Wayang Stories And Pictures:

Storytelling in Bali H. Geertz, 2016-11-01 In Storytelling in Bali Hildred Geertz makes a case for the importance of the role of informal storytelling as an engine of social change in Bali in the 1930s This is a study of more than 200 texts dictated by the painters of the village of Batuan in 1936 to the anthropologist Gregory Bateson It is completed by three years field work in Batuan in the 1980s The tales reveal a set of strong ambivalences about the magical powers of kings priests and sorcerers and about social strains within villages and families These narratives were related in the daily settings of home and coffee shop and also in the spectacular dance dramas of the time American Cinematographer, 1922 Southeast Asian Cartoon Art John A. Lent, 2014-02-07 This is the first overview of cartoon art in this important cultural nexus of Asia The eight essays provide historical and contemporary examinations of cartoons and comics in Indonesia the Philippines Thailand Cambodia and Vietnam and sociocultural and political analyses of cartooning in Singapore Myanmar and Malaysia The collection benefits from hundreds of interviews with Southeast Asia's major cartoonists conducted by the four contributors as well as textual analyses of specific cartoons on the spot observations and close scrutiny of historical documents All genres of printed cartoon art are studied including political and humor cartoons newspaper comic strips comic books and humor and cartoon periodicals Topics of discussion and comparison with cartoon art of other parts of the globe include national identity the transnational public sphere globalization alternative media forms freedom of expression consumerism and corporatism Southeast Asian cartoon art has a number of features unique to the region such as having as pioneering cartoonists three countries founding fathers comics that gave their name to a national trait some of the earliest graphic novels worldwide and a king who hired a cartoonist to illustrate his books Theatre Histories Phillip B. Zarrilli, 2010 Providing a clear journey through centuries of European North and South American African and Asian forms of theatre and performance this introduction helps the reader think critically about this exciting field through fascinating yet plain speaking essays and case studies Exploring Written Artefacts Jörg B. Quenzer, 2021-10-25 This collection presented to Michael Friedrich in honour of his academic career at the Centre for the Study of Manuscript Cultures traces key concepts that scholars associated with the Centre have developed and refined for the systematic study of manuscript cultures At the same time the contributions showcase the possibilities of expanding the traditional subject of manuscripts to the larger perspective of written artefacts Indonesia in Pictures Jeffrey Zuehlke, 2006-01-01 Describes the history government economy people geography and cultural life of Indonesia Shadows of Empire Laurie Jo Sears, 1996 Shadows of Empire explores Javanese shadow theater as a staging area for negotiations between colonial power and indigenous traditions Charting the shifting boundaries between myth and history in Javanese Mahabharata and Ramayana tales Laurie J Sears reveals what happens when these stories move from village performances and palace manuscripts into colonial texts and nationalist journals and most recently comic books and novels Historical anthropological and literary in its method and insight this work offers a dramatic reassessment of both Javanese literary theatrical production and Dutch scholarship on Southeast Asia Though Javanese shadow theater wayang has existed for hundreds of years our knowledge of its history performance practice and role in Javanese society only begins with Dutch documentation and interpretation in the nineteenth century Analyzing the Mahabharata and Ramayana tales in relation to court poetry Islamic faith Dutch scholarship and nationalist journals Sears shows how the shadow theater as we know it today must be understood as a hybrid of Javanese and Dutch ideas and interests inseparable from a particular colonial moment In doing so she contributes to a re envisioning of European histories that acknowledges the influence of Asian African and New World cultures on European thought and to a rewriting of colonial and postcolonial Javanese histories that questions the boundaries and content of history and story myth and allegory colonialism and culture Shadows of Empire will appeal not only to specialists in Javanese culture and historians of Indonesia but also to a wide range of scholars in the areas of performance and literature anthropology Southeast Asian studies and postcolonial studies

Williams, 1991 Java is the most populous island of Indonesia the fifth largest nation in the world Yet despite its importance outsiders know little about the country or its people With the help of Indonesian students and scholars Walter L Williams has collected and translated the life histories of twenty seven Javanese women and men The people interviewed tell how they have coped with rapid social and economic change and the transformation of their traditions Williams has carefully selected the individuals he includes to represent a wide diversity of Java s people We hear from fascinating men and women of various religions from the rich and the poor and from different ethnic backgrounds Diversity is a constant theme as evidenced by a poor pedicab driver who can barely scrape along by a rich businesswoman who explains how she balances her professional and domestic roles by an educated and respected homosexual school principal and by an illiterate mother of fourteen children All of them present in their lives a unique Javanese approach to living These oral histories were derived from elderly people who have a larger perspective on the changes they have seen in their lifetimes The focus of the first section of the book is the way people have adapted in their daily lives to massive social and economic changes In the middle section we hear from the Javanese who represent traditional values in the midst of change Finally we hear from educators and parents who tell us of their concerns for Indonesian youth and the future of Indonesia
