The Future of Entrepreneurship in Africa Anthony Abiodun Eniola, Chux Gervase Iwu, Abdullah Promise Opute, 2022-12-30 For many years entrepreneurship has been considered as one of the most important solutions to the three pronged challenges poverty unemployment and inequality of most African countries A recent development that has undoubtedly compounded the challenges that African entrepreneurs face and further impede the economic growth impact is Covid 19 This pandemic has exerted severe damage to economies and businesses globally For the African setting the implications of Covid 19 on businesses and individuals would be enormous as African societies are rarely equipped to absorb unexpected shocks of this magnitude as the social and welfare schemes are far below requirements This book illuminates entrepreneurship in the African setting focusing on the prospects challenges and the post Covid 19 pandemic future It aims to offer a rich repository of information on strategies and techniques for sustaining entrepreneurial activities that can enrich African nations and will be of relevance to academics researchers advanced students entrepreneurs governments and government agencies who are interested in understanding issues relating to entrepreneurship development within the African continent Deanship in the Global South Oliver J.J. Seale, 2021-02-08 The university today is a postmodern neo liberal competitive boundary less knowledge conglomerate a far cry from its historical traditional classical and collegial roots There is a body of literature on deanship that points to its evolving nature in the contemporary academe characterised by complexity and change Balancing academic demands simultaneously with the requirements for effective performance leadership and management lies at the heart of this very challenging bridging role nowadays Deans are generally former academics emerging from a traditional collegial space and often catapulted into the relatively unknown domain of executive management with its related problems Deans nowadays are required to be more than collegial intellectual leaders They are also meant to be fiscal and human resource experts fundraisers politicians and diplomats Deanship in the Global South Bridging Troubled Waters is about the deans lived reality as they try to balance the demands of both the academe from which they emerge and the administration to whom they now need to account Their lack of preparation and inadequate support points to the need for a more strategic integrated approach to leadership development within their critical bridging roles between the academe and administration
