Deepening Literacy Learning Mary Ann Reilly, Jane M. Gangi, Rob Cohen, 2010-09-01 Reading Horizons, 2010 Dahling If You Luv Me Would You Please Please Smile Rukhsana Khan, 2013-03 Zainab is a thirteen year old facing a LOT of problems that threaten to overwhelm her manipulation bullying the sexual exploitation of a friend and eventually an attempted suicide But when a teacher offers her the opportunity to direct a school house league play Zainab thinks it might be the chance she's looking for If she can bring the most popular bully in school in line maybe she can prove she fits in Maybe Winner of the 2001 Manitoba Young Reader's Choice Honor Award Nominated for the 2000 Ruth Schwartz Award Nominated for the 2000 Red Maple Award Braille Book Review, 2010 Narratives for Young Readers on West Asia Arya Priyadarshini, Suman Sigroha, 2025-02-18 Through critical textual analysis of the trauma narratives for young readers written in English on political conflicts and the violation of humanitarian values this book recovers the response to trauma from the margins of the survivor spectrum By focusing on the experiences of Syrian and Palestinian children it elucidates how their stories are often portrayed in a manner that not only emphasises their resilience but also underscores the gravity of the experiences The book sheds light on the multifaceted impact of the conflicts on the region and the psychological toll they take on the younger generation through the representation of their experiences in these narratives. The harrowing experiences of refugees, war victims and displaced persons from non-Western countries often lack a voice in the advancement of the trauma discourse. The theoretical approach utilised in this research thus employs child and adolescent psychoanalysis to extend the existing approach to trauma studies and brings the neglected and under-represented trauma narratives to the fore. Many of the atrocities discussed in this book continue in the present times which makes the study of this subject matter even more vital. The ongoing war between Israel and Hamas that has killed thousands of people in the region within a short space of time makes this research even more pertinent and urgent as the widespread violence and suffering has echoed the trauma that the region has undergone in the past decades.

A New Life Rukhsana Khan, 2009-02-09. Eight-year-old Khadija, her older brother Hamza and their parents have just arrived in Canada from Pakistan. In their classrooms on the first day of school, Khadija and Hamza are confronted by a sea of unfamiliar faces. Everyone looks so different from the way they did back home. At first, Khadija and Hamza feel left out at recess and they both become the targets of school bullies. It's really hard to have to speak English all day long. And Khadija just can't figure out how to get enough water out of the drinking fountain. Hamza, in particular, misses everything about Pakistan: his friends, his school and his grandmother. But gradually, Khadija and Hamza find new friends and begin to feel more at home.
