Community-Built Katherine Melcher,Barry Stiefel,Kristin Faurest,2016-11-25 Throughout history and around the world community members have come together to build places be it settlers constructing log cabins in nineteenth century Canada an artist group creating a waterfront gathering place along the Danube in Budapest or residents helping revive small town main streets in the United States What all these projects have in common is that they involve local volunteers in the construction of public and community places they are community built Although much attention has been given to specific community built movements such as public murals and community gardens little has been given to defining community built as a whole This volume provides a preliminary description of community built practices with examples from the disciplines of urban design historic preservation and community art Taken as a whole these community built projects illustrate how the process of local involvement in adapting building and preserving a built environment can strengthen communities and create places that are intimately tied to local needs culture and community The lessons learned from this volume can provide community planners grassroots facilitators and participants with an understanding of what can lead to successful community built art construction preservation and placemaking
