. By focusing on building a childhood ministry that intentionally connects children to God and the community of faith through paths that are driven by relationship rather than programs, Janice Haywood has produced a resource that will help churches of any size design their own unique ministry for children. A TCP Leadership Series title. Captivating Children's Sermons Beth Edington Hewitt, 2005 Packed with 50
