Time The Year In Review 2015

Schmidt, Emily, Dorosh, Paul A., Kedir Jemal, Mekamu, Smart, Jennifer

Time The Year In Review 2015:

Stained Glass Ceilings Lisa Weaver Swartz, 2022-10-14 This book speaks to the intersection of gender and power within American evangelicalism by examining the formation of evangelical leaders at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and Asbury Theological Seminary arguing that evangelical culture upholds male centered structures of power even as it facilitates meaning and identity for both men and women

The Importance of New Technologies and Entrepreneurship in Business Development: In The Context of Economic Diversity in Developing Countries

Bahaaeddin Alareeni, Allam Hamdan, Islam Elgedawy, 2021-03-12 This book introduces the students researchers and practitioners into the subject and enabling technologies and applications pertaining to of technology entrepreneurship and business development through research articles case studies etc It is primarily intended for academic purposes for learners of computer Science management accounting and information systems disciplines economics entrepreneurship Publishing chapters in the book is new innovative idea to spread the book in the Middle East and Arab countries and make the book achieve more sales As many students in all levels graduates and undergraduates in addition to research professionals are not able to get sufficient resources because of the language concern

Ethiopia's spatial and structural transformation: Public policy and drivers of change Schmidt, Emily, Dorosh, Paul A., Kedir Jemal, Mekamu, Smart, Jennifer, 2018-07-03 This paper evaluates Ethiopia's urbanization trend during the last four decades while also considering Ethiopia's structural transformation and recent public investments to promote greater industrialization within the country Ethiopia's urban population grew 4.2 percent per year between 1994 and 2015 far outpacing the overall population growth rate of 2.5 percent Compared to the urban growth rate of Africa 3.5 percent per year Ethiopia experienced a 20 percent faster urban population growth rate UNDESA 2015 Urbanization in Ethiopia is expected to reach 38 percent by 2050 However this level is relatively low compared to the majority of sub-Saharan Africa SSA countries Improved road infrastructure rural to urban migration and secondary city development is increasing urbanization within the country In addition recent public investments to promote industrialization and increase manufacturing labor opportunities via newly constructed and planned industrial parks are projected to increase urbanization and bolster structural transformation across the country We evaluate these investments and demographic trends within the context of other countries in sub-Saharan Africa as well as with the experience of India and China Ethiopia's investment in higher value manufacturing and service activities via economic zones may provide similar infrastructure to that of China and India's township and village enterprises TVE However a focus on increasing human capacity and labor mobility will be necessary to ensure that rural farmers are able to take advantage of labor opportunities outside of the agriculture sector We calculate the projected economic impact of Ethiopia's planned industrial zones and sugar factories and find that while public and private investment in industrial and agro industrial parks may provide a catalyst for future growth they are likely to provide only a small share of total output and employment Investments in sugar factories are anticipated to total USD 5.2 billion with estimated production of USD 3.6 billion and value added of USD 3.3 billion. However, an increase in sugar output of this magnitude would imply massive sugar exports that may not be financially profitable.

Closing the Gap Nicol R. Howard, Regina Schaffer, Sarah Thomas, 2018-11-30 Three experts on equity and technology offer research evidence based strategies and examples of best practices to move toward digital equity in teacher education programs and beyond. Closing the Gap is an ISTE book series designed to reflect the contributions of multiple stakeholders seeking to ensure that digital equity is achieved on campuses in classrooms and throughout education. In this series, authors Nicol R. Howard, Sarah Thomas, and Regina Schaffer offer historical and philosophical insights while exploring challenges and solutions unique to teacher preparation programs, pre-service and in-service teachers, and instructional coaches. The first title in the Closing the Gap series, this book includes: Discussion of historical placement of digital equity content in teacher education programs; Research and evidence based vignettes from teacher educators, higher education deans, and department coordinators demonstrating best practices; Examples of ISTE Standards in action; Practical tips for preparing future teachers to navigate the process; Positive applications of digital equity; A hypothesis for the future direction of digital equity in teacher education. This book will inform teacher education programs and future research, providing positive examples and recommendations for educational technology leaders and educators on moving toward digital equity in K12 and teacher education. Audience: teacher educators.

Punk, Ageing and Time Laura Way, Matt Grimes, 2024-04-03 To date, there has been no plotting of punk scholarship which speaks to time, yet there are some clear bodies of work pertaining to particular issues relevant to it, including ageing and/or the life course and punk memory and/or nostalgia and punk history and archiving and punk. Punk Ageing and Time is therefore a timely pun intended book. What this edited collection does for the first time is bring together contemporary investigations and discussions specifically around punk and ageing and/or time, covering areas such as punk and ageing, the relationship between temporality and particular concepts relevant to punk such as authenticity, DIY, identity, resistance, spatiality, style, and punk memory, remembering and/or forgetting. Multidisciplinary in nature, this book considers areas which have received very little to no academic attention previously.

Gender and Time Use in a Global Context Rachel Connelly, Ebru Kongar, 2017-07-10 This edited volume uses a feminist approach to explore the economic implications of the complex interrelationship between gender and time use. Household composition, sexuality, migration patterns, income levels, and race/ethnicity are all considered as important factors that interact with gender and time use patterns. The book is split into two sections. The macroeconomic portion explores cutting edge issues such as time poverty and its relationship to income poverty and the macroeconomic effects of recession and austerity, while the microeconomic section studies topics such as differences by age, activity sequencing, and subjective well-being of time spent. The chapters also examine a range of age groups from the labor of school age children to elderly caregivers and analyze time use in Argentina, Australia, Canada, China, Finland, India, Korea, South Africa, Tanzania, Turkey, and the United States. Each chapter provides a substantial introduction to the academic literature of its focus and is written to be revealing to researchers and accessible to students and policymakers Federal Register ,2013-12 Flood Forecasting Using Machine Learning Methods Fi-John Chang,Kuolin Hsu,Li-Chiu Chang,2019-02-28 Nowadays the degree and scale of flood hazards has been massively increasing as a result of the changing climate and large scale floods jeopardize lives and properties causing great economic losses in the inundation prone areas of the world Early flood warning systems are promising countermeasures against flood hazards and losses A collaborative assessment according to multiple disciplines comprising hydrology remote sensing and meteorology of the magnitude and impacts of flood hazards on inundation areas significantly contributes to model the integrity and precision of flood forecasting Methodologically oriented countermeasures against flood hazards may involve the forecasting of reservoir inflows river flows tropical cyclone tracks and flooding at different lead times and or scales Analyses of impacts risks uncertainty resilience and scenarios coupled with policy oriented suggestions will give information for flood hazard mitigation Emerging advances in computing technologies coupled with big data mining have boosted data driven applications among which Machine Learning technology with its flexibility and scalability in pattern extraction has modernized not only scientific thinking but also predictive applications This book explores recent Machine Learning advances on flood forecast and management in a timely manner and presents interdisciplinary approaches to modelling the complexity of flood hazards related issues with contributions to integrative solutions from a local regional or global perspective The U.S. Secretaries of Education Catherine L.

Sommervold,2023-08-07 The book U S Secretaries of Education A Short History of Their Lives Impact by Catherine L Sommervold is a new approach to examining education history The first Secretary of Education took office in 1979 and excluding interim Secretaries there have been thirteen to date This book contains a short biography of each Secretary of Education and discusses their activities Also included is a table that allows for a side by side comparison of the Secretaries their demographics and their budgets U S Secretaries outlines the secretaries and details about their tenure in an attempt at an objectivity with the hope to encourage critical thinking and conversations about education and education policy

Sedentary Behaviour Epidemiology Michael F. Leitzmann,Carmen Jochem,Daniela Schmid,2023-12-23 This book addresses the origins determinants and magnitude of the global problem of sedentary behaviour along with concise yet in depth solutions for tackling it As a consequence of major technological advances in modern society many people find themselves in environments characterized by prolonged sedentary behaviour Building on the contributions of leading experts in the field the new edition of this book presents updated knowledge about sedentary behaviour its medical and public health significance its correlates and determinants measurement techniques and recommendations for addressing this behaviour at the individual community environmental and policy level The book encompasses current research linking the COVID 19 pandemic to increased levels of sedentary behavior and it covers global and planetary health aspects of sedentary behavior highlighting sustainable development goals such as health and well being for all Applying a cross disciplinary methodology the book avoids considering physical activity and sedentary behavior as a single continuum which potentially hampers progress in confronting widespread levels of sedentariness Rather the book helps readers better understand how sedentary and physically active behavior co occur and how the two behaviours have distinct contributing factors Building on the contributions of distinguished international experts in the field this thorough resource is a valuable asset and challenges professionals researchers students and practitioners alike to adopt new strategies and expand their reach
