Transformations

,2015 Transformations presents a broad comprehensive theoretical framework for understanding how the lives of all people but particularly the lives of girls and women are shaped by gender Rather than conceiving gender as a collection of individual traits or attributes this book presents gender as a social system that is used to categorize people and is linked to power and status The gender system is analyzed throughout the book at three levels sociocultural interpersonal and individual Because conceptualizing gender as a social system is important from the start the second chapter of the book is devoted to gender status and power This chapter explains the gender system and how it works at each of the three levels and demonstrates how they are linked

Sex Trafficking in South Asia Mary Crawford, 2010-01-21 This book is a critical feminist analysis of sex trafficking Arguing that trafficking in girls and women is a product of the social construction of gender and other dimensions of power and status within a particular culture and at a particular historical moment this book offers the necessary locally grounded analysis Focusing on the case of Nepal from where 5 000 to 7 000 thousands of Nepali girls and women are trafficked each year primarily to India Mary Crawford assesses how the social construction of trafficking the concept and its representation in discourse are influenced by the dynamics of gender caste and the development establishment The defining figure is an innocent na ve young girl being lured or duped into leaving the safety of her village The trafficking victim is portrayed as backward however she is backward in specific ways that resonate with Nepal s struggle to resist and yet encompass Western influence This view may lead to paradoxical effects in which efforts to protect girls and women instead restrict their human rights Rather than seeing women as universalized victims Crawford assesses how the social construction of trafficking in a particular society affects girls and women who live in that society In this book the author s voice as a woman a feminist and a social scientist immersed in a foreign way of life illuminates aspects of this process and highlights the subjectivity of urban women It makes the connection between Nepali subjectivities and a problem of international significance the trafficking of girls and women The book provides a model for other locally grounded accounts of sex trafficking to counter the universalizing rhetoric of the mass media and some anti trafficking activists filling a niche in South Asian Studies and Women s Studies Gender and Leadership in Nigeria and Ghana Mobolanle

Sotunsa, Abiola Sakirat Kalejaiye, Patricia Animah Nyamekye, 2023-10-27 This book provides balanced critical linguistic and literary representations of gender and power relations in Ghanaian and Nigerian texts contrary to most existing literary and linguistic studies on gender that have either focused on male chauvinism or male emasculation This text provides novel insight into gender dynamics liberation and empowerment especially as it relates to language and power in Africa

Gender, Considered Sarah Fenstermaker, Abigail J. Stewart, 2020-12-12 This book gathers reflections from 15 US based feminist social scientists about gender as orienting framework as one aspect of an intersectional approach as a feature of intellectual identity and as a problematic construct Gender as an analytic dynamic concept has had an important impact within and across social sciences in the past several decades That impact for some arose in dialogue with interdisciplinary women s studies and was sometimes troubled both in women s studies and in relation to other interdisciplines and disciplines As a new generation of gender scholars embarks on their careers in social science Fenstermaker and Stewart s collection provides scholars an opportunity to reflect on the course of different disciplinary histories and autobiographies as well as illuminate individual scholarly craft and disciplinary direction as our understanding of gender has unfolded over time The volume will also represent one kind of collective wisdom to inspire younger scholars Balancing the Big Stuff Miriam

Liss, Holly H. Schiffrin, 2014-08-07 While the current conversation about work family balance and having it all tends to focus on women both men and women are harmed when conditions make it impossible to balance meaningful work with family life Yet both will benefit from re evaluating what it means to have it all and fighting for changes in their relationships and society to make greater equality possible Here Miriam Liss and Holly Hollomon Schiffrin discuss the ways in which we all define having it all and how we can obtain it for ourselves through a better evaluation of what we want from ourselves our families our jobs and each other Determining a 50 50 division of labor around the house may not be the thing that works for everyone Working from home or not at all may not be the thing to bring us satisfaction but learning what studies show and how to feel balanced and make those decisions to bring balance is crucial The authors argue that people can find balance in their roles by doing things in moderation Although being engaged in both parenting and work is good for well being people can avoid the pitfalls of over parenting and over working They show that balance can come from a meaningful consideration of what happiness and contentedness mean to us as individuals and how best to achieve our goals within the limitations of our current circumstances They illustrate that balance is not simply an individual problem Social issues such as the lack of parental leave flexible work schedules and affordable high quality child care make balance difficult With attention now on the issue they argue that it s time men and women advocate for better services and better opportunities to achieve balance happiness and success in all their roles New Books on Women and Feminism ,2006 Feminist Periodicals ,2007
