Washington Disasters Stories Tragedy Survival:

Washington Disasters Rob McNair-Huff, Natalie McNair-Huff, 2015-12-15 True accounts of major disasters in Washington history are retold in this engagingly written collection From The Seattle fire of 1889 the 1910 train avalanche on Stevens Pass and the 1915 Ravensdale Coal Mine explosion the 1955 airliner crash in residential Riverton to the 1980 Mount St Helens eruption Washington has been home to some of the nation's most dramatic moments Each story reveals not only the circumstances surrounding the disaster and the magnitude of the devastation but also the courage and ingenuity displayed by those who survived and the heroism of those who helped others often risking their own lives in rescue efforts The Greatest Search and Rescue Stories Ever Told Tom McCarthy, 2019-08-29 From the early years of Western Expansion to the present day our history is marked by the heroic exploits of the rescuer and the rescued in some of the most daunting geographic meteorological and otherwise life threatening challenges First responders have variously been members of law enforcement to ordinary good samaritans who couldn't look the other way in the face of their brethren in peril This book collects the most compelling search and rescue accounts of the last two hundred years from William Lewis Manly bringing relief to 49ers lost in Death Valley to modern day SAR teams working with the National Park and Forest Services to locate missing hikers or carry out the injured from a wilderness mishap Of course many search and rescues turn into a body recovery effort or even a criminal investigation if foul play is suspected Regardless of the outcome this book honors those who put others lives before their own in the face of peril The Human Side of Disaster Thomas E. Drabek, 2018-09-03 Since the first edition of The Human Side of Disaster was published in 2009 new catastrophes have plagued the globe including earthquakes in Haiti and New Zealand tornadoes in Alabama and Missouri floods in numerous locations Hurricane Sandy and the infamous BP oil spill Enhanced with new cases and real world examples The Human Side of Disaster Second Edition presents an updated summary of the social science knowledge base of human responses to disaster Dr Drabek draws upon his 40 plus years of conducting research on individual group and organizational responses to disaster to illustrate and integrate key insights from the social sciences to teach us how to anticipate human behaviors in crisis The book begins with a series of original short stories rooted within actual disaster events These stories are woven into the entire text to demonstrate essential findings from the research literature Dr Drabek provides an overview of the range of disasters and hazards confronting the public and an explanation of why these are increasing each year both in number and scope of impact The core of the book is a summary of key findings regarding disaster warning responses evacuation behavior initial post impact survival behavior traditional and emergent roles of volunteers and both short term and longer term disaster impacts The theme of organized disorganization is used to illustrate multiorganizational response networks that form the key managerial task for local emergency managers The final chapter provides a new vision for the emergency management profession one that reflects a more strategic approach wherein disasters are viewed as non routine social problems This book will continue to be an invaluable reference for professionals and students in emergency management and public policy and aid organizations who need to understand human behavior and how best to communicate and work with the public in disaster situations Pushing Boundaries: Students Remember 30 Years of Wilderness Challenge Jerry Barker,

Ed.D.,2014-08-21 They were mostly inexperienced campers raising their hands to take a big risk exchanging their comfortable lives for a difficult week of mountaineering Over 135 college students and alumni tell stories and share memories of teamwork and testing disappointment and triumph They pushed their limits believed in themselves and took time for personal reflection Sometimes pain sore muscles altitude sickness and frozen toes seemed insurmountable Yet in memory overcoming physical challenges remains a source of great satisfaction Persisting when they most want to quit teaches young people to think big Exhaustion and discomfort can be dispelled by camaraderie and humility In their futures finding solutions to tough problems will require truly exceptional leadership Whether they are called to lead asked to lead or forced to lead all who dared those summits will be better prepared to meet any challenge they will face My Soul Is a Witness Mari N. Crabtree,2023-01-10 An intimate look at the afterlife of lynching through the personal stories of Black victims and survivors who lived through and beyond its trauma Mari N Crabtree traces the long afterlife of lynching in the South through the traumatic memories it left in its wake She unearths how African American victims and survivors found ways to live through and beyond the horrors of lynching offering a theory of African American collective trauma and memory rooted in the ironic spirit of the blues sensibility a spirit of misdirection and cunning that blends joy and pain Black southerners often shielded their loved ones from the most painful memories of local lynchings with strategic silences but also told lynching stories about vengeful ghosts or a wrathful God or the deathbed confessions of a lyncher tormented by his past They protested lynching and its legacies through art and activism and they mourned those lost to a mob s fury They infused a blues element into their lynching narratives to confront traumatic memories and keep the blues at bay even if just for a spell Telling their stories troubles the simplistic binary of resistance or submission that has tended to dominate narratives of Black life and reminds us that amid the utter devastation of lynching were glimmers of hope and an affirmation of life
