Disconnect Cristina Lope Yl Rosello, 2011-05-20 Disconnect The Filipino Comfort Women portrays the inner worlds of elderly women survivors of the Pacific War as they grapple with their psychological and historical disconnection following the fifty year postwar silence of sexual enslavement and captivity Victimized at puberty ego formation was nipped in the bud When the war ended they did not have any sense of who they were They went through the motions of living stuck in the time bubble where fragments of what had happened to them kept creeping up in their minds and hearts To stop the unstoppable whirl of events in their psyche these survivors explored suffering as the punctum saliens of their existence. A number was surprised to discover that the inability to form a sense of self inadvertently spared them of the egoic malaise inherent in humanity. It is in the exploration of suffering that the book profoundly reaches out to the reader. After all, one need not be a war victim or a woman to have had experienced suffering in their lives.

Comics, the Holocaust and Hiroshima Jane L. Chapman, Adam Sherif, 2016-01-12 Comics the Holocaust and Hiroshima breaks new ground for history by exploring the relationship between comics as a cultural record, historiography, memory, and trauma studies. Post-Traumatic Jesus David W. Peters, 2023-02-21 After twenty years of war in Iraq and Afghanistan, a global pandemic, protests against racial violence, and frequent shootings, more Americans than ever are living with the effects of trauma. The good news is that Jesus was born and died in a traumatized world, and his story speaks forever to wounded people worldwide. Army veteran and Episcopal priest David Peters explores Jesus' life story through the post-traumatic lens with which the Gospel writers first wrote it, as people who had seen their leader executed by the same oppressive government that had already shrouded their whole lives in anxiety and fear. Meeting the post-traumatic Jesus, the only Jesus the world has ever known, can be a balm to the wounds of modern Christians and spiritual seekers.

Military Chaplains in Afghanistan, Iraq, and Beyond Eric Patterson, 2014-08-07 The role of military chaplains has changed over the past decade as Western militaries have deployed to highly religious environments such as East Africa, Afghanistan, and Iraq. U.S. military chaplains, who are by definition non-combatants, have been called upon by their war-fighting commanders to take on new roles beyond providing religious services to the troops. Chaplains are now also required to engage the local citizenry and provide their commanders with assessments of the religious and cultural landscape outside the base and reach out to local civilian clerics in hostile territory in pursuit of peace and understanding. In this edited volume, practitioners and scholars chronicle the changes that have happened in the field in the twenty-first century. Using concrete examples, this volume takes a critical look at the rapidly changing role of the military chaplain and raises issues critical to U.S. foreign and national security policy and diplomacy.

Finland in World War II Tiina Kinnunen, Ville Kivimäki, 2011-11-25 Drawing on innovative scholarship on Finland in World War II, this volume offers a comprehensive narrative of politics and combat, well-argued analyses of the ideological, social, and cultural aspects of a society at war, and novel interpretations of the memory of war.

The Northern Ireland Troubles in Britain Graham Dawson, Jo Dover, Stephen Hopkins, 2016-11-28 This ground-breaking book provides the first comprehensive investigation of the history and memory of the Northern Ireland Troubles in Britain. It examines the impacts of the conflict upon individual lives, political and social relationships, communities, and culture in Britain, and explores how the people of Britain, including its Irish communities, have responded to and engaged with the conflict in the context of contested political narratives produced by the State and its opponents. Setting an agenda for further research and public debate, the book demonstrates that unfinished business from the conflicted past persists unaddressed in Britain and advocates the importance of acknowledging legacies understanding histories and engaging with memories in the context of peace building and reconciliation

Bonura,2016-03-03 It is estimated that well over 250 000 military veterans from Iraq and Afghanistan are suffering today from PTSD and even more from post traumatic stress or PTS Clinical interventions alone do not adequately address all the issues associated with PTSD There is also a profound spiritual dimension to trauma and it is frequently manifested in post trauma symptoms such as guilt grief and shame and in various forms of loss including loss of meaning loss of faith and loss of peace Pastors chaplains and Christian counselors have a legitimate healing role alongside clinicians in addressing the spiritual aspects of trauma through spiritual interventions that are based on Scripture and leverage new ways of viewing trauma and assumptions about its meaning Beyond Trauma Hope Healing for Warriors equips pastors chaplains and other pastoral caregivers with the knowledge and resources to not only understand the spiritual effects of trauma but to make appropriate interventions that will lead veterans in their churches and communities to healing and growth Issues in Science and Theology: Do Emotions Shape the World? Dirk Evers,Michael Fuller,Anne Runehov,Knut-Willy Sæther,2016-04-14 This volume examines emotions and emotional well being from a rich variety of theological philosophical and scientific and therapeutic perspectives To experience emotion is a part of being human but what are emotions How can theology philosophy and the natural sciences unpack the nature and content of emotions This volume is based on contributions to the 15th European Conference on Science and Theology held in Assisi Italy It brings together contributions from scholars of various academic backgrounds from around the world whose individual insights are made all the richer by their juxtaposition with those from experts in other fields leading to a unique exchange of ideas Special Needs Offenders in Correctional Institutions Lior Gideon,2012-09-14 Effective treatment and preparation for successful reintegration can be better achieved if the needs and risks of incarcerated offenders are taken into consideration by correctional practitioners and scholars Special Needs Offenders in Correctional Institutions offers a unique opportunity to examine the different populations behind bars e g chronically and mentally ill homosexual illegal immigrants veterans radicalized inmates etc as well as their needs and the corresponding impediments for rehabilitation and reintegration Author Lior Gideon takes a rehabilitative and reiterative approach to discuss and differentiate between the needs of these various categories of inmates and provides in depth discussions not available in other correctional texts about the specific needs risks and policy recommendations when working with present day special needs offenders Each chapter is followed by suggested readings and relevant websites that will enable readers to further enhance understanding of the issues and potential solutions discussed in the chapter Further each chapter has discussion questions specifically designed to promote class discussions The text concludes with a theoretical framework for future policy implications and practices Post-Traumatic God David W. Peters,2016-09-01 After traumatic events many turn away from the Church this book presents a path home providing a way back to a God who can be trusted loved and worshipped Today the church is sometimes viewed even from within as a place apart which may create a barrier of understanding for those who have experienced trauma Post Traumatic God grew out of Peters own experience as a chaplain in Iraq and later as an Episcopal priest and from his subsequent work with an organization he founded Episcopal Veterans for Peace which helped him identify the need for this quite different book to bridge that gap In it Peters explores three related themes history the early church itself was a post traumatic community theology especially building on Tillich s World War I experiences and the theology he subsequently developed and ecclesiology how church can offer community to trauma survivors Post Traumatic God equips the Church to heal the unseen wounds of the soul
