Thomas D. Bird MD

Wanted A Spiritual Pursuit Through Jail Among Outlaws And Across Borders:

Wanted Chris Hoke, 2015-02-03 Interweaving his own story with moving vignettes and gritty experiences in hidden places a jail chaplain and minister to Mexican gang and migrant worker communities chronicles his spiritual journey to the margins of society and reveals a subversive God who's on the loose beyond the walls of the church pursuing those who are unwanted by the world Wanted follows a restless young man from the sunny suburbs of his youth to the darker side of society in the rainy Northwest where he finds the direct spiritual experience he's been seeking while volunteering as a night shift chaplain at a men's correctional facility The jail becomes his portal to a mysterious world on the margins of society where a growing network of Mexican gang members soon dub him their pastor As he comes to terms with this uncomfortable title and embraces the role of a shepherd of black sheep his adventures truly begin Hoke shares comic heartbreaking and sublime tales of sacred moments in unlikely situations singing with an attempted suicide in the jail's isolation cell dodging immigration and airport security with migrant farm workers and fly fishing with tattooed gangsters Set against the misty Washington landscape this unconventional congregation at times mirrors the Skagit Valley's fleeting migratory swans and unseen salmon But Hoke takes us with him into riskier terrain as he gains and loses friends to the prison system and even faces his own despair as well as belovedness on the back of a motorcycle racing through Guatemalan slums In these stories of mystical portraiture like the old WANTED posters of outlaws Hoke bears witness to an elusive Presence that is still alive and defiant of official custody Such portraits offer a new vision of the forgotten souls who have been cast into society's dumpsters helping us see beneath even the hardest criminal a fragile desire to be wanted Wanted Chris Hoke, 2013

Play Among Books Miro Roman, Alice Ch3n81, 2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science The Abolition Lectionary Hannah Bowman, Wesley Spears-Newsome, Guillermo Arboleda, 2025-07-23 The Biblical message of liberation to captives around the entire liturgical year What does the Bible say about prisons and justice The Abolition Lectionary is a devotional and preaching aid that presents the many resonances between Christian theology and prison abolition Following the three year cycle of the Revised Common Lectionary each essay addresses one text for each Sunday The variety of texts present a breadth of interpretive perspectives that show the connections between the biblical narrative of liberation and the modern day prison abolition movement The movement of the lectionary across the seasons of the church year grounds the promise of liberation in the everyday practices of Christian life The Abolition Lectionary grew out of a blog series of the same name on the website of Christians for the Abolition of Prisons that ran from 2020-2023. With contributors from many different Christian traditions, it offers an ecumenical, scriptural, liturgical, ethical, radical, and accessible entry point to learning about abolition. For Christians interested in personal devotional reading or for preachers and clergy looking to bring urgent concerns about prisons, policing, and restorative and transformative justice into their lectionary preaching, The Abolition Lectionary finds abolitionist perspectives across the scope of the biblical story.

Living with the Sermon Robert P. Hoch-Yidokodiltona, 2024-09-05. In Living with the Sermon, readers will find a friendly companion to the preaching life. With humor, personal stories, theological musings, and practical signposts for those who live with the sermon, Robert Hoch-Yidokodiltona explores the highs and lows of the preaching life. You will learn not only techniques for preaching but also how the life of the preacher is haunted by holy things. There is, according to Robert, a wink and peek to the preaching life: some playful mischief, some mystery, and yet in a practical spirit, down to earth signposts to help along the way. Whether you have been in the pulpit for many years or have just begun the journey, this work will add to your wisdom and joy in the preaching life.

Centered-Set Church Mark D. Baker, 2022-01-18. Is there an alternative to the church's impulse to either obsess over boundaries or erase them completely? Building on the work of Paul Hiebert, Mark D. Baker provides a unique manual for understanding and applying the vision of a centered church, charting a new path for congregations and leaders to grow in authentic freedom and dynamic movement toward the true center: Jesus himself.

Can You Help Me? Thomas D. Bird, MD, 2019-02-01. Can You Help Me? Living in the Turbulent World of Huntington Disease shares the surprising, insightful, challenging, and even encouraging stories of patients and their families who live with Huntington Disease. Having seen patients for more than 40 years, Dr. Thomas Bird, a pioneer neurogeneticist, adds a human touch to this genetic brain disease that devastates persons during mid-life when they can least afford it. With a brief history of Huntington Disease and the occasional scientific detail, the true heart of the book is the human experience of the disorder. The man who cannot stay out of prison because he is addicted to being a burglar. Another man shoots and kills his roommate while watching television and cannot explain why he did it. The woman with Huntington Disease copes with her depression by using Texas line dancing. A twelve-year-old girl with juvenile Huntington Disease who can barely walk and talk but her classmates rally around with touching and heartfelt support. And the 72-year-old man with late-onset Huntington Disease and severe depression is made worse by ECT but improved for a while with Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation. These are just some of the compelling stories of people of all ages and in all walks of life who feel trapped by a progressive degenerative brain disease from which there is no escape.
