

Introduction

Welcome to Module 2. In this module, we will discuss the composition of fire, the components of fire, its characteristics, and behaviors. And also the common fire alarm systems, methods of communication systems, and safe firefighting techniques and procedures.

Purpose: The purpose of this module is to provide you, volunteer and brigade members, a basic understanding about fire, basic knowledge of fire alarm systems, proper manner of communication, and most importantly knowledge in safe firefighting techniques and procedures. This training is mandatory in the acquisition of Certificate of Competency as stated in the Implementing Rules and Regulations of the Republic Act 9514 also known as the Fire Code of the Philippines of 2008.

Scope: For the next hour, the discussion of the module will cover the topics on the basic principles of fire extinguishments, communication, and safe firefighting operations procedures and techniques.

Objective: By the end of this module, you will:

1. Be knowledgeable on the basics about fire.
2. Know how to respond/communicate promptly to a fire caller.
3. Know how to perform duties and responsibilities of a firefighter safely.

Conditions: The instruction you'll receive in this module is intended for fire volunteers and fire brigade members, meaning, it is our assumption that you already received the instructions from the first module of this training. Instruction will take place in a classroom environment. We will use lecture, conference, demonstration, and practical exercise methods to deliver your instruction.
