NATIONAL BESTSELLER Alexandra Morton has been called the Jane Goodall of Canada because of her passionate thirty year fight to save British Columbia's wild salmon Her account of that fight is both inspiring in its own right and a roadmap of resistance Alexandra Morton came north from California in the early 1980s following her first love the northern resident orca Then in 1989 industrial aquaculture moved into the region chasing the whales away Soon Alex had shifted her scientific focus to documenting the infectious diseases and parasites that pour from the ocean farm pens of Atlantic salmon into the migration routes of wild Pacific salmon and then to proving their disastrous impact on wild salmon and the entire ecosystem of the coast Alex stood against the farms first representing her community then alone and at last as part of an uprising in which ancient Indigenous governance resisted a province and a country that wouldn't obey their own court rulings She has used her science many acts of protest and the legal system in her unrelenting efforts to save wild salmon and ultimately the whales a story that reveals her own perseverance and bravery but also shines a bright light on the ways other humans doggedly resist the truth Here she brilliantly calls those humans to account for the sake of us all Backpacker, 1979-10
