Mixer,2022-06-01 This book describes OCLC s contributions to the transformation of the Internet from a web of documents to a Web of Data The new Web is a growing cloud of interconnected resources that identify the things people want to know about when they approach the Internet with an information need The linked data architecture has achieved critical mass just as it has become clear that library standards for resource description are nearing obsolescence Working for the world s largest library cooperative OCLC researchers have been active participants in the development of next generation standards for library resource description By engaging with an international community of library and Web standards experts they have published some of the most widely used RDF datasets representing library collections and librarianship This book focuses on the conceptual and technical challenges involved in publishing linked data derived from traditional library metadata This transformation is a high priority because most searches for information start not in the library nor even in a Web accessible library catalog but elsewhere on the Internet Modeling data in a form that the broader Web understands will project the value of libraries into the Digital Information Age The exposition is aimed at librarians archivists computer scientists and other professionals interested in modeling bibliographic descriptions as linked data It aims to achieve a balanced treatment of theory technical detail and practical application

MEMORIES OF WORLD WAR II VETS A. J. BROWN,2011-10-11 Many of the vets I interviewed asked me why I was interested in World War II I never forgot when Pearl Harbor was attacked I was five years old and standing at the end of the kitchen counter next to the black art deco style radio The announcer was very loud and excited but I didn t know what he was talking about My mother was at the other end of the counter standing in front of the kitchen sink washing a dish All of a sudden she turned off the water and came over to stand in front of the radio I had never seen a look on her face like that before She called my dad to come here Both of them stood in front of the radio with these shocked and unbelieving faces I never forgot that experience We next went to Sunday school and church and I remember all of the adults were talking to each other in low tones with stunned looks on their faces

World War II at Sea Craig L. Symonds,2018-04-02 Author of Lincoln and His Admirals winner of the Lincoln Prize The Battle of Midway Best Book of the Year Military History Quarterly and Operation Neptune winner of the Samuel Eliot Morison Award for Naval Literature Craig

L Symonds has established himself as one of the finest naval historians at work today World War II at Sea represents his crowning achievement a complete narrative of the naval war and all of its belligerents on all of the world's oceans and seas between 1939 and 1945 Opening with the 1930 London Conference Symonds shows how any limitations on naval warfare would become irrelevant before the decade was up as Europe erupted into conflict once more and its navies were brought to bear against each other World War II at Sea offers a global perspective focusing on the major engagements and personalities and revealing both their scale and their interconnection the U boat attack on Scapa Flow and the Battle of the Atlantic the miracle evacuation from Dunkirk and the pitched battles for control of Norway fjords Mussolini's Regia Marina at the start of the war the fourth largest navy in the world and the dominance of the Kid Butai and Japanese naval power in the Pacific Pearl Harbor then Midway the struggles of the Russian Navy and the scuttling of the French Fleet in Toulon in 1942 the landings in North Africa and then Normandy Here as well are the notable naval leaders FDR and Churchill both self proclaimed Navy men Karl Dönitz François Darlan Ernest King Isoroku Yamamoto Erich Raeder Inigo Campioni Louis Mountbatten William Halsey as well as the hundreds of thousands of seamen and officers of all nationalities whose lives were imperiled and lost during the greatest naval conflicts in history from small scale assaults and amphibious operations to the largest armadas ever assembled Many have argued that World War II was dominated by naval operations few have shown and how and why this was the case Symonds combines precision with story telling verve expertly illuminating not only the mechanics of large scale warfare on and below the sea but offering wisdom into the nature of the war itself Presumed Lost Stephen

Moore, 2009-10-01 When submarines failed to return to port from patrol they were officially listed by the Navy as overdue and presumed lost Loved ones were notified by the War Department that their siblings spouses and sons were missing in action and presumed lost While 52 U S submarines were sunk in the Pacific the Japanese took prisoners of war from the survivors of only seven of these lost submarines Presumed Lost is the compelling story of the final patrols of those seven submarines and the long captivity of the survivors Of the 196 sailors taken prisoner 158 would survive the horrors of the POW camps where torture starvation and slave labor were common This is the most complete and accurate record of their captivity experiences ever compiled Author Stephen L Moore draws on personal interviews with the survivors as well as on diaries family archives and POW statements to reveal new details and correct longstanding errors in previously published accounts Moore's research brought to light the following facts Most crewmen from USS Perch endured 1 298 days of captivity without their families ever being told that they were still alive The Perch and USS Grenadier were so badly damaged by enemy depth charge attacks that their crews were forced to scuttle their ships USS Sculpin and USS S 44 went down fighting with only forty two men from the Sculpin being taken prisoner and half of them perishing on the way to Japan USS Tang and USS Tullibee victims of their own faulty circling torpedoes had few survivors five of whom managed to escape from the sunken burning Tang when it was 180 feet below the ocean surface As many as six men survived the loss of USS

Robalo after it struck a mine off Palawan but none of those survived the prison camps The book includes dozens of rare photos of the POWs many of which have never before been published Appendices include final muster rolls of the seven submarines and a complete list of the U S submariners who were held as POWs with details of their various camps of internment World War II: Shared Memories Denton Dabbs, 1999-12-01 Dabbs writes the stories of the service generation during WWII Many of the men in this book were in columns he wrote for the Dade County Sentinel in Trenton Georgia

Crash Dive Larry Bond, 2011-03-29 They are the ultimate unseen deterrent in modern warfare Thousands of tons of steel missiles torpedoes and men lurking silently hundreds of feet underwater able to lie off any coastline and unleash a devastating hail of destruction with pinpoint accuracy They are the true masters of the oceans striking swift and unseen before slipping away ready to do it all over again at a moment's notice Submarines and their crews have long held a revered place in the military with a special place of honor reserved for those men who willingly seal themselves in what could amount to a nuclear powered coffin for months on end Although the submarine is a relatively recent development in the field of warfare many of the men who live and fight in these steel fish have already become legends Edited by bestselling author Larry Bond Crash Dive collects the best nonfiction writing about these near silent killers of the deep and their crews From the tough Gato class boats that harassed the Japanese Navy during World War II to the cat and mouse games played by U S and Soviet submarines during the Cold War Crash Dive will take you inside the deep and deadly world of the military submarine

Medal of Honor Roy P. Benavidez, John R. Craig, 2005 The powerful story of one man's fight against bigotry paralysis and his war enemy that led to the Medal of Honor War and Punishment Hein Goemans, 2012-01-06 What makes wars drag on and why do they end when they do Here H E Goemans brings theoretical rigor and empirical depth to a long standing question of securities studies He explores how various government leaders assess the cost of war in terms of domestic politics and their own postwar fates Goemans first develops the argument that two sides will wage war until both gain sufficient knowledge of the other's strengths and weaknesses so as to agree on the probable outcome of continued war Yet the incentives that motivate leaders to then terminate war Goemans maintains can vary greatly depending on the type of government they represent The author looks at democracies dictatorships and mixed regimes and compares the willingness among leaders to back out of wars or risk the costs of continued warfare Democracies according to Goemans will prefer to withdraw quickly from a war they are not winning in order to appease the populace Autocracies will do likewise so as not to be overthrown by their internal enemies Mixed regimes which are made up of several competing groups and which exclude a substantial proportion of the people from access to power will likely see little risk in continuing a losing war in the hope of turning the tide Goemans explores the conditions and the reasoning behind this gamble for resurrection as well as other strategies using rational choice theory statistical analysis and detailed case studies of Germany Britain France and Russia during World War I In so doing he offers a new perspective of the Great War that integrates domestic politics international
