War Genocide Criminal Politics 19901994:

The Politics of Genocide Jeffrey S. Bachman, 2022-09-16 Beginning with the negotiations that concluded with the unanimous adoption of the United Nations Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide on December 9 1948 and extending to the present day the United States Soviet Union Russia China United Kingdom and France have put forth great effort to ensure that they will not be implicated in the crime of genocide If this were to fail they have also ensured that holding any of them accountable for genocide will be practically impossible By situating genocide prevention in a system of territorial jurisdiction by excluding protection for political groups and acts constituting cultural genocide from the Genocide Convention by controlling when genocide is meaningfully named at the Security Council and by pointing the responsibility to protect in directions away from any of the P 5 they have achieved what can only be described as practical impunity for genocide The Politics of Genocide is the first book to explicitly demonstrate how the permanent member nations have exploited the Genocide Convention to isolate themselves from the reach of the law marking them as outlaw states

The Archival Politics of International Courts Henry Alexander Redwood, 2021-08-26 The archives produced by international courts have received little empirical theoretical or methodological attention within international criminal justice ICJ or international relations IR studies Yet as this book argues these archives both contain a significant record of past violence and also help to constitute the international community as a particular reality As such this book first offers an interdisciplinary reading of archives integrating new insights from IR archival science and post colonial anthropology to establish the link between archives and community formation It then focuses on the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda s archive to offer a critical reading of how knowledge is produced in international courts provides an account of the type of international community that is imagined within these archives and establishes the importance of the materiality of archives for understanding how knowledge is produced and contested within the international domain

Paramilitarism Ugur Ümit Üngör, 2020-07-03 From the deserts of Sudan to the jungles of Colombia and from the streets of Belfast to the mountains of Kurdistan paramilitaries have appeared in violent conflicts in very different settings Paramilitaries are generally depicted as irregular armed organizations that carry out acts of violence against civilians on behalf of a state In doing so they undermine the state s monopoly of legitimate violence while at the same time creating a breeding ground for criminal activities Why do governments with functioning police forces and armies use paramilitary groups This study tackles this question through the prism of the interpenetration of paramilitaries and the state The author interprets paramilitarism as the ability of the state to successfully outsource mass political violence against civilians that transforms and traumatizes societies It analyses how paramilitarism can be understood in global context and how paramilitarism is connected to transformations of warfare and state society relations By comparing a broad range of cases it looks at how paramilitarism has made a profound impact in a large number of countries that were different but nevertheless shared a history of pro government militia activity A thorough understanding of paramilitarism can clarify the direction and intensity of violence in wartime and peacetime The volume examines the issues of international involvement institutional support organized crime party politics and personal ties

Illiberal Transitional Justice and the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia Rebecca Gidley, 2019-02-19 This book examines the creation and operation of the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia ECCC which is a hybrid domestic international tribunal tasked with putting senior leaders of the Khmer Rouge on trial It argues that the ECCC should be considered an example of illiberal transitional justice where the language of procedure is strongly adhered to but political considerations often rule in reality The Cambodian government spent nearly two decades addressing the Khmer Rouge past and shaping its preferred narrative before the involvement of the United Nations It was a further six years of negotiations between the Cambodian government and the United Nations that determined the unique hybrid structure of the ECCC Over more than a decade in operation and with three people convicted the ECCC has not contributed to the positive goals expected of transitional justice mechanisms Through the Cambodian example this book challenges existing assumptions and analyses of transitional justice to create a more nuanced understanding of how and why transitional justice mechanisms are employed

The Healing of Memories Mohammed Girma, 2018-09-15 Africa has seen many political crises ranging from violent political ideologies to meticulous articulated racist governance system to ethnic clashes resulting in genocide and religious conflicts that have planted the seed of mutual suspicion The masses impacted by such crises live with the past that has not passed The Healing of Memories African Christian Responses to Politically Induced Trauma examines Christian responses to the damaging impact of conflict on the collective memory Troubled memory is a recipe for another cycle of conflict While most academic works tend to stress forgiving and forgetting they did not offer much as to how to deal with the unforgettable past This book aims to fill this gap by charting an interdisciplinary approach to healing the corrosive memories of painful pasts Taking a cue from the empirical expositions of post apartheid South Africa post genocide Rwanda the Congo Wars and post Red Terror Ethiopia this volume brings together coherent healing approaches to deal with traumatic memory

Afro-Communitarian Ethics and Foreign Armed Intervention Danny Singh,2024-10-10 Just war theory concerns the morality of engaging in warfare the conduct in war and justice including democratization and reconstruction in the aftermath to end war The morality of war can be measured from a variety of military and philosophical ethics that include theological consequentialist and realist schools of thought Various military interventions such as Bosnia Afghanistan and Iraq have been analyzed and evaluated and criticized from a Western and especially liberal point of view In this book Danny Singh addresses foreign interventions from a different normative paradigm Namely he addresses the morality of foreign military interventions in light of Afro communitarianism a dominant philosophical approach in sub Saharan Africa According to Afro communitarianism positive communal relationships social harmony are the greatest good that can be achieved to form friendship which can be understood as the combination of shared identity and goodwill Even though Afro communitarianism prioritizes peaceful communal relations enmity behavior and violence are morally permissible if it either leads to a less disharmonious state of affairs or to a harmonious state of affairs or there are no friendly alternatives to achieve any of both desired outcomes but the initiator of conflict desires to promote them Moreover Afro communitarianism prescribes dialogue as a guiding action to avoid military conflict The book provides an alternative and non Western approach to the morality of war and efforts to promote sustainable peace in the aftermath of conflict between warring belligerent parties     Revival

Humanitarian Wars? Rony Brauman, 2019-07-01 In the eyes of Rony Brauman of M decins sans Fronti res wars are always triggered in the name of morality Today s humanitarian interventions are little more than new moral crusades and their justifications are based on lies There are plenty of examples of hawkish propaganda in recent years Saddam Hussein's mythical weapons of mass destruction a dubious genocide in Kosovo doctored figures of famine in Somalia and a fake massacre of protesters in Libya Without being militantly non interventionist Brauman is extremely suspicious of the thirst for war displayed by many of today's world leaders the consequences of which are devastating He is critical of international peacekeeping bodies and tribunals the UN Security Council and the International Criminal Court represent for him the interests of the powerful before all else Basing his argument on the criteria for a just war Brauman criticizes the Western obsession with imposing democratic values by force In this sober and convincing book he thoroughly dismantles the notion of the justness of humanitarian wars

Elusive Justice Donny Meertens, 2019-11-26 Fifty years of violence perpetrated by guerrillas paramilitaries and official armed forces in Colombia displaced more than six million people In 2011 as part of a larger transitional justice process the Colombian government approved a law that would restore land rights for those who lost their homes during the conflicts However this restitution process lacked appropriate provisions for rural women beyond granting them a formal property title Drawing on decades of research Elusive Justice demonstrates how these women continue to face numerous adverse circumstances including geographical isolation encroaching capitalist enterprises and a dearth of social and institutional support Donny Meertens contends that women s advocacy organizations must have a prominent role in overseeing these transitional policies in order to create a more just society By bringing together the underresearched topic of property repayment and the pursuit of gender justice in peacebuilding these findings have broad significance elsewhere in the world
