Yamamoto-Wilson,2013 Luther s 95 Theses begin and end with the concept of suffering and the question of why a benevolent God allows his creations to suffer remains one of the central issues of religious thought In order to chart the processes by which discourse relating to pain and suffering became marginalized during the period from the Renaissance to the end of the seventeenth century this book examines a number of books on the subject translated into English from mainly Spanish and Italian Combining elements of theology literature and history this book provides a fascinating perspective on one of the key conundrums of early modern religious history Getting Intimate Linn Sandberg, 2011-04-08 This thesis focuses on the intersections of masculinity old age and sexuality from the perspectives of old men themselves how they understand and experience sex and sexuality in later life The study uses qualitative in depth interviews and body diaries an exploratory method that asked men write about their bodies in everyday life Twenty two men born between 1922 and 1942 participated in the study The aim of the thesis is two fold firstly to study sexual subjectivities of old men how old men articulate and make meaning around sexuality in later life Secondly the study aims to explore theoretically what a male body may become in relation to ageing in what ways the ageing male body could be a site for rethinking masculinity and the male body This aim was inspired by feminist theories in dialogue with the deleuzian concept becoming Similarly to gender age is understood to take shape and become intelligible in social and cultural contexts Furthermore the thesis stresses the significance of the specificities of the ageing body to the shaping of masculinity sexuality and subjectivity The body is therefore discussed as an open materiality beyond the binaries of culture and nature materiality This thesis discusses the concepts intimacy and touch as central to how old men s sexual subjectivities take shape allowing for alternative conceptualisations of sexuality beyond erection and intercourse Intimacy and touch are understood and discussed in several different ways By orienting themselves to touch and intimacy the old men emerged as more mature unselfish and with more serene sexual desires This also involved them distancing themselves from the younger man other men whom they perceived as more selfish inconsiderate and with stronger sexual desires Intimacy and touch could in this respect be understood as resources for shaping desirable heterosexual masculinity An orientation to intimacy and touch enabled old men to appear as neither asexual nor as dirty old men But the study also suggests that a turn to intimacy and touch may open up possibilities for rethinking and reconfiguring sexuality masculinity and the male body The ageing body then need not be understood as an obstacle but as an enabling site that provides opportunities for intimacy and touch Moreover the thesis presents affirmative old age as an alternative conceptualisation of old age beyond both the discourses of successful ageing and the discourses of old age as negativity and decline As a theory of difference and bodily specificity affirmative old age may be of interest for further feminist theorising manhood achieved I didn't want it to end John Lee author of The Flying Boy Promiscuity in Western Literature Peter Stoneley, 2020-02-13 Poet and novelist Charles Bukowski described promiscuity as feast and feast and feast The promiscuous person is having fun getting away with it and showing no signs of stopping More often though promiscuity has been seen as demonic as the sign of an uncivilised race or as a symptom of mental disorder Promiscuity in Western Literature capitalises on the fact that literature gives us deep and varied resources for reflecting on this controversial aspect of human behaviour Drawing on authors from Homer to Margaret Atwood it explores recurrent ideas and scenarios Why does the literature of promiscuity evoke ideas of the animal Why does it so often turn upon the image of the excessive woman How and why does promiscuity feature in comic writing How does the emergence of the modern city change representations of promiscuity And in the present day what impact have ecological concerns had on the way writers depict promiscuity Pleasure Activism adrienne maree brown, 2019-03-19 How do we make social justice the most pleasurable human experience How can we awaken within ourselves desires that make it impossible to settle for anything less than a fulfilling life Editor adrienne maree brown finds the answer in something she calls Pleasure Activism a politics of healing and happiness that explodes the dour myth that changing the world is just another form of work Drawing on the black feminist tradition including Audre Lourde's invitation to use the erotic as power and Toni Cade Bambara's exhortation that we make the revolution irresistible the contributors to this volume take up the challenge to rethink the ground rules of activism Writers including Cara Page of the Astraea Lesbian Foundation For Justice Sonya Renee Taylor founder of This Body Is Not an Apology and author Alexis Pauline Gumbs cover a wide array of subjects from sex work to climate change from race and gender to sex and drugs they create new narratives about how politics can feel good and how what feels good always has a complex politics of its own Building on the success of her popular Emergent Strategy brown launches a new series of the same name with this volume bringing readers books that explore experimental expansive and innovative ways to meet the challenges that face our world today Books that find the opportunity in every crisis Never Marry a Woman with Big Feet Mineke Schipper, Wilhelmina Janneke Josepha Schipper, 2003-01-01 In this study the author analyses similarities differences and contradictions in the cultural norms about gender expressed in proverbs she has found in oral and written sources from over 150 countries Grouping the proverbs into categories as the female body love sex childbirth and the female power the author examines shared patterns in ideas about women and how men see them Memoirs of a Gigolo: My Early Years - Continued Lord Christian Halliday, 2016-10-12 Once again your quest to discover how my life as a gigolo began is bound between two covers And yes all of the personal memoirs I've recounted have occurred in my life exactly as described yet ala Mr Robert Leroy Ripley's famous words you may choose to believe it or not On the other hand perhaps my book's provocative contents could prove a bit too much for you While you're pondering that determination I'll reiterate that it was my mother whom envisioned my life should be lived as a gigolo and that my personal perception's always been that living such a carefree lifestyle could
