Trauma And Transformation At Ground Zero A Pastoral Theology:

Trauma and Transformation at Ground Zero Storm Swain, 2011-08 From personal interviews with chaplains at the temporary mortuary at Ground Zero and her own experiences as an Episcopal priest psychotherapist and chaplain Storm Swain offers a new model of pastoral care grounded in theology and practice Reflecting on experiences of suffering faced in ministry Swain considers what it means to love in these instances and what is involved in ministering in these contexts Within this model caregivers can move from a place of trauma to a place of transformation which enables wholeness and healing for both caregivers and those for whom they care Publisher description Trinity, Trauma & Transformation Storm Swain, 2009 Religion and Theology: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources, 2020-02-07 Religion is considered by many to be something of the past but it has a lasting hold in society and influences people across many cultures This integration of spirituality causes numerous impacts across various aspects of modern life The variety of religious institutions in modern society necessitates a focus on diversity and inclusiveness in the interactions between organizations of different religions cultures and viewpoints Religion and Theology Breakthroughs in Research and Practice examines the cultural sociological economic and philosophical effects of religion on modern society and human behavior It also explores the impact of gender identity and race within religious based institutions and organizations Highlighting a range of topics such as religious traditionalism spirituality and comparative religion this publication is an ideal reference source for theologians religious officials managers government officials theoreticians practitioners researchers policymakers advanced level students and sociologists Theopolitics and the Era of the Witness Jane Barter, 2025-06-30 Theopolitics and the Era of the Witness focuses on witnessing in the aftermath of political atrocity or genocide It offers a diachronic study of the relationship between theological forms of witnessing within Jewish and Christian traditions and public forms of witnessing in the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book explores the ways in which various witnesses to political atrocity and their mediators tacitly drew on religious themes of salvation to make sense of their suffering It investigates survivor testimony and the use made of it through scholarly interpretations of testimony within the Hebrew Bible New Testament and theological and philosophical traditions within Judaism and Christianity The chapters move from a consideration of the early post Shoah writings of Paul Celan and Primo Levi through to a discussion of the Truth and Reconciliation Commissions of South Africa and Canada The author makes the case for a weak messianism or remnant witnessing as an antidote to overdetermined and politicized uses made of survivor testimonies This book makes a valuable contribution to the work of theopolitics which claims that theology despite its persistent misuse can serve a constructive and critical force within public life albeit in a chastened key Occupational Stress: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources, 2019-11-01 There are many different types and causes of trauma and stress in the workplace that can impact employee behavior and performance Corporations have a social responsibility to assist in the overall wellbeing of their employees by ensuring that their leaders are emotionally intelligent and that their organization is compliant with moral business standards Occupational Stress Breakthroughs in Research and Practice examines the psychological physical and physiological effects of a negative work environment It also explores how to cope with work related stress Highlighting a range of topics such as job satisfaction work overload and work life balance this publication is an ideal reference source for managers professionals researchers academicians and graduate level students in a variety of fields

Resilient Religion, Resilience and Heartbreaking Adversity Chris A.M. Hermans, Kobus Schoeman, 2023-01-05 A resilience theory on religion needs to answer four questions What defines the kind of adversity which is addressed in religion What is characteristic for processes of resilience in religion What defines resilient religion as outcome Which logic of inference epistemology based on our beliefs and experiences about reality binds these three elements together The book starts with mapping the field of resilience theory on religion by addressing all four questions The need for thinking about Christian resilience and the God symbol is addressed and the need to be explicitly contextual with regard to resilience in South Africa Next three types practices of religious acting are related to experiences of resilience namely preaching narrating and discerning In the last chapters the focus is on the way stories help to express feelings of experiences of crises tragedy and trauma But also how stories can help heal the broken heart Prof Chris A M Hermans is extraordinary professor in practical theology and missiology at the University of the Free State South Africa He is emeritus professor in pastoral theology at Radboud University the Netherlands and emeritus professor in empirical study of religion as Radboud University the Netherlands Prof Kobus W J Schoeman is professor of practical theology at the University of the Free State South Africa

Suffering in Worship Armand Léon van Ommen, 2016-11-25 How does the universal experience of suffering relate to the experience of worship Questioning how Anglican liturgy welcomes people who are suffering Suffering in Worship uniquely applies a narrative ritual model for the analysis of both the liturgical text and worship services themselves In this book van Ommen draws on interviews with participants in worship as well as clergy Highlighting several elements in the liturgy which address suffering including the Eucharist songs sermons and prayers of intercession he shows the significance of a warm and safe liturgical community as a necessary context for suffering people to find consolation This book also uses the concept of remembrance to plead for liturgy that attends to the suffering of both God and people As such it will be of interest to scholars of pastoral theology as well as clergy

Religion Index One, 2005 Bearing the Unbearable Deborah van Deusen Hunsinger, 2015-07-08 A Christ centered approach to dealing with trauma on both a personal and a communal level Traumas abound Post traumatic stress disorder emotional and sexual abuse unbearable anxiety and fear and a host of other traumas afflict people everywhere In this book Deborah van Deusen Hunsinger weaves together threads from the fields of psychology and pastoral theology as she explores the impact of trauma on people s lives and offers practical strategies and restorative practices for dealing with it Not only a teacher of pastoral theology but also an experienced pastoral counselor herself Hunsinger draws on the resources of depth psychology including object relations theory trauma theory family systems theory nonviolent communication and restorative circles She then places her findings in a Christian theological context emphasizing God's work in and through Jesus' passion, death and resurrection to present a cohesive faith based vision for healing Bearing Witness Stephanie N. Arel, 2023-09-26 Museum memorialization has long been about politics design implications and visitor experience rarely focused upon the people mired in commemorating the dead Profound challenges confront those who memorialize mass trauma at memorial museums Listening to the voices of those called to do this work enables insight into the critical role they play in preserving and disseminating history's most painful narratives expanding views of recovery from mass trauma and revealing the value in the profession As an Andrew W Mellon Fellow at the National September 11 Memorial Museum Dr Stephanie Arel recognized costs psychological spiritual and physical aligned with responding to mass trauma and participating in communal recovery The impact of bearing witness at memorial museums emerged in the lives of workers To explore the phenomenon she visited Auschwitz interviewing those who remember the Holocaust's horrors while resisting its infiltration in their personal lives The immensity of honoring the dead for others inspired additional sojourns in Bosnia Herzegovina Cambodia Israel South Africa and the United States She discovered dimensions of pride and care evident in those who honor memory the capacity of workers to address reverberating political tensions while tending to visitor needs the passion workers have for giving voice to the voiceless who died during traumatic events while offering care and support to the survivors and the reality that reassembling the fragments of mass trauma is not for the weary but instead emerges as a calling and a vocation Bearing Witness places value on what workers do opening space for workers' testimonies to be heard for the first time and creating a global community of and for these workers who have otherwise never been given a platform to speak about their experiences The interviews reveal the entanglement of politics with commemoration the sacredness of remembering and the multidimensional aspects of care transforming the reader's understanding of humanity forever The Rupture that Remains Eric Worringer, 2018

Trauma-Sensitive Theology Jennifer Baldwin, 2018-09-20 The intention of Trauma Sensitive Theology is to help theologians professors clergy spiritual care givers and therapists speak well of God and faith without further wounding survivors of trauma It explores the nature of traumatic exposure response processing and recovery and its impact on constructive theology and pastoral leadership and care Through the lenses of contemporary traumatology somatics and the Internal Family Systems model of psychotherapy the text offers a framework for seeing trauma and its impact in the lives of individuals communities society and within our own sacred texts It argues that care of traumatic wounding must include all dimensions of the human person including our spiritual practices religious rituals and community participation and theological thinking As such clergy and spiritual care professionals have an important role to play in the recovery of traumatic wounding and fostering of resiliency This book explores how trauma informed congregational leaders can facilitate resiliency and offers one way of thinking theologically in response to traumatizing abuses of relational power and our resources for restoration

Violent Trauma, Culture, and Power Michelle Walsh, 2017-02-16 This book is an interdisciplinary exploration of the intertwining impact of violent trauma culture and power through case studies of two ministries serving in different demographic contexts within the United States Mass shootings continue to rise in the United States including in religious and school contexts and the U S also is ground zero for the now international Black Lives Matter movement The author shows how all forms of violent trauma impact more than individuals devastating communal relationships and practices of religious or spiritual meaning making in the aftermath and assesses how these impacts differ according to lived experiences with culture and power Looking at the two ministries an urban grassroots lay ministry organization that serves surviving family members in the aftermath of homicide and a denominational ministry that served a church in the aftermath of a political and religiously motivated shooting the author develops trauma specific interdisciplinary tools for lived religion studies This book powerfully utilizes an intersectional lens to highlight the inter interconnections to be found for those working in faith communities as well as mental health Walsh provides the reader with an opportunity to explore and develop theoretical and practice perspectives that include race and ethnicity religion and spirituality social class and ability sexual orientation immigration and refugee status and explores the impact that oppression and discrimination have on our communities and society I highly recommend this book for those who are engaged in working to combat domination at the local national and global levels Gary Bailey Simmons College USA

The Paradox of Trauma and Growth in Pastoral and Spiritual Care Mary Beth Werdel, 2023-10-24 The Paradox of Trauma and Growth in Pastoral and Spiritual Care Night Blooming introduces and bridges the gap between the psychological and spiritual perspectives and responses in trauma work illuminating the complexity of the human phenomenon of growth though suffering that is too easily misunderstood in the context of pastoral and spiritual care Through the hopeful metaphor of night bloomers rare plants that grow because of light but bloom in the darkness it is suggested that while psychological trauma is inherently negative and suffering creates a spiritual inner night moving through it may reveal a new complex reality of the human experience not previously understood We may see ourselves others or the world in a way that is stronger wiser deeper or more brilliant than we had known before The book presents the goal of pastoral and spiritual work is not to extinguish darkness Nor is it to solely focus on the light The work is to learn how to stay awake through the night without glorifying it Such a task is far easier when we believe there might be a rare and uniquely beautiful bloom to stay awake for and that witnessing such a bloom could have great consequences for living a meaningful life

Trauma-Informed Pastoral Care Karen A. McClintock, 2022 In Trauma Informed Pastoral Care pastoral psychologist Karen A McClintock offers clergy competence and confidence as they care for trauma victims in their congregations and communities provides practical skills to lower the risk of secondary trauma and suggests culturally sensitive models for healing

Post-Traumatic Public Theology Stephanie N. Arel,Shelly

Rambo,2016-11-02 This book imagines new modes of religious response to trauma moving beyond simple answers to the why of human suffering toward discussions of profound expressions of faith in the aftermath of trauma Engaging current realities such as war race and climate change chapters feature specific locations from which theology is done and draw on the resources of Christian faith in order to respond This volume recognizes religious leaders as first responders to trauma and offers theological reflections that can stand up in the current realities of violence and its aftermath The writings provide models for how to integrate the language of faith with the literature of trauma Trauma and Pastoral Care Carla

Grosch-Miller,2021-06-30 This handbook is for leaders who are faced with leading an individual or a church community through a traumatic event and its aftermath It arises out of the Tragedy and Congregations Project which helps churches to respond in a healthy way to the impact of tragedies through training in good practice careful reflection and drawing on faith resources Part One examines the physical and mental impact of trauma and offers a rapid response pastoral toolkit and guidance on appropriate continuing care Part Two offers pastoral and liturgical strategies for collective trauma suggesting habits of the heart that will build resilience Part Three reflects on the changing story of life and faith as meaning is made from traumatising events and reflects on recovery Tragedies and Christian Congregations Christopher

Southgate,Carla Grosch-Miller,Hilary Ison,Megan Warner,2019-09-26 When tragedy strikes a community it is often unexpected with long lasting effects on the people left in its wake Too often there aren t adequate systems in place to aid those affected in processing what has happened This study uniquely combines practical theology pastoral insight and scientific data to demonstrate how Christian congregations can be helped to be resilient in the face of sudden devastating events Beginning by identifying the characteristics of trauma in individuals and communities this collection of essays from practitioners and academics locates sudden trauma inducing tragedies as a problem in practical theology A range of biblical and theological responses are presented but contemporary scientific understanding is also included in order to challenge and stretch some of these traditional theological resources The pastoral section of the book examines the ethics of response to tragedy locating the role of the minister in relation to other helping agencies and exploring the all too topical issue of ministerial abuse Developing a nuanced rationale for good practical pastoral liturgical and theological responses to major traumas this book will be of significant value to scholars of practical theology as well as practitioners counselling in and around church congregations Unspeakable Sarah Travis,2021-06-09 Unspeakable probes the relationship between trauma theory and Christian theology in order to support preachers in the task of crafting sermons that adequately respond to trauma in the pews and the world at large How might sermons contribute to resiliency and the repairing of wounds caused by traumatic experiences This book seeks to provide a theological lens for preachers who wonder how their beautiful words can address suffering amid traumatic wounding Preaching is a healing discourse that proclaims gospel or good news Gospel is a complicated reality especially in the face of trauma Drawing on various theologies and insights from trauma theory Unspeakable challenges the notion of a triumphant gospel seeking an in between perspective that honors both resurrection and the trauma that remains despite our desire to get to the good news It builds on images of the preacher as witness and midwife in order to develop homiletical practices that acknowledge the limitations of language and imagination experienced by traumatized individuals
