CARPENTER'S SON Frank Paul Hill, 2025-04-29 The Carpenter s Son By Frank Paul Hill Caleb Martin has spent years trying to forget his father Thomas the man who abandoned him and his mother leaving nothing but silence and unfinished woodwork in his wake But when Caleb returns to the family s old woodworking shop to mourn his mother s passing the ghosts of the past come rushing back Now in the midst of his grief a simple request from Father Michael a priest who knew both Caleb and his father forces Caleb to face the one thing he s spent his life avoiding forgiveness When Caleb discovers his father s long hidden letters filled with regret and painful confessions he is forced to reconsider everything he thought he knew about Thomas As he carves the Stations of the Cross his father left unfinished Caleb uncovers not only the legacy of a man shattered by war but also the emotional scars that tie his own fate to a history of unresolved pain As Caleb works he finds an unlikely ally in Sarah Rayburn Macall a woman fleeing an abusive past of her own Together they form an unexpected bond one forged in vulnerability and shared suffering With the guidance of a mysterious stranger Joshua Shepherd Caleb begins to see that healing is a craft not unlike the fine woodwork passed down through generations But when Caleb learns that his father is still alive living in a VA hospital the call to confront the past becomes unavoidable In a powerful journey of redemption and self discovery Caleb must decide whether to let go of his anger and truly embrace the lesson his father failed to teach him that healing like art is shaped not by perfection but by the hands willing to do the hard work The Carpenter s Son is a moving tale of forgiveness legacy and the enduring power of grace Through raw emotion and the beauty of craftsmanship Caleb Martin discovers that the true art of life is learning how to love again despite the wounds we carry and the pain we inherit One Wound for Another Claire Joysmith, Clara Lomas, 2005 Wound Care Management for the
