Trustees Training Manual Ame Church:

History of the African Methodist Episcopal Church Daniel Alexander Payne, 1891 The Methodist Year-book, 1901
The Bishops of the African Methodist Episcopal Church Richard Robert Wright, 1963 No Man's Land Priscilla Pope-Levison, 2025-10-28
No Man's Land by Priscilla Pope Levison award winning author and former president of the Historical Society of the United Methodist Church and the Wesleyan Theological Society is a groundbreaking study of the international characteristics of a remarkable but largely forgotten women's movement of Methodist deaconesses Pope Levison has carefully curated archival resources vivid vignettes striking photos and intimate personal diaries to offer us not just a historical overview but an encounter with the women who left their homes in Australia Great Britain Canada continental Europe New Zealand the Philippines and the United States to don the black dresses distinctive bonnets and sturdy shoes of a burgeoning movement dedicated to serving those ground down by suffering sickness poverty and addiction This is not just any book It is an experience that captures the lost lives of women who visited in tenements waited on train platforms to welcome young boys and girls arriving alone who nursed and preached and taught and fed Deaconesses carved out a precarious existence in no man's land neither fully clergy nor fully laity that nonetheless galvanized an international network of Methodist women Preparing the Pastors We Need George A. Mason, 2012-11-06
Amid the widespread discussion about the future of the church an important point is sometimes overlooked tomorrow's church will depend to a great extent on the new pastors of today who will serve and guide our churches in the years ahead George Mason's Preparing the Pastors We Need Reclaiming the Congregation's Role in Training Clergy makes a timely intervention asking us to redefine pastoral leadership by analyzing how in fact pastors are made in the first place The book highlights an exciting development in the training of pastors pastoral residency programs and mentoring Mason demonstrates that these programs work best when the congregations themselves not just leadership or staff are an active participant in the training In this way churches begin to reclaim their rightful role in the formation of the ministers that will serve them And at the same time they become healthier and more effective churches Mason gives us the analogy of physician training Medical school produces graduates with extensive knowledge of the body but a practicing doctor will require several more years of internship and residency Similarly our seminaries and divinity schools produce men and women with good biblical knowledge but they might not prepare a graduate for the task of helping a bereaved parishioner cope with the sudden loss of a loved one Moreover such areas as finances budgets personnel management and vocational identity are also not well suited to seminary study Mason shows that congregation based mentoring and residency are excellent ways to bridge this gap Negro Year Book, 1922 The Journal of intergroup relations, 1997 Who's who in Colored America, 1927 Negro Education United States.
