Women and Social Movements in Latin America Lynn Stephen, 2010-01-01 Women's grassroots activism in Latin America combines a commitment to basic survival for women and their children with a challenge to women's subordination to men. Women activists insist that issues such as rape, battering and reproductive control cannot be divorced from women's concerns about housing, food, land and medical care. This innovative comparative study explores six cases of women's grassroots activism in Mexico, El Salvador, Brazil and Chile. Lynn Stephen communicates the ideas, experiences and perceptions of women who participate in collective action while she explains the structural conditions and ideological discourses that set the context within which women act and interpret their experiences. She includes revealing interviews with activists, detailed histories of organizations and movements and a theoretical discussion of gender, collective identity and feminist anthropology and methods. Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications, Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications, Cumulative Index United States. Legitimizing Human Rights NGOs Obiora Chinedu Okafor, 2006 A claim and empirical demonstration that if human rights NGOs in Nigeria are to popularly legitimise themselves then almost all of them must undergo a fundamental revision of form, concept and activist methods. Legitimising NGOs in Africa will grant a greater achievement of influence to those organisations. This volume argues that only a transition to a mass movement model will ensure the legitimisation of most Nigerian and African human rights NGO communities. Okafor builds a list of recommendations designed to be used as a blueprint for successfully popularising NGOs Changing Birth in the Andes Lucia Guerra-Reyes, 2021-04-30 In 1997 when Lucia Guerra Reyes began research in Peru she observed a profound disconnect between the birth care desires of health personnel and those of indigenous women. Midwives and doctors would plead with her as the anthropologist to educate women about the dangerous inadequacy of their traditions They failed to see how their aim of achieving low rates of maternal mortality clashed with the experiences of local women who often feared public health centers where they could experience discrimination and verbal or physical abuse Mainly the women and their families sought a good birth which was normally a home birth that corresponded with Andean perceptions of health as a balance of bodily humors Peru's Intercultural Birthing Policy of 2005 was intended to solve these longstanding issues by recognizing indigenous cultural values and making biomedical care more accessible and desirable for indigenous women Yet many difficulties remain Guerra Reyes also gives ethnographic attention to health care workers She explains the class and educational backgrounds of traditional birth attendants and midwives interviews doctors and health care administrators and describes their interactions with local families Interviews with national policy makers put the program in context
