British Museum Catalogue of printed Books ,1887 Branding Books Across the Ages Helleke van den Braber,Jeroen Dera,Jos Joosten,Maarten Steenmeijer,2021-04-20 As marketing specialists know all too well our experience of products is prefigured by brands trademarks that identify a product and differentiate it from its competitors This process of branding has hitherto gained little academic discussion in the field of literary studies Literary authors and the texts they produce though are constantly branded from the early modern period onwards they have been both the object and the initiator of a complex marketing process This book analyzes this branding process throughout the centuries focusing on the case of the Netherlands To what extent is our experience of Dutch literature prefigured by brands and what role does branding play when introducing European authors in the Dutch literary field or vice versa By answering these questions the volume seeks to show how literary scholars can account for the phenomenon of branding Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum.
